Foreword

By Louis E. Kirstein

President, Associated Jewish Philanthropies

THIS annual report has been prepared for the members of the Associated Jewish Philanthropies whose support made possible its community-wide service during 1936-37.

During the past twelve months, the constituent agencies have been called upon to render services far in excess of the anticipated demand. On the following pages is a brief summary of their activities and record of service. I hope that every member will read this report carefully that he may be better acquainted with the work and share the pride of participation in its accomplishment.

The list of members published on these pages is substantially larger than a year ago. Although greater numbers have been enrolled each year since 1930, there are still thousands residing in our community who rightfully belong on this Roll of Honor. The enlisting of new members and more adequate support where possible from those already enrolled should be the major objectives of the 1937-38 Campaign.

BETH ISRAEL HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION maintains a general non-sectarian hospital with a capacity of 225 beds. Through the Hospital, Out-Patient, Research, School of Nursing and Social Service Departments a complete medical service is offered.

Affiliated with the Harvard and Tufts Medical Schools, the Hospital and its departments provide opportunities in training, practice and research for Jewish doctors, nurses, technicians, etc.

In 1936, 16,286 patients received treatment in the Hospital and Out-Patient Departments. Of the 5,984 patients admitted to the Hospital, 2,294 received care in the wards. Ward patients spent 31,191 patient days out of the 58,966 patient-day total. The 10,302 patients made 61,473 visits to the Out-Patient Department.

Expenditures for free service in 1936 totalled $193,614 of which $143,851 went for free ward care and $49,763 in the Out-Patient Department.

JEWISH CHILD WELFARE ASSOCIATION is the child care agency of the Associated Jewish Philanthropies. Care is provided for those dependent Jewish children of Boston, who are deprived of a normal family life, in carefully selected and supervised private Jewish homes. The association also provides year-round special care for children suffering from rheumatic fever. Children presenting special health problems are also accepted for summer placement and care.

Last year the agency provided care for 322 children of whom 121 were admitted for care during the year.

JEWISH MEMORIAL HOSPITAL, formerly known as the Greater Boston Bikur Cholim Hospital, provides hospital care for the chronic type of Jewish patient. Opening of the new wing last October made it possible for the Hospital to more than double the number cared for. During the past year 132 patients were given 14,215 days of hospital care at the institution. More than 80 per cent. of this care was rendered free at a cost of $42,069.

HECHT NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE is the Jewish community center serving the vast Jewish population of Dorchester and Mattapan. More than 4,000 children and adults participated last year in its varied and purposeful program of educational, recreational and leisure time activities including Jewish education, sewing, dramatics, arts and crafts and a completely equipped gymnasium. The Nursery School is scheduled to open in October.

Hecht House also maintains a Summer Day Camp for children of the neighborhood and the Hecht Pioneer Camp in Westwood where vacation care is provided for boys between the ages of 11 and 14 who pay only for the cost of their food.

In 1927, the HEBREW TEACHERS COLLEGE was granted the right to award degrees of Bachelor, Master and Doctor of Hebrew Literature, Hebrew Laws and Jewish Education. Candidates for a degree must complete eight years of study beyond the six-year elementary Hebrew school course and at least two years in a secular college. Several New England colleges allow credit for courses at the Hebrew Teachers College.

Departments of the College include the Hebrew High School, Extension Classes, including adults and the experimental Class. Free or part-free tuition scholarships are awarded to deserving students.

Application for Passover relief may be made to the district committee at Passover relief stations established in leading synagogues throughout the city. Matzoth is also provided Jewish patients and inmates at state hospitals and penal institutions.

Last year approximately 2,500 needy families were provided with 25,000 pounds of matzoth and funds for the purchase of other Passover necessities.

Bequests and Wills

In making your will, you probably will give considerable thought to bequests to charity. You could leave no finer memorial than a general bequest to the Associated Jewish Philanthropies, Inc., the income of which would take the place of your annual subscription.

The late great philanthropist and humanitarian, Julius Rosenwald, pointed out that donors of restricted legacies forget that "time passes and nothing — not even the crying needs of the era — endures." It was his conviction that "gifts should not be restricted to narrowly specified objects."

In a general bequest to the Associated Jewish Philanthropies, Inc., you make certain the application of the income to the changing and broader problems of the Boston Jewish community as they arise from time to time. In the event that an institution or agency in which you are interested is discontinued, the income can be applied to other philanthropic purposes.

All trust funds of the Associated Jewish Philanthropies are administered by the Board of Managers of Trust Property, which is made up of such informed and responsible trustees as those who are now serving. The proceeds of unrestricted legacies can be administered from year to year by these trustees to meet changing needs as time reveals.

Printed on the next page are three forms of bequests. The offices of the Associated Jewish Philanthropies will be pleased to furnish you with other forms for the types of bequests in which you may be interested, and other information.

Forms of Bequests

General Bequests in Unrestricted Legacy

"I give and bequeath the sum of.....dollars to the ASSOCIATED JEWISH PHILANTHROPIES, INC., a corporation duly organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

Permanent Endowment Fund

"I give and bequeath the sum of.....dollars to the ASSOCIATED JEWISH PHILANTHROPIES, INC., a corporation duly organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to be held in trust by it and the income only thereof to be used for the purpose of the said Associated Jewish Philanthropies."

Contingent Endowment Fund*

"I give and bequeath the sum of.....dollars to the ASSOCIATED JEWISH PHILANTHROPIES, INC., a corporation duly organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to be held in trust by it, and only the income thereof to be used for the purposes of the said Associated Jewish Philanthropies of Boston; provided, however, that if any contingencies arise, which in the descretion of the Board of Managers of Trust Property of said trustee renders it necessary or advisable to use the principal, or any part thereof, at any time or from time to time for the corporate purposes of said trustee, such principal or part thereof may be so used."

*—This form of bequest leaves the money available for use as future necessities may arise. No one can foresee all contingencies. It is urged that discretion be left to the Board of Managers of Trust Property that may be in office at any critical time. It should be noted, however, that no Board to date has encroached upon the principal of any endowment or bequest, even though empowered to do so and that only the income of those bequests has been applied for the current purposes of the Associated Jewish Philanthropies.

● "He who urges others to give charity and causes them to practice it, earns a greater reward than the one who gives."—(is. xxxii, 17)

List of Members

Payment of $5.00 or more entitles the contributor to membership in the Associated Jewish Philanthropies. The following list includes all pledges of $5.00 or more made for 1936-37, corrected as of September 1, 1937.

No effort has been spared in the attempt to make this membership list as accurate as possible. The list may, however, contain errors in which we beg your indulgence, and request immediate correction.

The Associated Jewish Philanthropies also gratefully acknowledges 5,170 contributions of less than $5.00 each totalling $6,655.84. The names of these individuals necessarily are omitted from the list of members published herewith.

"Let us not mistake the problem of security for the mass of people. Recovery brings benefits to them but at a slow and halting pace. For them there is no normal period of prosperity. In good times and bad, wage earners are subject to loss of jobs through technological unemployment, labor saving devices, seasonal slumps, changes in fashion and styles, speculative developments, permature old age and sickness."—LOUIS E. ● PART-TIME WORK — Where there's part-time work, a family is ineligible for city relief. Working two or three days a week doesn't bring Mr. Z. enough to provide his family with food and shelter. Fanny, the oldest daughter, has been promised a job and until then Family Welfare is helping out with $3.00 a week.

● "Day-to-day living is a thing made up of intimate and neighborly human relations. For most of us, at most times, greatest effectiveness lies in what we do in our own community. That is why agencies like the Associated Jewish Philanthropies embodying, as they do, the routines and procedures of group life, not only help men bridge the stormy place confronting them as they move through time, but also assure them the instruments for carrying forward the continuing services and ideals of the human family."—B. M. SELEKMAN, Executive Director.

● "May I not express the hope that in the 1937-38 Campaign for the first time we may really get sufficient funds to carry on with decency and pride? Very few of us in the business community thought in 1932 that five years later would witness our equities restored to the level they now hold. Can we not share some of that appreciation with our charities so that for once we may discharge our responsibilties in a way that would do us credit? If we are to re-establish our institutions and agencies on a self-supporting and self-respecting basis, I believe that this is the year to do it."—LOUIS E. KIRSTEIN, President.

● SELF-SUPPORTING NOW—Not all families require financial help over a long period. Some just come for the skilled services the Jewish Family Welfare Association offers. It was a year ago last spring that Mr. B. threatened suicide. Where he regularly had averaged $50.00 a week, selling on commission, his new job brought him $6.00 a week at the most. Mr. B. insisted there still was a market for his old commodity but firms tightened up on credit after bills remained unpaid month after month. By guaranteeing the account at the source of supply and helping out with living expenses until new customers paid their bills, Mr. B. was supporting his family within two months, and a month or two later repaid the agency the funds advanced him.

● "We must make available much larger sums than we have in the past for Jewish education and for community centers. In the years to come a distracted and distressed youth will constitute one of our gravest problems. We must provide for them not only the opportunity for comradeship and for contact with creative forces, but also for acquiring that sense of moral values which come from knowledge of the past and participation in the present life and problems of our people."—B. ● ELIGIBILITY — Since Mr. A. suffered a heart attack, the family has been aided by Family Welfare with ten dollars a week. Mrs. A. had to prove her eligibility for Mothers' Aid, that her husband was totally incapacitated for a full year. Now Mrs. A. receives a check each month from Mothers' Aid and no longer needs your help through Family Welfare. But there are twelve new families every week who do.

● "Over 50 per cent of the total subscription for 1935-36 came from 136 contributions of $500 or more, and that for the 1936-37 Campaign 55 per cent came from 208 subscriptions. It cannot be stressed too much that our aims in raising money are more successfully attained when we increase the number of large subscriptions."—CASPER M. ● "I cannot tell you if the community is receiving full value for its money. I must confess that it is beyond my humble powers to place a value upon the alleviation of pain and the restoration of health. I do not know how much a feeling of contentment in a child is worth who has found a safe haven in a new home after being adrift. What is the value of a contented smile on the face of the head of a family whose problems have been made easier by someone acting for the Jewish Family Welfare Association? How shall we evaluate the influence on character in institutions like the Y. M. H. A. and Hecht Neighborhood House? What price shall we place on the stimulation which the young receive there, and the ambition that is created in their hearts? Is it possible to decide upon the value of the kindly and sympathetic care received by a patient at the Bikur Cholim Hospital?"—CASPER M. GROSBERG in the Annual Treasurer's Report.

● SHATTERED MORALE — The G's had been married ten years and their little world revolved around a happy homelife and their children. Then one day four years ago Mr. G. was seriously injured at work driving his truck. Since then his little world has crashed from under him. There followed a long period of illness with dizzy spells, and soon after the loss of the use of his legs and speech. After a delicate operation, he could walk and talk again but he still was highly nervous. Because industrial compensation was insufficient, the family went to live with the wife's family. Mr. G. brooded. Where could one turn to for a job? He just couldn't go back to driving a truck, the only job he ever did well. Now he was out of patience with the children.

Continued visits to the hospital brought the same reports. Mr. G.'s condition was principally due to shattered morale. The first problem was to re-establish the family in their own home. Confidence must be restored in Mr. G., as well as his wife, that he would again be the family bread-winner even though it meant doing lighter work. After Mr. G. failed at the two jobs secured for him, on the advice of physicians, it was decided to send him to a farm for the summer. There he got the feel of working again, happy that he could use his hands once more in gainful occupation, light as his work was. With Mr. G.'s help Family Welfare will decide whether he shall be retrained vocationally or financed in a small business. It is now two years that the agency has been helping the G.'s in their quest to regain happy married life. Aren't the G.'s wrth your continued help?

● Special services are available to those in temporary financial need. Many a small business man has been saved from ruin, many a doctor bill paid, many a family kept "off relief" by the Hebrew Free Loan Society. Last year more than 2,000 individuals borrowed well over a quarter of a million dollars from this society. And there was no interest or other charges for this service.
