ברכה ושלום!

במענה להודעתן על דבר סיומן חוק לימודיהן, יהי רצון שיהי' בשעה טובה ומוצלחת להתקדמות נעלה יותר בלימודיהן והנהגתן כיאות לבנות ישראל הנושאות בגאון את התואר – בנות שרה רבקה רחל ולאה אשר בנו את בית ישראל.

וכיון שמתקרבים אנו לימי החנוכה, וידוע מאמר חכמינו ז"ל "אף הן (הנשים) היו באותו הנס", ובפרט על פי פירוש רש"י – "שעל ידי אשה הי' הנס", הרי כמדובר כמה פעמים, ענין ימי החנוכה ונר חנוכה הנזכרים ונעשים מדי שנה בשנה אין זה סתם לזכרון, אלא שהזכרון והמעשה יעוררו את הכוונה והתכלית בזה בהנוגע לחיי היום-יום.

ומההוראות דחנוכה, כמודגש בתפלת "ועל הנסים", שאין יהודי מתפעל כלל ממצב של חלשים ומעטים (בכמות) כנגד גבורים ורבים, ואדרבא כיון שהיהודים הם טהורים וצדיקים ועוסקים בתורת ה' ומצותי', מתגברים הם על כל הדברים מבחוץ ומבפנים העלולים להשכיח תורת ה' ומצותי' ועד – לנצחון גמור והדלקת נרות וכו'.

ומהוראות דנר חנוכה, שמדליקים דוקא משתשקע החמה, שעה שהחושך יכסה ארץ וכו', ואף-על-פי-כן שמדליק נר אחד בלילה ראשון מקיים המצוה בשלימות והוא בס"ג ה"מהדרין מן המהדרין" מוסיף נר ואור בליל שני, וגם לאחרי שהראה שכבר הוסיף, הרי כשעובר עוד יום-גם זה לא מספיק וצריך להוסיף עוד נר ואור, וכן הולך ומוסיף שבוע שלם.

וההוראה מובנת, שבכל ענייני נר מצוה ותורה אור – ובפרט בתקופתנו זו ובימינו אלה – צריך להתנהג באופן האמור דהולך ומוסיף, להאיר כל אחד ואחת חייהם הם, וגם להאיר את הבית וגם את הרחוב ולהאיר לכל אלה ההולכים בחושך שיראו אור גדול, אור התורה ומצותי', בחיי היום יום במעשה בפועל, הלוך ומוסיף ואור.

ויהי רצון שכל אחת ואחת מהן תעשנה בזה ככל החלוי בהן ומתוך שמחה וטוב לבב, והשם יתברך יברך את כל אחת ואחת מהן וימלא משאלות לבבן לטובה.

בברכה להצלחה ולימי חנוכה

Dear Graduates, עמו״ש

During the lifetime of a Jew, there are occasions when he finds himself ''stepping out'' of a comfortable environment — one which he has become used to for a number of years — and entering into a more challenging and trying situation. How carefully he steps out into his new and more difficult pursuit shall decide the final measure of success in his new venture.

Let us see how יעקב אבינו made his '' ויצא ''.

יעקב אבינו had lived in the home of יצחק ורבקה for 63 years. When it came time to leave באר שבע and go to the house of לבן — a home far different than the one he was accustomed to, he fortified himself with the spiritual strength necessary for such a momentous ''step''. He went to the Yeshiva of שם ועבר — to learn Torah — he prayed to Hashem that He may watch over him. Then and only then did he proceed to חרן his new challenge. Not only did he not weaken in his new surroundings but he succeeded in raising the שבטים and in acquiring great material wealth.

This contains a great lesson for each and every Jew. Whenever a great ''step'' is to be made — it must be made with aforethought. A Jew must fortify himself spiritually with Torah and Tfillah . . . then he will be assured of great success in all his endeavors.

הצלחה in your ''new step'' and may you bring much אידישע Nachas and חסידישע Nachas to us all.

Dear Graduates, עמו״ש

Your graduation after eight years is truly an exciting event in your lives. It celebrates the continuance rather than the end of your education. Your years here in Bais Rivkah have laid the strong foundation upon which you can continue to build. You are mature young ladies now, ready to assume responsibility for choosing the right building blocks for your future lives. I am sure that the talent, abilities and good judgement you have displayed will go far towards creating a structure of which the Rebbe Shlita, your parents and all of Israel can derive much nachas. I am proud of you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Shulamis Goldberg

Dear Graduates, עמו"ש

The Alter Rebbe in the written Torah of Chassidus, the Tanya, explains that every Rosh Hashana there is a new and higher G-dly revelation. Such a revelation has never been since the creation of the world. It is readily apparent that every year it is unique and has a special quality of its own. Since the ultimate purpose of creation is the Jewish nation, it is self-evident that every year a Jew has a special mission to stress in his service to Hashem.

Let us ponder on this years uniqueness. This year is a leap year. An entire month has been added to the calendar. The Jewish year, which is based on the lunar cycle, is 11 days shorter than the solar year, therefore every 2 — 3 years it is necessary to add an entire month to the calendar to enable the lunar year to catch up with the solar year. The extra month not only makes up for the past but gives a deposit on the future.

The Jewish nation is likened to the moon. The special purpose of a leap year is to enable us to remake those deeds in the past which need correction, to perfect our own good deeds, and to prepare a deposit for the future.

The years spent in Bais Rivkah where you have learned our holy Torah permeated with the light of Chabad Chassidus are one long leap year. For those of you who are going to a higher level of education in Bais Rivkah, we urge; use every minute to the best advantage. Those who have ended their formal education; remember the unbound reserves you have acquired and use them to their utmost.

May you be a source of Nachas to the Rebbe Shlita, your parents and Bais Rivkah.

Dear Graduates, עמו״ש

It is written in קהלת „מה שהיה הוא שיהיה ומה שנעשה הוא שיעשה ואין כל חדש תחת השמש״ ''Whatever will be in the future has already transpired in the past, that which will be done has already been done, and there is nothing new under the sun.''

At first glance, a person might become discouraged, and despair at the thought that all is merely repetitious and unmeaningful. The thought that there are no new territories to explore, and no new ideas to introduce, may discourage one from striving higher and reachng for new goals in serving Hashem.

However, if we look closer we will see this is not the case. We say in our Davening, '' המחדש בטובו בכל יום תמיד מעשה בראשית .'' ''Hashem is constantly renewing the works of his creation.'' This means, that the world wasn't created instantly, at one particular time, and left to exist on its own ever since. On the contrary! There is a continuous flow of life and energy from Hashem to every single creation. If for one second He would stop giving new life and strength to the world it would cease to exist.

This shows us that the concept of creation is constantly taking place in everything surrounding us. This may seem contradictory to what שלמה המלך ע״ה writes in קהלת . There he leads us to believe that ''new'' does not exist; however there is no contradiction at all. שלמה המלך ע״ה. is referring to physical and materialistic items and knowledge that are not based on Torah and Mitzvos.

In this respect nothing is really new. Everything was created at the time of creation, and we discover things and new ideas when the time comes for these things or ideas to become known to the world. Nevertheless there is nothing new about them for they have already existed. However, the renewing of the world and all that is in it is in a spiritual sense. Although we do not see it with our physical eyes, we must believe that it is so.

Similarly, a Jew who is created in the image of Hashem is compared to a small world. Just as Hashem renews life and strengthens the world constantly, so too should a Jew renew his own life and strengthen it to the fullest extent that he is able. He must start new in every thought or deed that he thinks or does in connection with learning Torah or serving Hashem. A Jew should not feel that he or she is doing the same things day in and day out; the same learning, the same Davening, or the same Mitzvos. Instead each and every accomplishment in דברי קדושה should be done with a fresh and new vigor. For each day is not similar to the previous day, and each Mitzvah is totally different to those previously performed, when seen in its spiritual perspective.

This lesson can be learned from your graduation. You have completed eight years of learning and are about to begin a ninth year with a newer and higher level than before. This concept should be applied to your daily lives. Begin new with zeal and enthusiasm in all that you undertake. Become a source of inspiration, and a tower of strength to all those around you.

May you have much הצלחה in the future and bring Nachas to your parents and teachers.

Sincerely,
Rabbi Y. Zoldan

מחנכים אשר התחילו את דרכם בחינוך מהמחלקות הנמוכות ומעלה, אשר צעד אחר צעד, ושלב אחר שלב, החזיקו ביד מחונכיהם, להעלותם ולהקנות להם יסודות הלימוד, וידיעות מורחבות,

הנה כשמגיעים ל,,תקופת מעבר״, אז עומדים לרגע על מקומם, כשפניהם מועדות לעבר העבר, כדי לסכם להעלות ולהדגיש בעיקר על ההשגים בדרכם הארוכה. ולשמוח יחד כשהגיעו עד הנה.

אין ברצוני לשלול את כל זה.

אבל נוסף על ההשגים, אני רוצה להדריך ולעורר את תשומת לבכן, ולהפנות את פניכן בעיקר בכיוון העתיד.

מגמתכן תהי׳ תמיד לחזק את רצונכן למטרות נשגבות שתעמידו לפניכן.דמויות נעלות מעברנו הנפלא, ומהנמצאות בינינו היום, תהיינה מול פניכן להאיר את דרככן, לחזק את רוחכן, לקראת משימות נשגבות, וחיי אושר.

לכבוד המסיימות, עמו״ש

בעמידתכן על מפתן חדש בעולם הגדול, כדאי לחשוב קצת על חשיבות ופעילות העבר כדי להיעזר בו לעתיד.

נבין את זה במשל קצר:

בבניית הבנין הגדול, הזמינו אדריכל מפורסם לבוא ולשער על בניית הבנין. עבד האדריכל ימים ימימה על כל הפרטים עד שהתחילו הבנאים בעבודה עצמה.

פעם עבר תייר אחד את מקום הבני׳ ותמהה. ,,מה עושים שמה מתחת לאדמה? איזה צורך יש לבית עם דירות תת־קרקעי?״ שאל התייר את האדריכל עצמו עם צחוק לעגתית.

ענה לו האדריכל, ,,טפש שכמותך! מורגש כמה ידוע לך על בניית בנין ענקית. זה שכבר רואים בבני׳ הוא רק היסוד, שבו לא יגורו הדיירים. בניית הבנין עצמו יתחיל רק בעוד כמה חדשים, אחרי גמירת יסוד הבנין״.

ולכן, בנות המסיימות, תזכרנה בהמשכתכן בעתיד את חשיבות העבר. סיימתן עכשיו את דרגת היסוד שהוא בבית ספר יסודי. מדי פעם בפעם הי׳ יכול להיות לכן שאלות וטענות על חשיבותה של כתות מסויימות ודברים מסויימים. תדענה שכל הדברים הקטנים והאי־חשובים בעיניכן רק עזרו לחזק את הבסיס. העיקר, תזכרנה שיסוד הבנין צריך להיות חזק.

אני מאחלת לכן כל הברכות שתעלינה ותצלחנה בכל אשר תפנינה, ותזכרנה להתגדל באור התורה והחסידות כרצון הוריכן, מחנכיכן וידידכן ובראשונה כרצון כ״ק אדמו״ר שליט״א.

How is it possible for one to express the thoughts welling up inside of oneself? Yet, how is it possible not to do so?

How is it possible to spend time writing a letter when time is so sparse and so many things have yet to be done? Yet, how is it possible not to do so when there is such an enormous number of things to write about?

There are many times when things seem so impossible, yet they are possible!

How is it possible that such beautiful eight years have swept by us so quickly, filling us with so much knowledge and leaving us such vivid memories? Memories which make us feel regret for not having grown up more slowly.

Yet, the possibility is revealed!

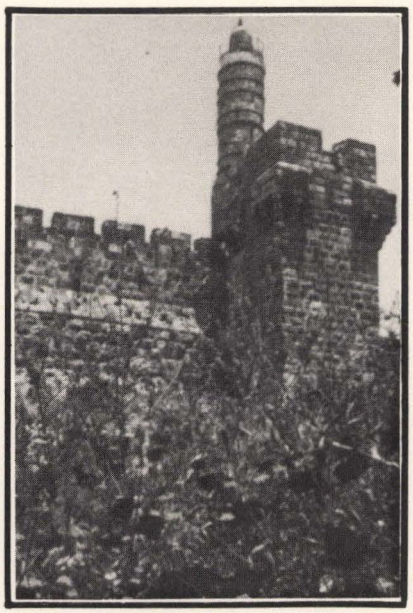

Eight beautiful years have rushed by with such unforgettable memories! An adventurous class trip to Washington filled with excitement. . . A group of frantic girls trying to meet the yearbook deadline in despair. . . The tension in anticipation for graduation day. . .

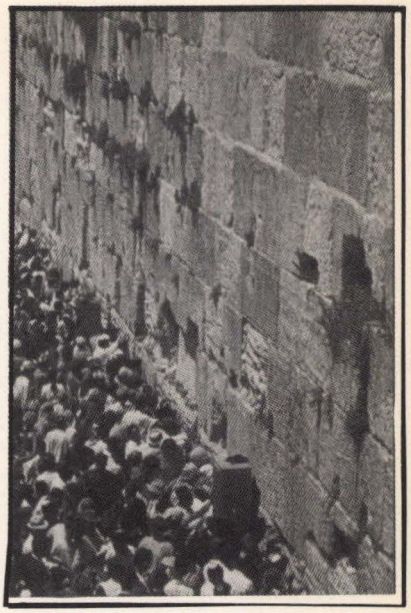

Through these joyful moments we formed strong bonds of friendship which can not be swept away with time. The strength of these bonds are growing stronger and are only now beginning to live!

מאין יבוא עזרי

אדם עני! אין כסף. וילדים... יש הרבה. עזרה? – אין! למה לסבול כך? למה להביא ילדים לעולם – לענות להם? ילדים מסכנים – תמימים. בית? לא בדיוק. רק צריף קטן.

מאין יבוא עזרי?

עבודה? אתה צוחק! למי יש עבודה בזמן הזה של מלחמה?

שמע ישראל...

ניסים!!

עזרי מעם ה'

הכסף נופל משמים. היתכן?! לא. אבל כך היא. כל בקר ליד החלון הוא מוצא פרוטה. הוא יכול לקנות פרוסת לחם לביתו. אפילו שתים. ולפעמים יש מספיק לתפוחי אדמה. איך זה?!

אבל ממי? מי עושה הדבר הטוב הזה אליו? אולי להסתכל ולראות? לא. אז, לא יכול לקחת את הכסף ממנו. אבל מצד שני, למה לקחת כסף מאדם שנמצא באותו מצב? לא, הוא מוכרח להסתכל ולמצא את האיש שנותן לו את הכסף אולי, זה כן נופל משמים! אי! לא! הרב יענקל השמש! איך אוכל לקחת את הכסף ממנו? לא! אני מוכרח לעבור מכאן? לאן!

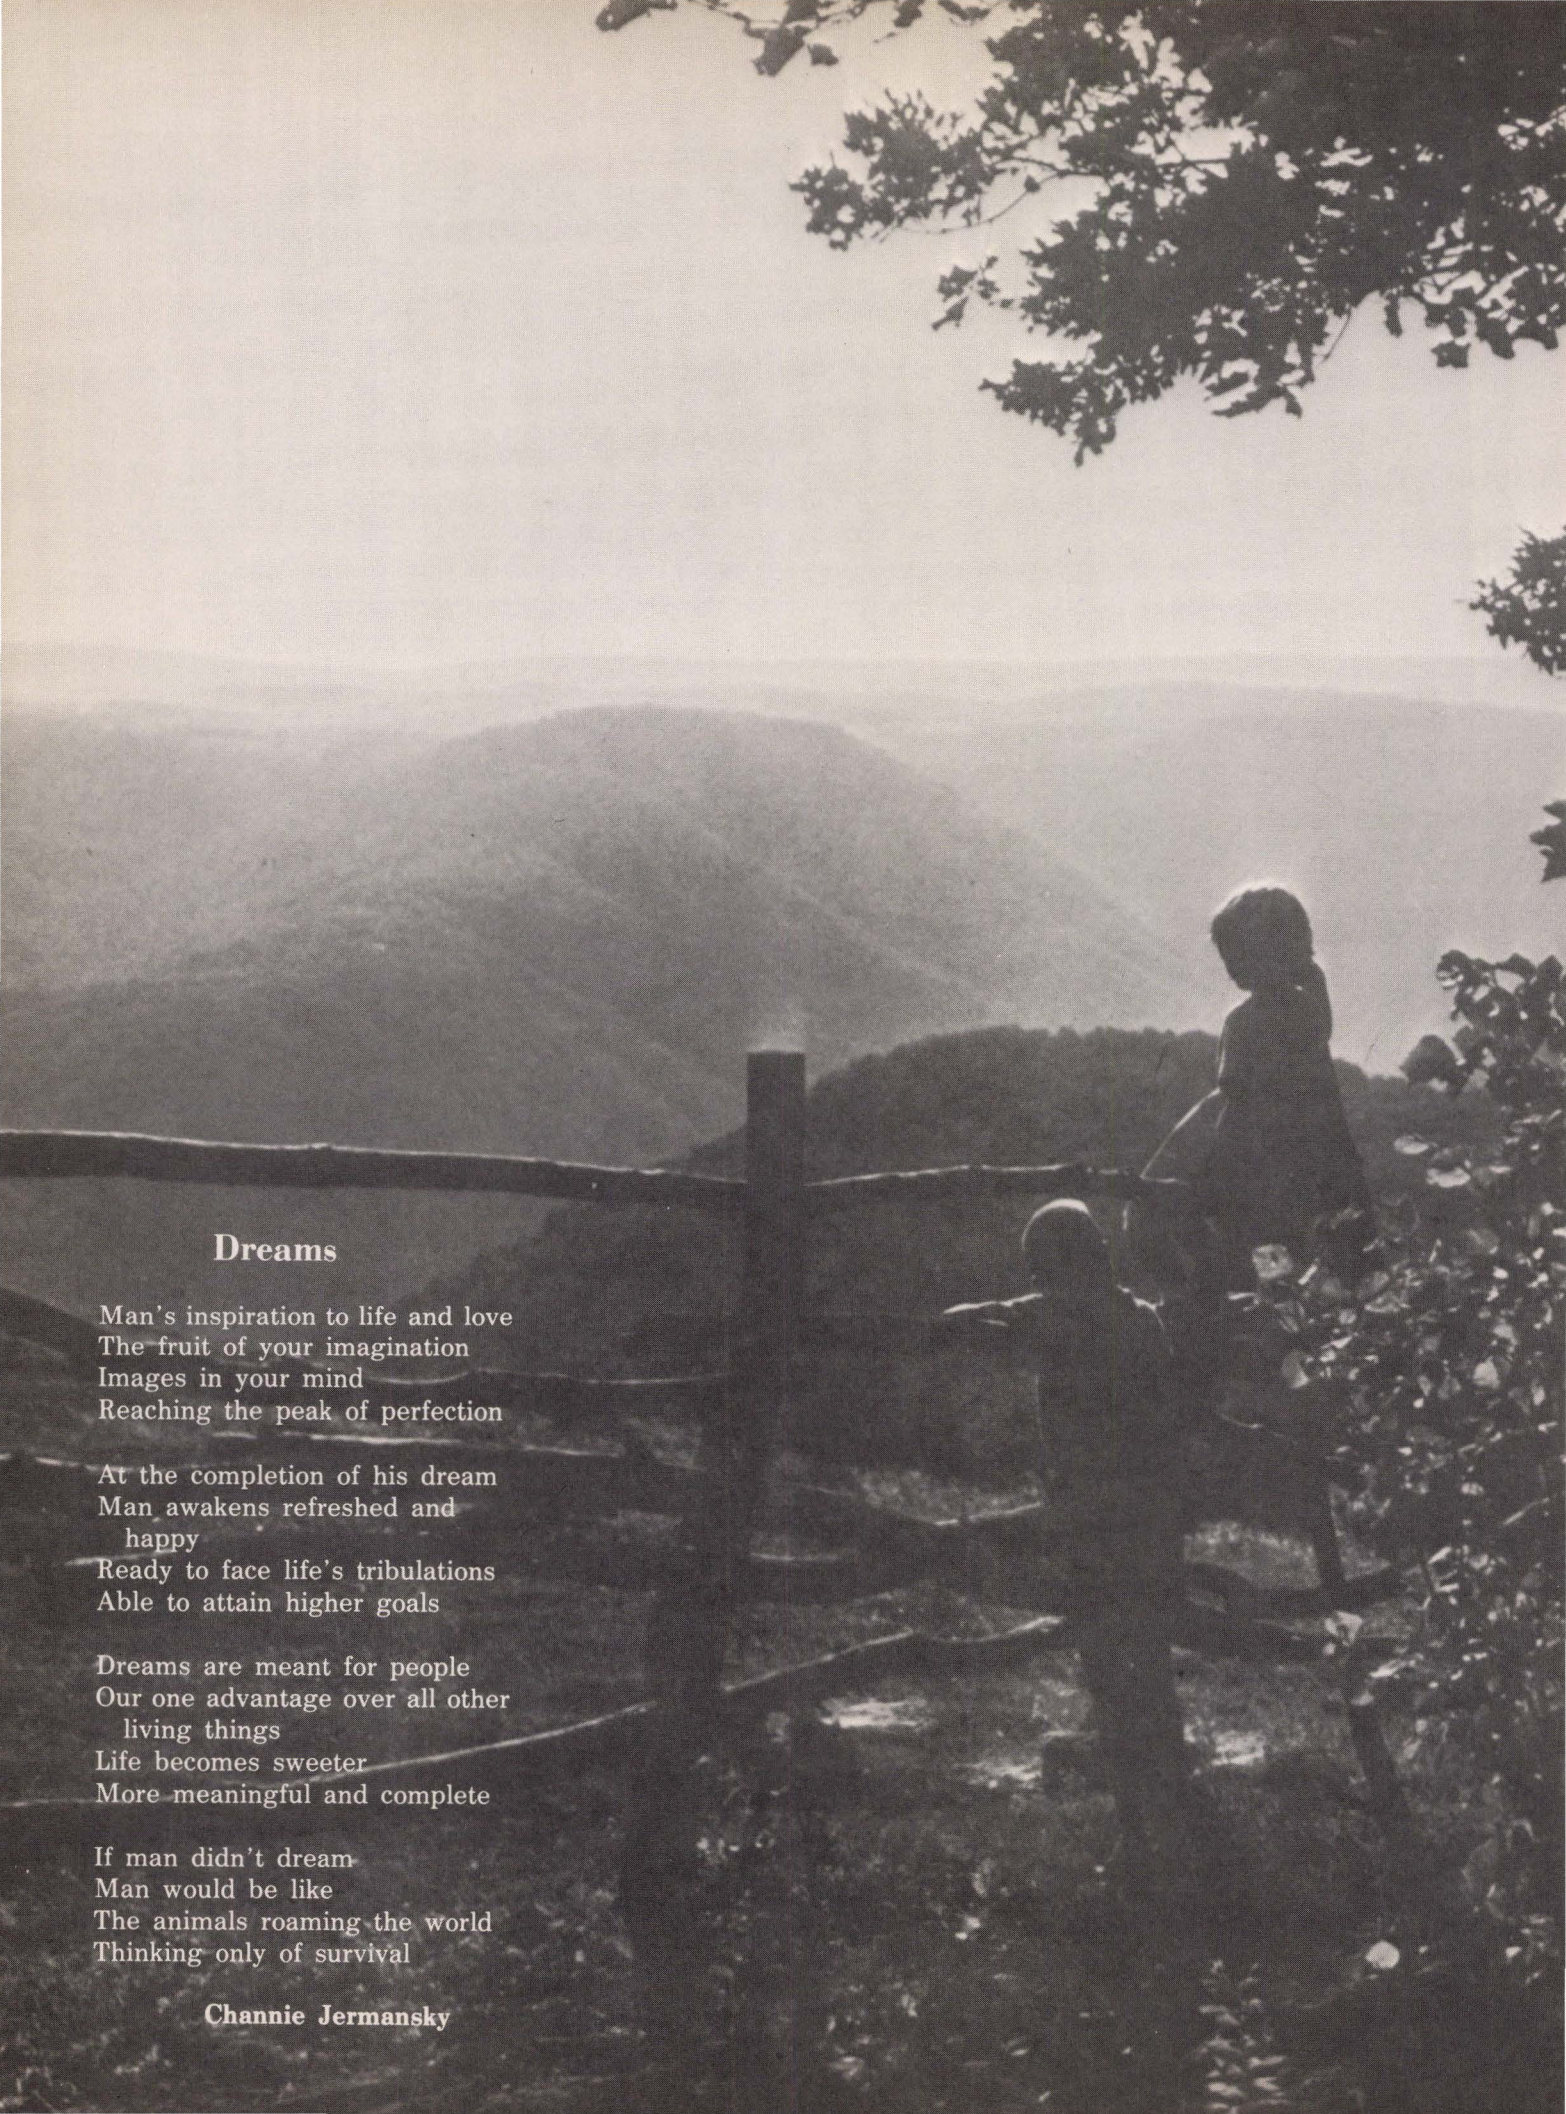

רק ה' יודע...

אז העני שלנו יוצא לדרך עם כל בני ביתו. ופרוטה אחת בידו. זה כל נכסיו חוץ מבגדיו הקרועים. לאן?

רק ה' יודע...

THE VIEW FROM HER WINDOW

She sits by the window, reading her book, but her concentration cannot be complete. The sounds of the world outside constantly interrupt her thoughts.

She hears the din of the morning traffic; the honking, beeping and the coughing of motors.

She hears the noise of her neighbor mowing the lawn and the sharp smell of the freshly cut grass invigorates her.

She listens to the baby in the playpen outside, gurgling as he plays with his bells and chime toys.

Down the block, the first chorus of little girls returning from school can be heard. Their gay laughter and chatter remind her of things that can never be.

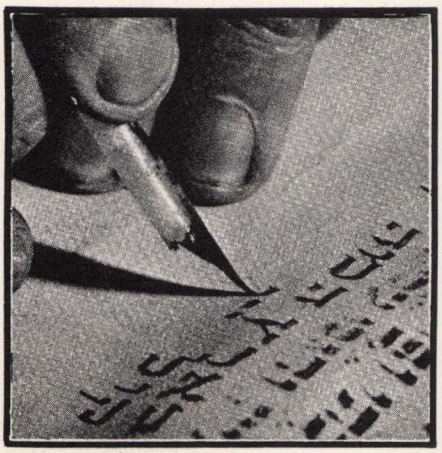

She will never see the changing colors of traffic lights. Nor will she ever see the bright green grass swaying in the breeze or the clouds skimming along the blue sky. The sight of a baby's smile will never bring joy to her heart.

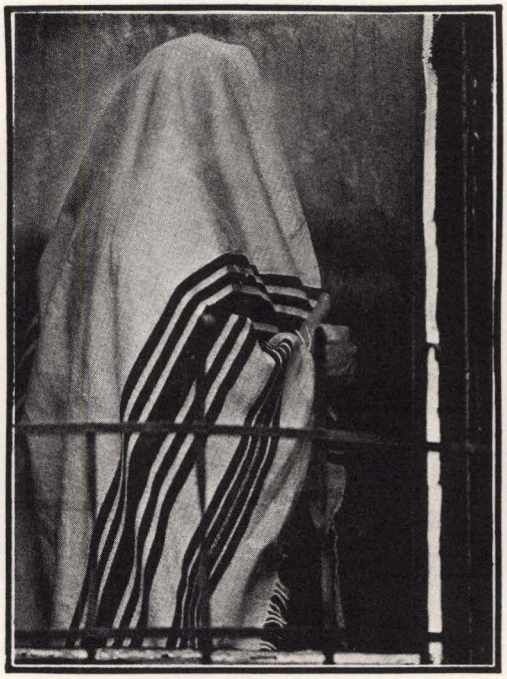

Is it any wonder that she finds ordinary sounds so engrossing? These sounds are her views from her window.

Tefillah

Sitting in his lonely barrack the young soldier thought of home. The joyful moments of life with his family and friends! The fun he had in school! How he missed those happy days. How depressed he was here! War was lonely. Thinking of being in this camp depressed him and made him even sadder. "There is no meaning to this," he thought. He longed to be home.

All around him there was shouting and tension. Officers were barking and giving orders. Soldiers were complaining. "War is horrible," the young soldier thought to himself. What could he do to lift himself from this depressing state?

Suddenly he heard a strange commotion. When he left the barracks he saw a surprising sight. A group of Chassidim were standing amongst the soldiers. They were smiling and happy. They shook hands and slapped the backs of the soldiers in a friendly sort of way. Hesitantly the soldier joined the merry group. Unexpectantly the Chassidim clasped hands and broke out into song and dance. The soldier found himself being pulled into the ring. It actually felt good being with them.

Within twenty minutes the forlorn soldier was transformed. When the dancing stopped the Chassidim took out small boxes with strings and started to put them on the soldiers. Oh yes! He remembered what they were-Tefillin! His grandfather wore them every morning. One of the boys helped him put on the Tefillin. He felt his spirits rise. He davened together with the Chassidim. Painfully he recalled the long forgotten Tefillos which now held so much meaning for him.

Laying that night on his straw cot, he kept thinking of the day's events. His depression had left and he was filled with a warm wonderful feeling. A feeling of hope; a feeling of truth. He was no longer alone! He was part of a wonderful nation blessed with the precious gift of Tefillah.

MY MOTHER'S SHABBOS CANDLES

It wasn't much fun
Sitting in the darkness
Brought about by a blackout;
Failure in our electric world.

Suddenly a memory came to light
My mother, standing so majestically;
Reciting the blessings over her Shabboss candles.

We hadn't used them for years.
Hidden, packed away from sight;
Searching for where we had placed them
But all to no avail.

A candle was the thing we needed!
Candles! Mother!
Return, with the peaceful feeling of Shabbos!
You've stayed away long enough!

Son: I envy you old and wise man
Your wisdom astounds me:
You have seen the world
It has shown to you
Its enigmatic way.
Why are there rich
And why are there poor?
Why are there healthy
And why are there sick?

Reveal to me wise man
The secret of a rewarding, blissful life.
I thirst to know;
I long to understand.
I envy you to no end.

Sage: Envy me not young one,
Envy not the life of an old man.
I have lived my years;
I have much knowledge and wisdom,
But you my son
Possess the gift
That I have lost.
Cherish your future years
And utilize them for
The benefit of all mankind.

THE SURVIVOR

Haunted by a ruthless nightmare, Miriam embarked upon a new life. She was alone, insecure, and frightened, but a dogged determination carried her on.

Months ago Miriam had joined a camp where there were armies of homeless, penniless drifters; inmates of concentration camps, those who fled and those who hid and were hidden; those who fought in the hills and forests and those who were once legions of forced labor. Each day was riddled with memories of stories filled with horror. Each day revived a succession of shocks. Twenty-five million people lay in the hands of death.

Genocide! A dance of six million dancers! Miriam rued the day she had opened the secret door marked Jew, for behind it lay death. One by one the death of an uncle, aunt or cousin was confirmed. Miriam wept and was haunted by menacing fears. Were her father, mother and brothers sent to concentration camps? Did they meet death through Hitler's web of horror? Her nights were sleepless and the names of concentration camps tore through her mind.

Today, in her new life, Miriam lays awake thinking of the reunion of her family. Maybe it will be in Eretz Yisroel where all Jews, young and old, rejoice at the benevolence of Hashem. Yerushalayim! A place where blood soaked immigrants find their long lost families—praising Hashem at the Wailing Wall.

התרגשות

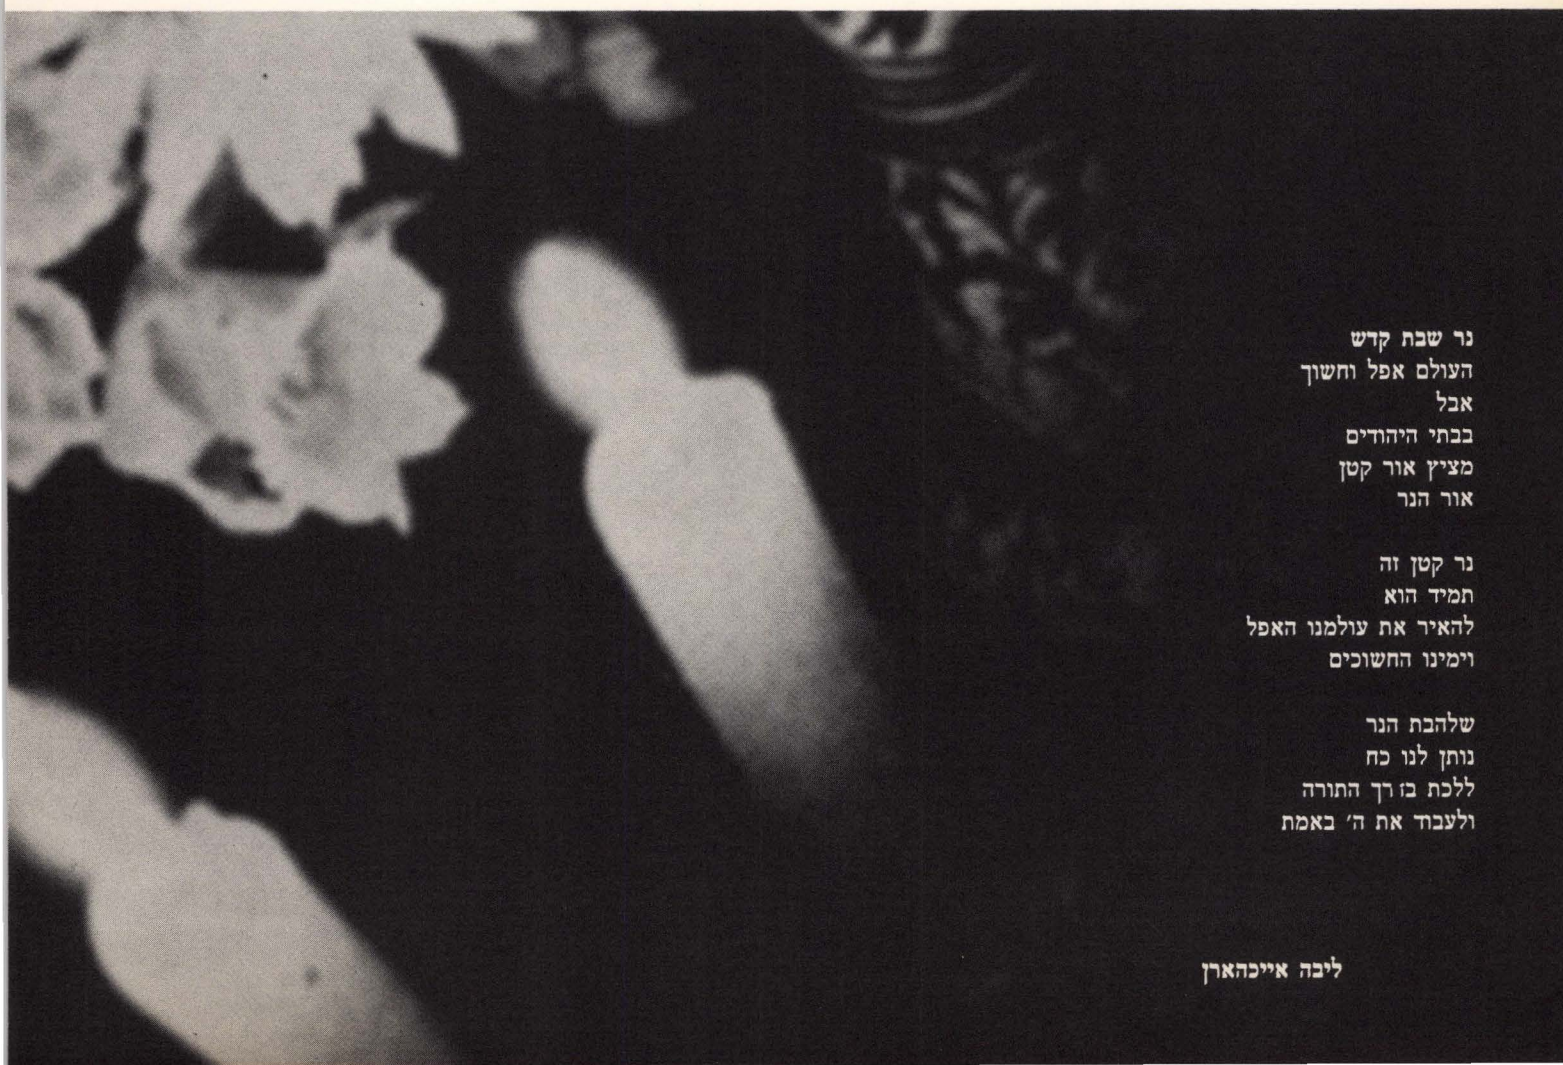

חשך! אור! אפלה! מה קרה? פתאום קול של ברק. פצצה התפוצץ בארץ ישראל! כל האנשים שבעיר בכו ולקחו את הנכסים שלהם ורצו להציל את חייהם וירדו למקלטים.

יש רק פרוסה קטנה מלחם לאכול, וסמרטוטים קרועים ללבש. ולמכסה אין כלום, רק חתיכת פשתן להתחמם בו – זה הכל.

כך הי' מצב של היהודים בזמן צרות. אין תקוה ואין הצלחה. כולם רועדים מרוב פחד. כך, היא התרגשות עם ישראל שבגולה בזמן אמיץ, בזמן שחיילי היהודים לחמו ונפלו.

„אל תירא מפחד פתאום ומשאת רשעים כי תבא, עצו עצה ותפר, דברו דבר ולא יקום כי עמנו קל."

בבתי היהודים
מציץ אור קטן
אור הנר

ליבה אייכהארן

A flower
Every moment of its existence
Brings life and contentment
Joy and rapture
To all those who look upon it!

The seed grows!
How mite and frail
How pure and delicate
Yet, it endures growing ...

The seed reveals
Its concealments
And eminates beauty
As it begins to sprout

Withstanding its enemies
The rain and wind
The flower blooms forth
Standing proud and firm

The majestic blossom
Bears its fruit
Precious seeds
To be blown by the wind

Now these seeds
Must withstand
The cycle of growth
And once more grow forth

This poor seed
Is the innocent child
Struggling in a new world
Searching for its path

The delicate child
Has finally grown
Having been humiliated and honored
Having brought shame and pride.

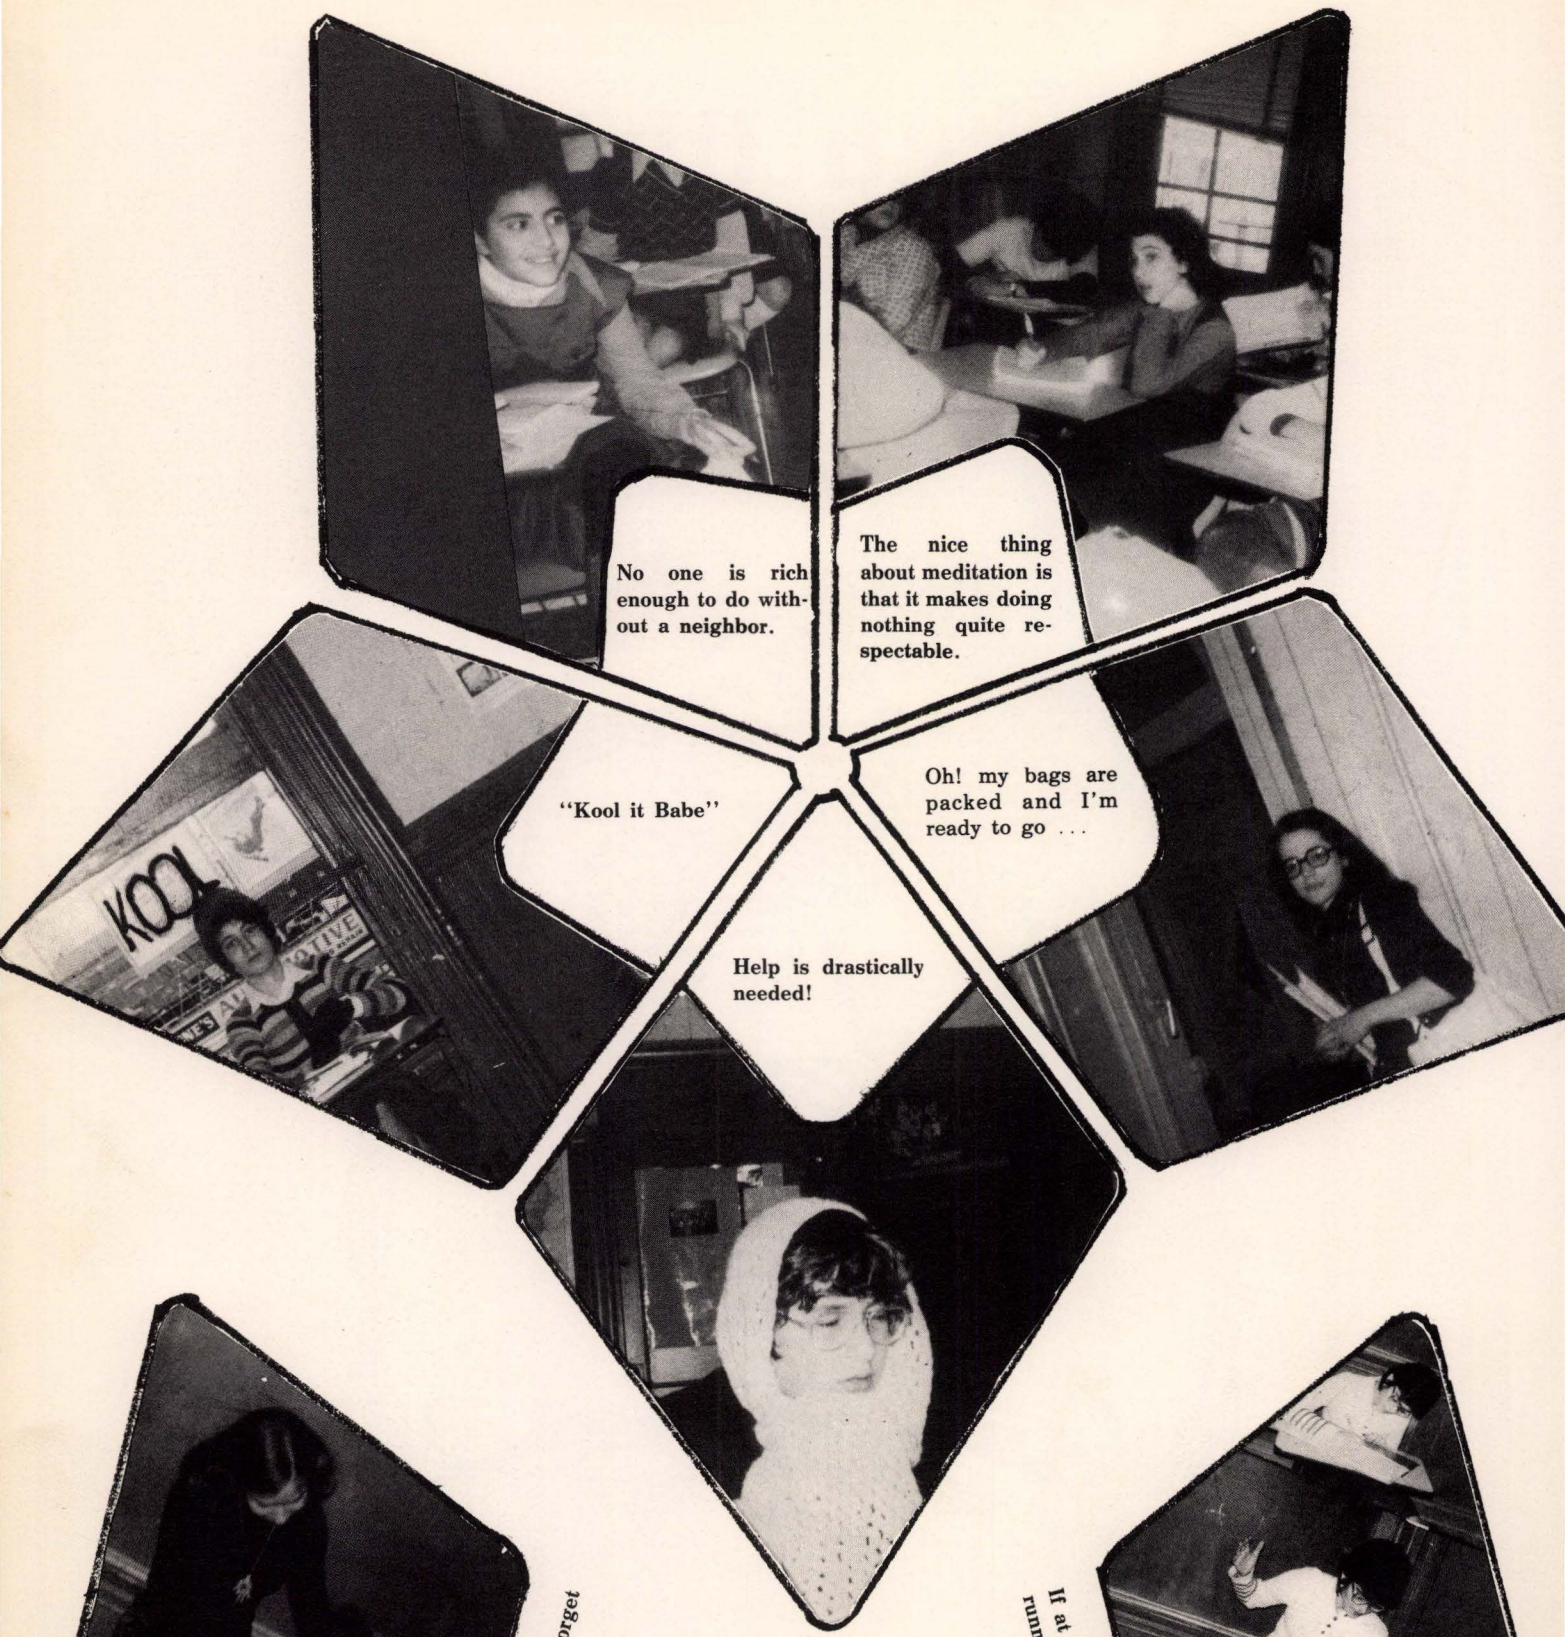

The child will bear fruit
To challenge the cycle of life
And once more
Suffer and bear pain —
yet, endure!

Mivtzah Neshek

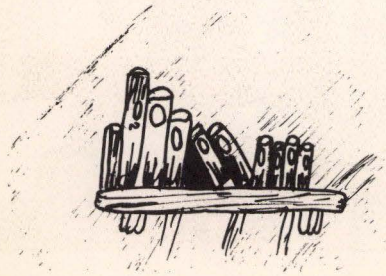

Affix a MEZUZAH on every right doorpost in every Jewish home.

OUR ENCOUNTER WITH NESHEK

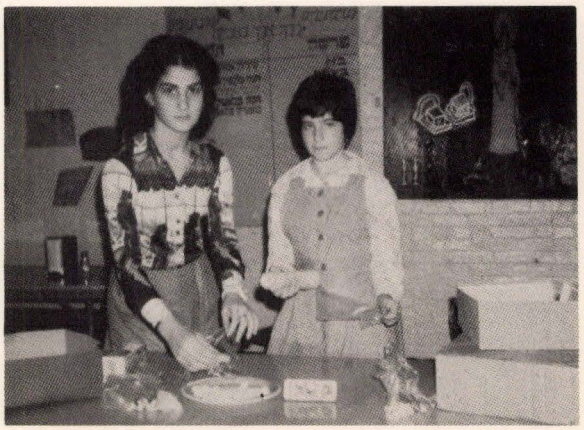

Mivtzaim is a word which has become a part of our daily vocabulary, especially since we ourselves participated in the Mivtzaim this year.

When we found out that we would be ''going out on Mivtzaim'' (specifically Mivtza Neshek); we felt a bit hesitant. It was an opportunity which we had asked for many times, yet when it came, we were not exactly sure of what it involved. We had already somewhat participated in the Mitzvah campaigns in other ways. Some of us had gotten together after school and became a part of the ''assembly line'' which ''packed'' the candles, menorahs, dried fruits, etc. (depending on the time of year). These kits were distributed by others. However, passing a bag with a candle in it to a friend did not seem to require the same effort as handing that same bag to someone whom we didn't know. Walking from house to house with Neshek seemed to require a little more than a friendly ''nudge''.

Suddenly, all kinds of questions started to come up. Questions like: ''How do I begin a conversation?'' ''What do I say next?'' ''What should I do if I don't know the answer to a question?'' We spent some time in class discussing the possible answers. Then we were off to some apartment houses on Ocean P'kwy aboard a chartered bus. On the bus, we got into a lively spirit by singing, while our teachers divided us into groups of five. When we got to the apartment houses we discovered that it would not be easy after all, for not all possible situations had been covered in our class discussion. We soon came up with another series of questions. These questions did not relate directly to Neshek, but they had to be answered before we could proceed. For example: Q) What do you do if the main entrance is locked and you can't get in? A) Scan the names listed next to the bells. When you find a Jewish name, ring the bell and explain the situation over the intercom.

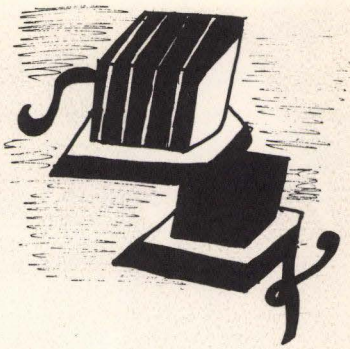

Every home should have JEWISH HOLY BOOKS.

Mivtzah Purim

Tu B'shvat

Men and boys, 13 years and over, put on TEFILLIN every weekday.

Q) What do you do if you're already in the building with loaded shopping bags and you run into the superintendent? A) We couldn't convince the superintendent that we were there to give, rather than to "take" and we were forced to leave. The best thing is to avoid superintendents by listening for their footsteps.

Once we had these problems solved and were safe inside a building, free to ring doorbells, we were in for another surprise! It usually came after we spent about five minutes explaining to someone, through a peek-hole, about the state of the world and the role of the Jewish woman in these dark times. We would be ready to hand some nice Jewish woman a Neshek kit, when the door would open and we would be greeted by a yelping dog.

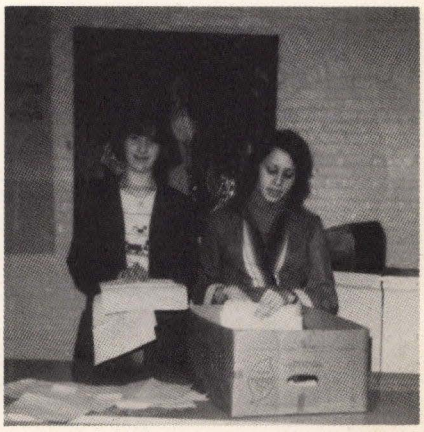

Even in those apartment houses where things started out according to plan and people listened to what we had to say, the reactions were not always exactly what we had expected. Of course we wanted and hoped for a warm reception but what we got from most people was much more than that.

Everyone we met had a different way of expressing their feelings. Some people surprised us by asking for an extra pamphlet or candlestick to give to their friend. Others sat us down in their kitchens and told us all about themselves. There were elderly people who patted us on our heads and blessed us. A few reached for their wallets and couldn't believe it when we explained that we were not accepting any money. Then there were those who left an impression on us, not because of what they said, but just because of the touching smile on their lips and the tears in their eyes when they agreed to "bentch licht".

Throughout the year we did not get many opportunities to go out on Mivtzayim, but when we did, we found that the experience was mutually rewarding!

Give TZEDOKOH every weekday.

Dear Faigy

Hi!

My heart is thumping (beating) at least 73 times per minute in Miss Schwartz's class & I'm trying to make ends meet with my right & left joints. My muscles are aching so, that I can't even list the model of my nutrition project.

Oh! I almost forgot to tell you!
I went to the store last night, where they had a 45% discount on all polysaturated foods. All I did was apply the rule of P. to D. & I figured out the prices of all the items.

By the way, I tried copying your Science notes & "you got the auricles & ventricles all mixed up". By the time I did finish writing the notes over, the circulation of blood in my hand had slowed down a bit so I remembered "Cracking up again.

Teachers

This one's too strict;
That one's unfair.
We're burdened with homework
They don't even care.

Day after day,
Test after test;
What we're greatly in need of
Is a day of good rest.

A math test today
History is next;
Reports, compositions, homework
We're so perplexed.

But when we have problems
And we're in doubt
Who straightens them for us
And helps us out?

Who teaches us to think in every thing we do?
Who is always ready with prompt advice?
Oh! those teachers
Who are so extremely nice!

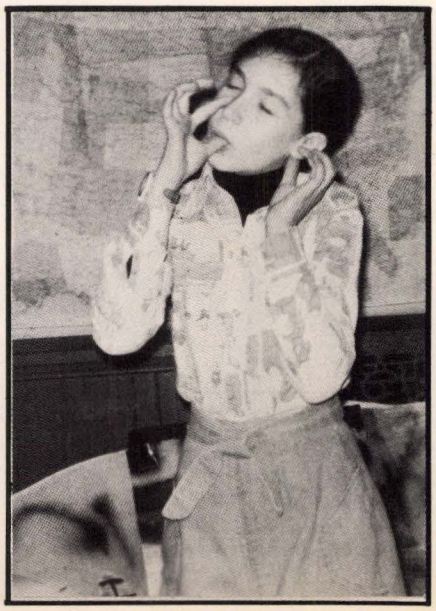

So though we grumble
And though we fuss . . .
Our teachers have been great
To keep up with us!

Tears well in our eyes
As we remember our past
As we view our present days.

Confused and insecure
Child and sage together
Struggle against insurmountable enemies.

But the tears are dried
And our faces rejoice
When our hopes are rekindled
As we remember the promise of
A joyous everlasting future
We can and will achieve
Through the merit of our actions.

"The moment we cease to hold each other
The moment we break faith with one another
The sea engulfs us and the light goes out."
