אל תלמידות חמסיימות
בית רבקה — ברוקלין

חי עליהן תחיינה

ברכה ושלום!

בנועם קבלתי הידיעה על דבר חג הסיום שלהן. ויהי רצון שיהא בשעה טובה ומוצלחת.

וכבר הודגש כמה פעמים, שבעניני תורה ומצוות לא שייך "סיום", ואפילו הפסק חי', וענין ה"סיום" הוא התחלה ועלי' לשלב נעלה יותר בכל עניני תורה ומצוות, וכהציווי, שהוא גם נתינת כח, מעלין בקודש.

ובפרט שהמדובר הוא במוסד חינוך שמטרתו תוא לחנך בנות ישראל על טהרת הקודש, שתתלמידות תוחדרנה באור התורה והמצוות כפי שהם מוארים ע"י תורת החסידות, ולימוד מביא לידי מעשה — קיום המצוות בחידור.

אשר חינוך כזה הוא הכנה מתאימה לבנות ישראל, העתידות לחיות כאו"א מהן "עקרת הבית", ה"עיקר" והיסוד של בית ישראל, כיאות לבנות אמותינו שרת רבקה רחל ולאה אשר בנו את בית ישראל.

ובפרט בעמדנו בעש"ק מבה"ח תמוז, אשר בי"ב-י"ג בו הוא חג הגאולה של כ"ק מו"ח אדמו"ר, אשר בודאי ידועה להן פרשת המאסר והגאולה, וחוראתה ונקודתה הפנימית — התעוררות אמיתית להוספה בכל עניני יהדות, בעוז ובמרץ ובחיות, הן בנוגע לעצמה והן בנוגע להפצת התורה ומצוותי', במעשה בפועל ובדברים חיוצאים מן חלב אשר פועלים פעולתם, ובפרט כשמלווים דוגמא חי' ומזחירת.

וכההוראה מפי בהעלותך את הנרות (דמינח אזלינן) לכל אחת מהתלמידות המסיימות תחיינה, שנוסף על זה שהן בעצמן תוחדרנה באור התורה והמצוות — תהיינה גם נרות להאיר — להשפיע על כל אלה שידה מגעת בעניני תורה ומצוות.

והשם יתברך יצליח כל אחת ואחת מהן וכולן יחד, ללכת מחיל אל חיל בכל האמור, ויברכן הי' במילוי משאלות לבבן לטובה בכל המצטרך להן, בנשמיות וברוחניות גם יחד.

בברכה להצלחה
ולבשורות טובות בכל האמור

Dedication

The Rebbe said many times that fifty years is an עולם, a lifetime, and a תקופה גדולה ומיוחדת, a significant and unique time period. In תש״י when the Rebbe accepted the Nesius, America and World Jewry were lacking in Yiddishkeit. In fifty years, the Rebbe transformed the world, through sending Shluchim and Shluchos all over to prepare for the coming of Moshiach.

Beis Rivkah under the leadership of our Rebbe has grown from a small school to a school with thousands of students who will one day become Shluchos. The world has changed through the vision of our Nassi, from a spiritual wilderness to a connected network of Chabad Houses and Lubavitcher institutions. So much has been accomplished until now. Yet there is still a lot more left to be done. We must ask ourselves, are we doing everything we can to fulfill the Rebbe's wishes.

"What do you remember?" the Rebbe Rashab asked his six year old son Reb Yosef Yitzchok. Although the Rebbe Maharash passed away when the Frierdiker Rebbe was only two years old. Amazingly, the Rebbe Rashab's question awakened vivid memories of his grandfather and the Frierdiker Rebbe was able to describe the Rebbe Maharash very distinctly.

The Rebbe certainly gave us a Brocha at every opportunity possible. Everyone had special encounters with the Rebbe, and each one of us had our own precious moments. I too was privileged to see the Rebbe and receive a dollar and a Brocha from the Rebbe. On the day before my fourth birthday, the Rebbe with a beautiful smile, bentched me saying "דו זאלסט האבן א העפי בורף דעי"

We, the graduating class of תש״ס, which coincides with the fifty years of the Rebbe's Nesius dedicate our yearbook to our נשיא הדור. The Rebbe did everything in his power for us, we must now do everything in our power to bring Moshiach now!

ונזכה זעהן זיך מיטן רביין ... והוא יגאלנו!

A Dedication To The Rebbe

The world is now celebrating fifty years of the Rebbe's leadership. This year, on Yud Shevat 5760, became fifty years since the Rebbe accepted the nesius. The Rebbe's leadership began at a time that Klal Yisroel went through the worst devastation of history, the holocaust. Six million perished in a most brutal sadistic way. The many millions that survived the Holocaust were totally broken from the loss of their loved ones and the memories of horror that haunted them constantly.

At this time the Rebbe did not allow anyone to be taken over by depression and despair, but gave new life and hope to Yidden from one end of the world to the other. "If all the trees would be quills, and all the oceans would be ink, and the heaven would be parchment, and all the people would be scribes," this would not be enough to express what the Rebbe did and continues to do for Klal Yisroel and for the entire world.

The Rebbe explained that all the work of spreading Yiddishkeit and Chassidus and teaching the Sheva Mitzvahs B'nei Noach amongst the gentiles is a means to an end. The ultimate goal is that this should prepare the world for the Hisgalus of the Melech Hamoshiach when we will all enjoy eternal happiness and bliss in every area of life, in Gashmius and in Ruchnius.

We, the Talmidus of Beis Rivkah, have the Zechus to be the Neros Lehoir; to bring the Rebbe and the Rebbe's teachings to the world. We have to be the Shluchos of the Rebbe to help bring Moshiach. Eight long years of learning in the Rebbe's Mosod is eight years of absorbing the Rebbe's kochos, which provides us with all the spiritual tools we need to accomplish our mission.

"ויאמינו בה' ובמשה עבדו" — we raise our banner of simple Emunah very high, simple Emunah in the words of the Rebbe "הנה זה בא" and "לאלתר לגאולה". With this Emunah, all the forces of the world cannot move us from carrying out our Shlichus which will bring the Hisgalus of the Rebbe. Then we will proudly march behind the Rebbe to the Geulah Shleima. May it be NOW!

צניעות חנה

רבות נכתב ונאמר כבר בקשר לרבצין חנה ע"ה על צניעותה וטוב ליבה על צדקתה ומסירת נפשה למען בעלה הרה"ג הרה"ח המקובל ר' לוי יצחק זצ"ל וכו' וכו'. אך הפעם היתי רוצה לכתוב כמה מילים על מערכת היחסים בין הרבצין חנה לבנה הדגול הרבי. הדרך ארץ והאהבה שהיתה ביניהם אין לשער.

הדוגמה המבריקה לאהבה זו הם הצעדים העל אנושיים שנקטו שניהם כדי לא לגרום ח"ו צער ועגמת נפש אחד לשני. כמו בזמן שאחרי הפטירה של בנה ר' ישראל ארי' לייב ע"ה היה הרבי הולך לבקר את אימו בזמן השבעה והיה מחליף את נעליו כדי שהיא לא תדע מהפטירה. או כשהרבי סבל את התקפת הלב הראשונה שלו בשנות השישים הרבי עשה מאמץ שלא תראה הראבים והסבל על פניו בבקרו אותה.

כמו כן הרבצין חנה כשיצא מרוסי' היו אצלה יומנים שבהם היא כתבה כל מה שעבר עליה ועל בעלה הקדוש היסורים והצרות האיומות שעברו עליהם כואב הרבצין. הרבצין ידעה שאם הרבי יקרא את היומנים הרי זה יגרום לו צערביותר ויפריע בעבודתו הקדושה. ולכן למרות שהיומנים היו חשובים לה ביותר היא מסרה אותם לאיש אומנים והשביעה אותו שלא יראה אותם אף פעם לאף אחד.

בו' תשרי תשכ"ה החזירה הרבצין את נשמתה הק' לבוראה ולזכותה ולעילוי נשמתה הרבי התוועד באותה שנה כל שבת והתחיל להגיד את השיחות הידועות על פירוש רש"י על התורה שמאז התפרסמו בכל רחבי תבל ולימדו את כולם את הדרך האמיתית ללימוד והבנת רש"י על התורה. יה"ר שנזכה במהרה לראות אותה ואת הרבי פה למטה בגוף גשמי בהתגלות משיח צדקינו במהרה בימינו.

Rebbetzin Chana

Throughout our Jewish history the name Chana has always been connected to women with tremendous strength and mesirus nefesh. During Chanukah we all remember the heartrending story of Chana who went against the Greeks and lit Shabbos candles therefore causing the death of her seven sons. Chana HaNeviah had true mesirus nefesh and gave up her long awaited son to be raised in the Beis Hamikdosh. He later became one of our greatest prophets. Our Rebbe's mother, Rebbetzin Chana showed a lot of mesirus nefesh throughout her lifetime. One of the times she shows her mesirus nefesh is when her husband, Reb Levi Yitzchak was arrested for spreading Yiddishkeit. Although Rebbetzin Chana was allowed to remain at home she insisted on accompanying him to exile, and endure all hardships with him. She also showed mesirus nefesh for Chassidus when she risked being caught by the K.G.B. and picked berries so Reb Levi Yitzchak could write Chassidus. She had a tremendous amount of mesirus nefesh to give up the joys of leading her son, our Rebbe to the chuppah so that he could join the Frierdiker Rebbe's family in Poland and marry Rebbetzin Chaya Mushka.

We can surely see that Rebbetzin Chana's great mesirus nefesh for Chassidus brought her to deserve to have a son who spread Chassidus to all four corners of the world.

כאשר הרבי מלך המשיח דיבר אודות הרבנית נ"ע הוא ציין שע"ז שבנות ישראל מתנהגים ברוחה ובדרכיה הרי "מה זרעה בחיים אף היא בחיים".

הוראה זאת שייכת - כדברי הרבי - לבנות ישראל בכללן אולם כאשר מדובר בבנות חב"ד המתחנכות במוסדות חב"ד, ובפרט בשכונה בה ערה הרבנית ובמסד ע"ש הרבנית "קמפוס חמ"ש" הדבר מקבל משכר תוקף ביותר.

* * *

אם איישותה של הרבנית הנעלית מאותנו באין ערוך, אי אפשר לתאר. וכדברי הרבי "רק הקב"ה מכיר את מעלותיה". אמנם, ההוראות שאפשר ללמוד מאופיה והנהגתה רבות מאוד. ננסה להתמקד אופוא, בכמה הוראות חשובות שיש לנו ללמוד מהנהגתה.

"כל כבודה בת מלך פנימה"

הרבי נשיא הדור הוא כללי ביותר וכל עם ישראל הגע אליו. בוא הקים את מוסד השליחות והמבצעים שהפך את כל העולם וגרם שכמעט ואין יהודי שלא מכיר את הרבי מלך המשיח.

אולם, אם הרבנית, אשתו של הרבי כמעט ואך אחד לא הכיר. ברוב חכמתה היא השכילה להתחבא מעין כל רועי"ה. בפשטות ובצניעות היא דתתה כל כבוד שניתן לה עד שהיו כאלו ששהו ב"ד אמותיו של הרבי שנים רבות ואת הרבנית לא ראו ולו פעם אחת.

יתירה מזו, הרבנית ברחה מפני הכבוד ומעולם לא השתמשה במעמדה האם לנצל או להטריח אי מי לטובת עצמה.

הנהגתה הצניעה של הרבנית ממחישה לנו הייטב את מאמר חז"ל כל כבודה בת מלך פנימה.

"אם למשפחת החסידים"

אדמו"ר הזקן רצה לפעול שכל החסידים יהיו כמשפחה אחת. ואצל הרבנית ראינו זאת במוחש. כל משפחת החסידים היו כמשפחתה ממש.

היא דאגה את דעגת הפרט כדעגת אם לבניה ויותר מזה. ראו עליה בבירור כצד היא שמחה בשמחת כ"א מהחסידים ולאידך כועבת את כאבה של כל משפחה.

במיוחד התבטא הדבר ביחד המיוחד לילדים וילדות. מנהגה של הרבנית היא פעמים רבות לשבת מול החלון הפונה החוצה על הרחוב ומביטה בעין בימנת ומשגיחה בילדים המשחקים בחוץ. וכאשר שיתקו בזהירות ובאחווה היה לה מזה עונג ממש.

"עין יפה"

כאשר נתבונן בהנהגתה של הרבנית נוכל להבין "עין טובה" מה היא. בכל מאורע ומצב היא ראתה רק את הטוב. בכל אדם ראתה את מעלותו ובכל מקרה הבחינה בטוב שבו. כך היא הפכה מצבים רבים שהיו נראים בתחילתם היפך הטוב לטובים.

"והוי מקבל כל אדם בסבר פנים יפות"

מעלה נוספת שבלטה אצל הרבנית נ"ע היא סבר הפנים היפות שהיא נתנה לכל אדם קטן כגדול.

אצל הרבנית לא היה חילוק מיהו הנכנס לביקור הביתה. כל אחד היה זוכה ליחס מיוחד כאשר היו עורכים לכבודו את השולחן הגדול בסלון הבית כלים נאים ומכובדים. בין אם היה מדובר באורחים חשובים כמי מעלה או גם בכל יהודי פשוט אחר שבא לבקרה בביתה.

Rebbetzin Chaya Mushka

A rose among thorns, a moon in a starless night,
A beautiful example, a shining, glowing light.
A woman of such greatness yet kept it all concealed,
And although she kept it hidden, many lessons were revealed.
Someone so modest, a diamond so very rare,
And although so full of splendor for every Jew she did care.
A woman very tzinius, a woman very smart,
A woman very kind, our Rebbetzin had a golden heart.
Though she was so righteous, herself she did hide,
The Frierdiker Rebbe loved her and in her he did confide.
When the Frierdiker Rebbe passed away, the Rebbe didn't want to accept the crown,
And although she may be alone, she didn't let the chassidim down.
She convinced her husband, told him to Rebbe be,
Even though she'd have to give him up, the truth she did see.
The Rebbe belongs to the Chassidim, Rebbetzin Chaya Mushka told,
She followed the Rebbe's every word, she was so strong and bold.
Like a princess in her palace, put away with many locks,
Like a diamond so very precious, kept hidden in a jewelry box.
Like just one candle in a dark Golus night,
It shines out through the darkness and helps make it bright.
From Rebbetzin Chaya Mushka many lessons we can take,
Because she did whatever she could, for someone else's sake.
May we follow in her footsteps, like her we should be,
And in the merit of Rebbetzin Chaya Mushka soon Moshiach we will see.

Thank You Parents

We are told that there are three partners in a person's creation: Hashem, a mother, and a father.
Three partners in creation
Hashem, father, mother
This is a special partnership
It's not like any other Because these partners don't just say
"OK the product is done"
They oversee its actions
Every single one
Each day they work to make it better
Teaching us by showing
They put a lot of effort in
To help us as we're growing They're happy when we do our best
Our work is their work too
When we succeed they feel our pride
They share in all we do
So to these partners we must say
A special thanks to you
We thank Hashem for life itself
And all that we can do
And thank you to our parents
For taking time each day
To guide and teach and raise us
In a true Chassidishe way.

Chaya Tzivia Gorkin

Dear Parents,

I'm sure I speak for every graduate, when I say "thank you."

Thank you for being there every day throughout our elementary school years. You soothed us when we cried over disappointments, you rejoiced in our excitement, when we triumphed.

Thank you for hectic mornings you made calm, your parting words wishing us a good day and good luck in school, encouraged us to do our best.

Thank you for sending us off with nourishing breakfasts, warm gloves, and scarves, that kept us warm, and made us feel loved.

Thank you for being there to welcome us home. We basked in the circle of your love, as you listened with interest to all of the details of our day.

Thank you for your compassion when we moped because of production try-outs. You wiped our tears when our plans did not materialize. You taught us how to deal with disappointment and showed great pride in our performances.

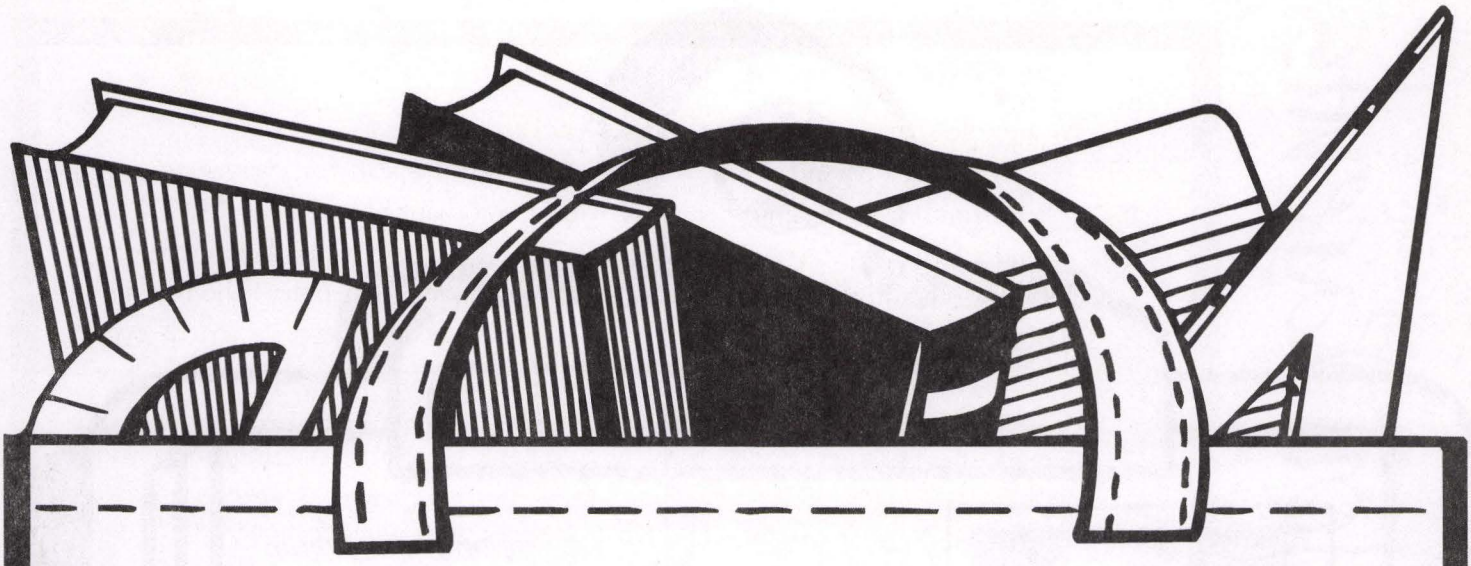

Thank you for your creative ideas and help with our scrapbooks and projects. You kept patient, even when they were remembered at the last minute.

Thank you for keeping supper warm when we came home at all hours, after working on production, special projects, and yearbook.

Thank you for providing a chassidishe environment for us to grow up in. You nurtured and encouraged us to be the best we can be.

More than anything, thank you for believing in us!

Thank You Teachers

'Twas the gem dealer who took a rock
(Oh, how many people did mock.)
He polished that rock, until it did glow,
And cut it in angles, so that it shone

A teacher takes a stone, and wipes off all the grime
A teacher nurtures a student, and makes her beauty shine.
It's the teacher who determines what kind of gem you'll be.
My teacher took a stone, and molded it into me.

Dear Girls,

Graduation has finally arrived! You are about to embark on a new journey, a new phase in your life, high school. In the rush to pack your suitcase in preparation for your journey, there is always something that is left behind. Therefore, I wanted to make sure you've packed the precious "rope" you have been working on since you first entered Bais Rivkah.

אַל מען איז כאַרשוועסען אויבעסען כאָטש מען ליגט אונטן, said Reb Meir from Premishlan. "When one is connected above he cannot fall down." Your hiskashrus to the Rebbe, your avodah in so many different areas of Ahavas Yisroel, Yiras Shomayim, Tznius, etc., has made your "rope" that connects your אויבן — above, thick, strong and prepared to carry you as you venture forth.

Bored and lonely, a young boy was consistently bothering his father who was trying desperately to finish some very important work. After trying many different gimmicks to keep his son busy, the father came upon a plan.

Pulling down an atlas from his bookshelf, the father ripped out a page with a very intricate and detailed picture of the world. Tearing it up into many pieces, he handed it to his son and said, "Dear, piece the world back together again." Quite sure that he now had a good two hours to finish his work, he was shocked five minutes later to see his son proudly hand him the world.

"How did you do it?" he asked in amazement.

Turning the paper over, the other side revealed a simple yet beautiful picture of a person.

"Dad, all I had to do was put the man back together and the world simply fell into place."

Use the talents each of you have and the knowledge you have acquired these years in elementary school to be the best you can be and automatically the rest of the world will fall into place — a world the Rebbe envisioned for all of us, a time when וּמָלְאָה הָאָרֶץ דֵּעָה אֶת ה' כַּמַּיִם לַיָּם מְכַסִּים.

Hold on tight and much luck in high school.

Fondly,
Leah Jacobson

Dear Graduates,

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate you and your families upon your graduation and to wish you hatzlocha and happiness in the years ahead.

Throughout life you will be faced with many challenges. To successfully respond to them, Chazal tell us to follow the Mitzvah of והלכת בדרכיו, "You should walk in His ways," as our guide in life. We should constantly ask ourselves, "What would Hashem expect of me in this situation? What is the Torah's way of approaching this conflict?" By choosing to walk in Hashem's ways, it is inevitable that you will have a more conscious perception of Hashem's presence in your lives. Furthermore, since Hashem is כולו חסד, we walk in His ways when the theme that underlines our entire existence is Gemilus Chassadim to all we come into contact with.

Mazel Tov!! May you continue to grow in Torah V'Yirah and in the performance of Chessed and Maasim Tovim.

בי"ד,

My dear students שתחיו,

You are shining examples of how individuals can shape history, mold destiny and forge the future. The force of the Rebbe's will and his words give us courage and help us recognize and repel foreign dangers that venture to penetrate and contaminate. Sometimes, problems and issues that surround us seem overwhelming and we fear we can never solve them. It is tempting to just give up and give in.

Never!

This is the message I wanted to impress upon you. It was my aspiration to teach your minds and touch your hearts. I tried to motivate you to look for the answers and to find viable resolutions. I strived to encourage you to make a difference. I attempted to inspire you to search for the keys that will open locked doors. Then, I urged you to step forward and take your places — bravely and boldly. Don't just arrive ... make an entrance.

The pivotal focus of the Rebbe's Sichos and teachings embraces the complete spectrum of our lives: spiritual and physical, intellectual and emotional, individual and communal. In this, the 50th year of his leadership, it is vital that we thoroughly absorb and understand his precepts. It is interesting to note that the number "50" has a distinct property that is most relevant in the lives of women. It is written that to attain knowledge, we must traverse 50 distinct gradations, שערי בינה. It is written that Bnos Yisroel are blessed with an additional measure of wisdom בינה יתרה ניתנה לאישה. Use this divine sanction judiciously and prudently.

Remember the ways of our Rebbe. Remember his words. Learn them and live by them. Look deep within yourselves and know that it is up to you to carry on the torch of his legacy, the legacy of Chassidus. It is your challenge to clearly define your role in the future of our people.

Mazel Tov to you, dear graduates upon reaching this great moment in your life. Before you take leave of Beth Rivkah I would like you to accept a few words from the depths of my heart.

As you approach High school, make sure that the derech in which you will go will be one that you know well from your past studies here.

Your M'chanchim have carefully nurtured you and instilled within you Midos Tovos, Yiras Shomayim, Derech Eretz, and taught you to pursue Maasim Tovim!

You, dear graduates are our treasured hope for raising future generations who will be true to Torah. Whatever you do and wherever you go, your actions will let everyone know that you are a graduate of Beth Rivkah and committed to values that were transmitted to you.

May your dear families take pride in your emergence as a fine Bas Yisroel, and may you bring them Nachas in all that you do.

Affectionately,
Mrs. S.G. Strauss

Mrs. Mayzlesh

B"H, Yud Shvat, 5760

Dearest Talmidos,

It is with the contrasting emotions of profound sadness and prideful joy that I salute you upon your entering a new significant stage of your lives.

Profound sadness, because you do not have the fortune to experience the inspiration of a traditional Bais Rivkah graduation of past years. Confetti, a diploma, and even a "masterpiece" yearbook are merely secondary aspects of your graduation.

A Sicha geared for graduates, with you eighth graders sitting in the front row of 770, a letter in which the Rebbe proudly writes to you, his "Neiros L'Hair"—greeting you on this momentous occasion—all lead to the highlight of the school year—receiving a dollar "miyodo hakedosha" of the Rebbe, accompanied by a dazzling smile and a wish for "Brocha V'Hatzlacha."

Prideful joy, because the very fact that you stand here at all — "Atem nitzavim hayom kulchem" — is the greatest testimony to the fact that the Rebbe lives on.

Then anguish returns. If I can't see the king, or hear his kingly voice, how should I know the command of the hour? We are physical people with physical needs. We see with our eyes, and hear with our ears.

Well, dear girls, it is then with astonishment that I am jolted back to the reality of the year in which you were born. You were brought into the world to the beat of "Didan Netzach," and shortly afterwards came the directive of — "Asei Lechah Rav" — choose for yourself a spiritual teacher and guide.

The Rebbe, in his broad vision was fully conscious of what was to come. He knew that in 5760, there would be a graduating class with decisions to make, friendships to mend, and crises to overcome — and he said, "Asei Lechah Rav" — my guidance to you will be channeled through a Mashpiah.

As a teacher who still has very strong emotional ties to all of you, I feel impelled to stress the importance of this primary principle emphasized by the Rebbe. In designating for ourselves spiritual mentors to provide for us guidance and encouragement, we are complying with the Rebbe's blueprint for the highway to Moshiach.

As we say in Mexico City, "Felicidades" and "Hasta Luego."

Fondly, Morah Mayzlesh

Please keep in touch. Our phone number is 011-525-280-3250.

Miss Backman

Dear Girls,

The flame flickers as match touches wick. The tiny, little flame flutters between the two worlds of light and dark, not quite sure which one to accept.

A young child is born.

The flickering flame struggles to remain a light. A dark world awaits it. Its every effort is met with a fight, yet the flame has a purpose. It can not be vanquished, for it is invincible. The light continues to grow.

The child battles with the world. A new life.

And the little soul of a child becomes a person.

The golden era of the little golden light.

The point? The flame emits fire, warmth ... care.

And the sage of the flame reaches a climax, as it dances and rejoices in happiness. Gracefulness.

Its fantasies are dreams of today. The reality of tomorrow.

And the little soul, precious and treasured, remaining the child at heart, begins its dance.

A spark. A flame. A life. An entity unto its own. Girls, you are that flame.

A piece of advice? Just remember to shine. Oh, and good luck, you'll need it.

Warmly, Miss Backman

Dear Friends,

Quite an interesting salutation! However, that is exactly how I feel about you girls. I had a נסיון this past year and you came through for me. I never felt alone or uncared for.

For three months you befriended a stranger and made me feel at home. I can never do enough for you in return.

As Bnos Yisroel, Bnos Chabad you have risen to an occasion that surpassed many adults.

I wish you much Hatzlocha Ubrocha in the years ahead. Please continue to visit; I will miss you.

Mrs. Grunfeld

Dearest Students,

The Torah describes the actions of Bisya (Divrei HaYomim I, 4:18), the daughter of Paroh, upon seeing Moshe Rabbeinu in the basket floating along the river in the following manner ותשלח את אמתה ותקחה (שמות פ, ה) and she sent forth her slavewoman and fetched it.

The term אמה can also be translated as her arm. If so, the expression is her forearm became lengthened by many amos (cubits) to allow her to get the basket and remove it from the river. The Midrash explains that the basket was beyond her reach but when she tried to recover it, her hand grew supernaturally.

Rebbi Elimelech and Reb Zusya who were brothers were walking along a road when a gentile called them, "Would you come help me load my wagon." Inasmuch as they were in a rush to reach their destination, Reb Zusya replied, "Sorry, we can't" "Yes you can!" said the man. "You just don't want to."

The brothers faced each other and understood a profound message. There is so much one can do if only he sincerely wants to. If we think we cannot, it is often because we don't really want to. Perhaps we only "want" to want to do it.

My dear students, you may think something is beyond your reach, but if you are determined to accomplish you will. Like Bisya, your capacity to achieve will increase superhumanly. Strive to grow. May you be successful in reaching even higher and higher heights.

Warmly, Mrs. Grunfeld

Graduating from Elementary School to High School is more than just a transition from eighth grade to ninth. It's that bend in the road. You have passed through many grades before. Yet the passage from elementary to high school is different. It is a quantum leap. A time when new outlooks develop and new horizons beckon, new kochos revealed and old ones strengthened.

This anticipated moment — graduation — has at last become a reality. Each of you has acquired knowledge and formed a unique personality that will guide you in future years.

That is but, a bend on the long road of life. It's in your hands not to make the turn. Go for it!

Dear Classmates,

After eight years of school, we can proudly say "יגעתי ומצאתי". "יגעתי ומצאתי" — we are like mountain climbers who have just completed a long, strenuous climb, but still have yet another, even steeper, mountain before us.

"מעלין בקודש" ruchniusdike matters are a lifelong climb, but we still reach our own little peaks, our own goals, that we set for ourselves. "מעלין בקודש" we go ever higher, because Yiddishkeit has no end.

"וירא אלקים את כל אשר עשה והנה טוב מאד" on the sixth day, Hashem saw all that He created, and He saw that it was very good. After the Siyum of ששת ימי בראשית comes a higher level, Shabbos.

So, too, after our graduation, our Siyum, we should look back and see what we did, so that we can improve it, in order that it should be very good. Then we will know, and this yearbook will testify, that יגעתי ומצאתי, and we will go on to a higher level.

Through going higher and higher in ruchniyus, may we have the final Siyum, the Siyum of all Goliyus, with the Geulah Sheleimah.

May we all go מחיל אל חיל!

Sincerely,

Dear Classmates שתחיו,

It is with shared joy and gladness of heart that we look forward to our upcoming graduation.

It is with joy, too, that we look back and fondly remember the good times we spent together these past eight years; and finally, it is with joy and gratitude to Hashem that we look forward to starting our next passage in life, entering high-school with optimism and happiness.

Many generations ago, Shlomo Hamelech taught us "אין טוב מאשר ישמח האדם במעשיו" — there is nothing better for man than behaving in a manner that will bring him [appropriate] joy. Chassidus expounds on this theme at length. Our Rebbeim frequently stressed the importance of joy in every aspect of our lives in thought, speech and action.

To that end, the G.O. has with your help and co-operation and with invaluable input from Mrs. S. Wilhelm שיחי, tried to present various Yomim Tovim and Chassidishe Yomim Tovim etc. in a joyful and meaningful manner. We hope you enjoyed participating in all of it as much as we did.

In one of his Sichos the Rebbe explains the beautiful and well known Kapital in Tehillim:

אז — then when Moshiach will come

יאמרו בגוים — the nations of the world will say about Bnei Yisroel

הגדיל ה' לעשות עם אלה — Hashem has done a great kindness with these people.

To which Bnei Yisroel will respond: "Do you know why this is so? Because היינו שמחים! We behaved in a happy and joyful manner!"

May we be zoche to this תיכף ומיי"ד ממי"ש!

All in Fifty Years

When the Rebbe's Nesius just started out,
Yiddishkeit in America was nothing to brag about.
The Rebbe picked us up from a level very low,
And how to live a Chassidishe life he did show.
The Rebbe gave out many dollars,
To many people, especially his followers.
The Rebbe gave out Kos Shel Brocha
And wished his Chassidim much hatzlocha.
The Rebbe spoke often about spreading Yiddishkeit,
So for the people still in darkness we bring light.
The Rebbe made many farbrengens,
For all Chassidim אין איינעם.
The Rebbe especially loved the mitzvah tanks,
And when the children in Tzivos Hashem reach higher ranks.
The Rebbe encouraged everyone to come to shul on Shavuot every year,
So that the Aseres Hadibros they will hear
The Rebbe requested that in the Torah each girl and boy have a letter,
And study the 12 pesukim better and better.
The Rebbe greatly encouraged Ahavas Yisroel,
We should love every Jew in Klal Yisroel.
The Rebbe requested Lag B'Omer parades every year,
So we should be merry and cheer.
To the Rebbe it was very important the ten mivtzoim,
And the Sheva Mitzvos Bnei Noach to teach to the goyim.
These things mentioned are only a few,
In the fifty years of the Nesius what the Rebbe did do.
And the purpose of the Rebbe doing this all,
Is to prepare the world for Moshiach and the shofar's call.

Bais Rivkah — A special school of a unique kind
For special girls with a certain education in mind
An atmosphere that is filled with pride
A place like this is hard to find

Bais Rivkah — A Special School:
A special place with a special name
It's a link that is part of a golden chain

Bais Rivkah — Special Girls:
The Rebbe's children are raised here
Marching along they proudly declare
We're doing all we can to bring Moshiach now
And it's here in Bais Rivkah that we're learning how

Bais Rivkah — A Special Education:
A direction in life it's here that I gain
A chassidishe insight in all, I maintain
It's here that I learn what I should strive to be
A chassid of the Rebbe should be apparent in me

Bais Rivkah — A Unique Atmosphere:
Surrounded by friends with goals that we share
Teachers and a staff that really care
It's here that we come to every day
To be with people all following the chassidishe way!

Bais Rivkah — Hard To Find:
You can find Bais Rivkah wherever I go
You can find Bais Rivkah in all that I know
Look deep within me and Bais Rivkah you will see Because Bais Rivkah will forever be a part of me

WHAT BAIS RIVKAH MEANS TO ME

In 1942 the Frierdiker Rebbe established the Bais Rivkah Schools for Lubavitcher girls. He named Bais Rivkah after his dear grandmother, Rebbetzin Rivkah.

Rebbetzin Rivkah was born in the year 5593. At a young age, she lost both her father, Rabbi Aaron Alexandrov, and her mother Sarah, the daughter of the Mitteler Rebbe. Rebbetzin Rivkah's grandmother, Rebbetzin Sheina, raised her until the age of sixteen when she married the Rebbe Maharash.

Rebbetzin Rivkah was known for her great chessed and caring she had for poor people. When the Rebbe Rashab established Tomchei Tmimim, he didn't want to collect money for the Yeshiva. This made it difficult for the Yeshiva to function materially. Seeing this, Rebbetzin Rivkah took it upon herself to feed all the students of the Yeshiva. When the bochurim would come to eat, she would ask them how their studying was going, if they have everything they need, and other personal affairs.

Besides being so kind, Rebbetzin Rivkah was also a very pious woman.

Rebbetzin Rivkah was once very sick. The Tzemach Tzedek told her to eat breakfast right after she washes her hands in the morning. But Rebbetzin Rivkah didn't want to eat before davening. "Instead, I'll wake up early, quickly daven, and only then will I wash and eat," she told the Tzemach Tzedek. The Tzemach Tzedek did not approve of this pious conduct. "It's better to eat in order to daven than to daven in order to eat," he explained.

Rebbetzin Rivkah passed away at the age of eighty one, on Yud Shvat 5674, which fell out on Erev Shabbos. This was a tremendous loss, and everyone mourned the passing of this great woman.

As students of Bais Rivkah, we can learn many lessons from the Rebbetzin we were named after. By emulating her character and carrying through her ideals, we are continuing her legacy.

Yehudis Bryski

Bais Rivkah means to me...

A place with the greatest learning experiences.

In my mind I know this education will get me places

Students who are kind to one another.

Respect in the highest degree, we have for each other.

Impeccable devotion from caring teachers.

Via hands on with the girls not just preachers

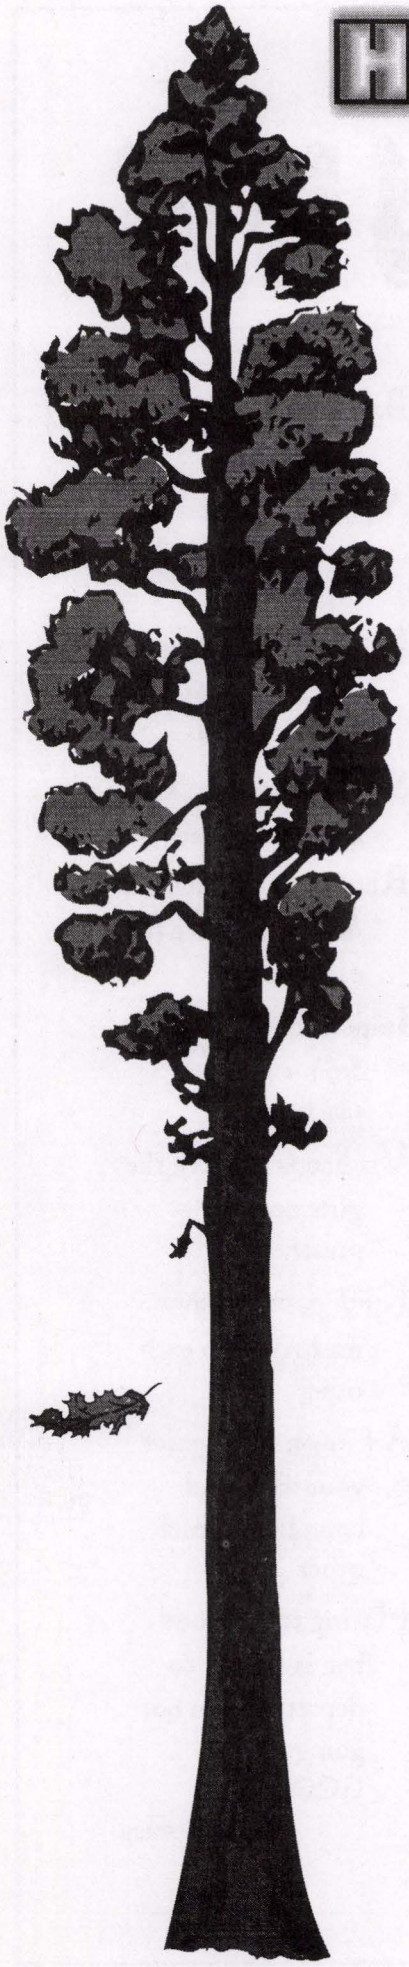

Kind, patience always ready to help each other

A+ to the staff raise your hand and compliment each other

Hashgocha Protis

In 1995 a Shliach from France came to New York for Sukkos. On the way to the airport for his return flight to France he went to the Ohel to daven. Once at JFK airport he proceeded to check in for his flight, flight 800, however to his dismay he missed the plane. The Shliach quickly transferred to another flight to France. Without any further delays he returned home. Excited to see his family whom he had missed terribly, he entered his home. He was shocked to see his family and friends sitting Shiva for him, for the original flight that he was supposed to have been on had exploded 20 minutes after take-off. There had been no survivors.

The Hashgocha Protis that the Shliach went to the Ohel to daven and was therefore late is obvious to all. I think that the main point in this story of Hashgocha Protis is that the only reason that the Shliach from France missed his flight and wasn't killed is because this was Hashem's master plan. Everthing that happens in this world is Hashgocha Protis.

Shayna Rochel Abramowitz

There was a man that had a cousin who needed a kidney transplant. This man had been tested and he found out that he had the same type of kidney as his cousin. He thought long and hard about donating his kidney to his cousin, since there are a lot of risks. He finally made a decision to do it.

When the man woke up after the operation, he asked the doctor if the transplant was successful. The doctor told him that it never happened. In preparing the man for surgery, the doctor discovered the man had cancer.

If the doctors had not been preparing his kidney, they wouldn't have found the cancer in time to save him. It was Hashgacha Protis that this man decided to help another Jew, so that the doctors were able to save him.

G-d plans and directs everything that happens in the world from a country winning a war, to a child receiving a lollipop. My whole Chinuch is directed by Hashgacha Protis. It's Hashgacha Protis that I was born into my family, that I live in the house I live in, that I went to Bais Rivkah, that I have the friends I have. Everything, even up to the fact that I am writing this article is Hashgacha Protis.

Yehudis Wiener

We don't always understand the reason why something happens. Sometimes only much later do we understand why something happened and sometimes we never understand.

The following story illustrates this fact.

The Baal Shem Tov and his talmidim were in the forest sitting beneath the trees learning Torah. "Whatever happens in this world," explained the Baal Shem Tov, "no matter how insignificant it may seem, happens for a specific reason. Even though we may not understand it, there is a good reason for it." At that moment a single leaf fell from the tree they were sitting under, and fluttered to the ground. One of the students asked, "How can a simple falling leaf have a special purpose? It is a random every day occurrence."

The Baal Shem Tov did not answer. He motioned his students to gather around, and together, they all looked down at the leaf.

Soon afterwards, they saw a tired ant carrying a large load of food on its back, crawling under the leaf, to escape the hot sun.

The Baal Shem Tov smiled, "There is a special reason for everything, even a falling leaf has a specific purpose — to shelter one of Hashem's creations."

"These people are totally uninterested in us," Mendy complained to Moishy. Mendy and Moishy were sent on Merkos Shlichus* to Waco, Texas. Rabbi Ploni, not a very frum rabbi from Waco, felt threatened by their presence and asked them to leave. Having no alternative, they left.

Five years later, as Mendy walked into a restaurant on Kingston Ave, he saw a man who looked very familiar. Eventually, Mendy realized that the man was Rabbi Ploni. Rabbi Ploni noticed Mendy, and gave him a hearty handshake. "How are you? Over the recent years I have become more Frum, and I am now a Rabbi at the Hillel house in Penn State University. I am working on an outreach program, and I was wondering if it would be possible to arrange a weekend that you and your friend can come down?"

"We will be glad to," answered Mendy, amazed at Rabbi Ploni's friendliness.

Mendy and Moishy arrived at the university on Friday. The Friday night meal was a memorable event. Mendy and Moishy sang with the students melodious songs all night, and made a great impression on the them.

Throughout the whole Shabbos, there was one man, Barry, who did not partake in anything. I wonder why he doesn't want to participate?" Moishy asked Mendy.

At the end of the weekend, before Mendy and Moishy left, Barry came over to them and asked, " How much would it cost to learn in your Yeshiva?"

"I'm from Israel and I never paid a cent," answered Mendy, surprised at the turn in events.

Shortly thereafter, Rabbi Ploni brought some students, including Barry, for Yechidus to the Rebbe. Barry told the Rebbe how he wanted to learn in yeshiva, yet he didn't want to be a burden. He told the Rebbe that he had decided to learn half a day, and work the other half. The Rebbe replied, that if you do it this way you wouldn't be into either. As a solution, you should learn one year and work for the next.

The year passed, but Barry didn't want to leave the Yeshiva. The Rebbe told him to do as planned. Barry is presently a well-known shliach in the United States.

We see from the above narrative that Hashem has His hand in everything. When Mendy and Moishy were sent to Waco, it seemed like nothing more than chance. But we see that all this had to happen so Barry would become Frum.

When things happen, we aren't always lucky enough to see the outcome. But we must have complete faith and trust that this is part of Hashem's plan.

* When Lubavitch boys reach the age of nineteen they are sent by their yeshiva to different countries or states to do shlichus.

Raizy Gottlieb

Every day we go through different small incidents. We don't realize that every step, every word, every glance of ours is Hashgacha Pratis. Until we put the "puzzle" together.

There was a man who would, like most of us, rush to work on a certain bus. One day things weren't going well and he missed his bus.

He realized that without his bus, he wouldn't make it on time to work, and this would cause problems with his job. Later when he got to work he explained why he was late. Shocked the other workers told him that the bus he was supposed to take had an explosion and everybody on the bus had died.

Hashgocha Protis

It was a dark, cold night. My Zeidi's father, Reb Nochum Yitzchok Pinson rarely slept over at his home in Charkov. Tonight, the night after Purim would be an exception, his decision would have disastrous consequences. At midnight, sharp knocks, that threw terror into everyone's hearts, sounded. The KGB were at the front door. That night, in a coordinated sweep throughout several large cities more than a minyan of Chassidim were imprisoned.

Now began the effort to locate which camp he was sent to. No one was giving information. It seemed as if he had been swallowed up. My Zeidi's brother, Tanchum z"l (who was later killed in the second world war), was traveling on a train and he struck up a conversation with a lady passenger. She mentioned that her husband was the head of a labor camp in Siberia. She added that a short time before they had brought in a new prisoner named Pinson. This man had a holy appearance, and a striking facial similarity to my Zaidi's brother. My great uncle upon hearing these words, got very excited and explained to her that this Pinson was his father whom they were so desperately trying to find. He begged her to persuade her husband to permit him to visit his father. Moved by his words, she agreed. A short time later he gained admittance to the Siberian labor camp and was able to talk and bring my great grandfather essentials. One can only imagine the tremendous chizuk this meant for the entire family. Afterwards they were able to send packages, until one was returned and marked "passed away on this date..."

Knowing he was not forgotten and visited by his son uplifted my zaidi's father's last months. Through a wondrous Hashgocha Protis a "chance encounter" with a non-Jewish stranger on a train. We see how mysterious and unique are indeed the workings of Hashem.

Dassy Light

Hashgocha Protis means divine providence. Nothing in this world is coincidence. There are countless times that a person missed a plane, bus, train etc. and are very upset. Then later they find out it crashed. Even something as little as the falling of a leaf is Hashgocha Protis. There is a story about how the Baal Shem Tov was walking in the forest and he saw a leaf fall to the ground. He asked the leaf "what are you doing on the ground?"

The leaf answered, "I don't know. Ask the twig." The Baal Shem Tov went to the twig, branch, tree, wind, Malach, and finally to Hashem asking why the leaf was on the ground. Hashem told him that there was a little worm who was hot, so Hashem sent down the leaf to given the little worm some shade so it can sleep. We can see how everything in the world happens for a reason even if we sometimes can't see why.

Sheina Baumgarten

There once lived a man in a multi family building who enjoyed helping his neighbor with small tasks. He swept his neighbors leaves and he made a habit of putting out the garbage on the curb for the regular pickup.

However, there was a particular incident, repeated week after week, which annoyed the man very much. Every week without fail, he would find the garbage which had been neatly placed by the curb, piled up in his alley.

One day the man was looking for his baby son. His son slept near a window in a crib. While his wife was worrying in the house, the man ran outside and to his amazement, he found the baby cuddled up in the soft garbage bags comfortably laughing.

Yovel

It is now the 50th year of the Rebbe's Nesius. How many dollars have we received? How many farbrengens did we go to? How many miracles have we witnessed?

This is our Rebbe — filling us spiritually by the farbrengens, helping us by blessings for a good life, and giving out money for Tzedakah.

Who could promise cures to the most sick people? Who can stand for hours at a time giving out dollars without getting tired? Only our Rebbe could, and this was his life every single day.

"50" years is a special time. It is Yovel. Yovel is when the Eved Ivriyos were allowed to go home.

May we now be redeemed from golus and be reunited physically with our Rebbe now!

We want Moshiach now! Yechi Adoneinu Moreinu V'rabaynu Melech Hamoshiach L'olam Voed.

Sara Dinerman

There was once a woman who went to the Rebbe for dollars one Sunday. She herself was becoming impatient standing on the line for a very long time. She wondered how the Rebbe, and older man, was able to stand there for almost five times as long as she.

When her turn finally came, she looked at the Rebbe for a moment of awe. She mustered up the courage to ask the Rebbe, "Rebbe, how can you stand here for so long?" The Rebbe smiled at her and replied, "When you are counting diamonds, you never get tired."]

This story doesn't need an explanation. The Rebbe, a truly devoted, almost super-human person, treated each and every person as diamonds. Fifty years of devoted love, of total caring and an astounding amount of knowledge shared with us.

Devorah Leah Lezell

As we think about the 50 years of the Rebbe's leadership, there are many aspects to discuss. I would like to touch upon one of them, namely as it pertains to us Chassidim of the Rebbe.

When we reached the forty year mark of the Rebbe's Nessius, the Rebbe emphasized a Mishnah in Pirkei Avos "בן ארבעים לבינה". The Rebbe explained that Chassidim celebrate forty years for we have now reached the level of mature and complete understanding of the Rebbe's teachings. To follow this thought the Mishnah states "בן חמישים לעצה".

Now that we have reach fifty years, we fully understand that which was taught, what the Rebbe wants from us, and how we are truly qualified to teach others.

This is the type of Chassidim the Rebbe raised. A Chassid with the natural instinct to help bring another Jew closer to Hashem.

כ״ק אדמו״ר רבי יוסף יצחק שניאורסאן שבינוהו אדמו״ר מוהריי״צ (אדונינו מורינו ורבינו יוסף יצחק) נולד בי״ב תמוז תר״ם.

בהיותו קטן התחנך על ידי אביו כ״ק אדמו״ר מהורש״ב, בביתו. לאחר 4 שנים הכניסיהו ל״חדר״. כשהיה בן 7 שנים עברה משפחתו לגור ביאלטה, שם למד מפי האברך ר׳ שניאור סלונים.

בשנת תרנ״ה (כשהיה בן 15) נתמנה למזכירו הסודי של אביו בעסקנות הכלל.

בי״ג אלול תרנ״ז - נשא את בת החסיד רבי אברהם שניאורסאן, הרבנית נחמה דינה. שנח לאחר מכן נמסרה על ידו הנהלת ישיבת תומכי תמימים.

אדמו״ר הריי״צ הפיץ הרבה חסידות במסירות נפש. הוא שלח שליחים בכל רחבי העולם כדי שבכל מקום ילמדו את תורת החסידות.

מספרים על אדמו״ר מוהריי״צ

בשנת תרפ״ב התאספו במוסקבה 10 תלמידים ביניהם אדמו״ר הריי״צ ונשבעו למסור נפשם על הרבצת תורה עד טיפת הדם האחרונה.

באותם ימים החלו הרדיפות ונאצלו ללמוד במרתפים - בורות קרים אטומי חלונות ואור.

גם במרתפים היה הפחד גדול. המלמדים שניתפסו בשעת לימודם נענשו בעינויים קשים ביותר וגם התלמידים עונו והיו כאלה שנהרגו ר״ל בלי דין ומשפט, וכן השהייה במרתף השפיעה לרעה על הלומדים שרבים מהם חלו... בזמן זה פנו בעלי בתים אל הרבי הריי״צ בתביעה: האם צריכים להתנהג במסירות נפש כזו?!

והתשובה שענה להם הרבי: שלדעתי כל עבודות ביהמ״ק נעשו על ידי כהנים ולויים. עבודת השחיטה בלבד היתה מותרת גם בזר אבל עיקרי העבודה היו נעשים ע״י כהן. עבודה אחת נעשתה כולה על ידי זר - העבודה של שליחת השעיר לעזאזל ביום הכיפורים. ועל אף שידעו שמוליך השעיר לעזאזל לא היה מוציא שנתו, נדחקו וקפצו רבים לעבודה זו מכיוון שהיתה זו עבודת בית המקדש. הרי שלעבודת הרבצת התורה הנותנת חיים, על אחת כמה וכמה שצריכים להימצא כאלה שיתעסקו בה בחפץ וברצון!

כשאדמו״ר מוהריי״צ סיפר זאת, הוסיף: כשנאסרתי בשנת תרפ״ז היה לי מזה עונג פנימי, כי ידעתי ברור שעל ידי כך יתווספו עוד כמה וכמה מאות חדרים ובתי חינוך.

מסיפור זה אני רואה עד כמה הפצת התורה היתה חשובה לאדמור הריי״צ עד כדי מסירות נפש.

כ״ק אדמו״ר הריי״צ היה מבוקש מאד אצל שלטונות רוסיה. בי״א ניסן בשנת תרפ״ד הגיעו שלוחי הג.פ.או. לרבי ברוסטוב, ערכו חיפוש מדוקדק בביתו וחקרוהו ארוכות. מאז צעדי הרבי היו מנויים ע״י השלטונות והיה עליו להיזהר מאד. אך הוא לא נכנע והמשיך להפיץ חסידות, בט״ו סיון, תרפ״ז נאסר ע״י פקידות הג.פ.או. לבית הכלא ״שפאלרקי״ שם סבל מאד ועבר עינויים קשים מנשוא.

בג׳ תמוז באותה שנה הוגלה לקסטרמה ל3 שנים. ביינתים ניסו החסידים בדרכים שונות לפעול לשחרר את הרבי, וביי״ג תמוז תרפ״ז קיבל את תעודת השחרור ובט״ז תמוז הגיע לביתו.

בשנת תרפ״ט עשה הרבי את מסעו לאה״ק ת״ו וכן את מסעו הראשון לארה״ב.

ביום ג׳ ט׳ אדר שני הגיע כ״ק אדמו״ר מוהריי״צ לארה״ב בפעם השני׳ על מנת להשתקע שם. ביום ו׳, י״ב מנחם אב נגמר קנין הבית מספר 770 איסטערן פארקווייי, ברוקלין, נ.י., וביום א׳ פי נצבים נכנס כ״ק אדמו״ר מוהריי״צ בפעם הראשונה למעונו.

בבית זה גר, התפלל, למד ועסק בעבודת הכלל קרוב לעשר שנים.

בשנת תש״י, בחודש כסלו קיבל אדמו״ר הריי״צ התקפת לב, אבל באופן קל. לאחר חודשיים, ביו״ד שבט קיבל התקפה נוספת, ובשבת קודש פי בא, ב-8:10 בבקר, ״ניצחו אראלים את המצוקים ואבינו רכב ישרא-ל ופרשיו עלה בסערה השמימה״ ומנוחתו כבוד בניו יורק.

ויהי רצון שנזכה עוד היום להתגלות מלך המשיח, ״והקיצו ורננו שוכני עפר״ וכ״ק אדמו״ר מוהריי״צ בתוכם.

The Rebbe our Rebbe our guiding light
Brought us through, the Golus
the darkness of night
He taught us the meaning of love of Hashem
Was always there for us, like a best friend

Through Torah and Mitzvos, we did grow
He sat with us on Shabbos, so we should know
That Hashem anoints us with a perfect glow
To light the world so all should know

Moshiach is coming prepare, prepare
More Torah and Mitzvos we should wear
With our garments to the Temple tish
For the feast of the Levioson, the giant fish

To complete creation, a perfect state
For the Rebbe Melech
Hamoshiach, we do wait

The Frierdiker Rebbe

The Frierdiker Rebbe's life was one of great Mesiras Nefesh. Mesiras Nefesh in our times doesn't mean the same as it meant in the times of the Frierdiker Rebbe.

The Rebbe had to physically endanger his life to uphold Torah and Chassidus. He was put into jail numerous times and threatened repeatedly. Yet, he persevered and opened even more Yeshivos and encouraged others to do the same.

We, as students of Bais Rivkah, the school founded by the Frierdiker Rebbe, have to realize that "America is not different." We don't have governmental persecutions. We have freedom of religion, however, we can't be complacent.

We have to continue the battle against the evils of Golus and assimilation. This is what the Frierdiker Rebbe and countless Chassidim endangered their lives for. As Chassidim, we must keep on illuminating this dark world with the flame of Torah.

Mivtzoim

My cousin Arik related a very interesting story that happened to him when he was on Mivtzoim. After searching for several weeks he thought he had found the perfect spot to approach people. It was a bust street with many stores, therefore many Russian Jews came to shop there. Since his parents were both Russians he could speak to them fluently in the mother tongue.

He would be able to explain to them the importance of practicing the Jewish religion and would most of the time convince them to put on Tefillin. For several weeks Arik was very successful.

One week, to his surprise a small group of people had set up a table a short distance away from where he always stood. At first he considered finding a new spot especially after he had overheard the group speaking to a man, discussing with him another religion and their philosophies. After careful consideration, my cousin Arik realized moving to another place would be a grave mistake. After all it was much more important for him to stay there now! What if a Russian Jew would decide they were interested in trying this other religion?

Determined more than ever he stopped more people than usual and was able to convince many to put on Tefillin for the first time in their lives. My cousin Arik just finished putting out more literature about Yiddishkeit when he looked up and saw the leader of the other group standing in front of him.

"Excuse me," the man said politely. "Could you explain to me who you are and what you are doing with these people?!"

At first my cousin was worried that the man had come to start an argument, or was looking for a confrontation. However, seeing his calm demeanor, my cousin realized the man was sincere. My cousin took his time to explain to the man clearly how he was a messenger of the Lubavitcher Rebbe. The Rebbe sends messengers all over the world to help our Jewish brethren understand the importance of being Jewish and practicing the Jewish religion. The man asked about the Tefillin and my cousin explained that one good deed leads to another and the Mitzvah of Tefillin was an extremely great one!

The man said he was a Mormon and went on to say he was honored to meet Arik and was extremely impressed. He then walked back to join his group and once again stopped those passing by to speak to them. To my cousin Arik's shock and surprise he saw the man speaking to three Russian men and pointing in his direction! When the three men had reached my cousin, he greeted them in Russian. They responded by telling him that the other man asked if they were Jewish and when they said yes, he told them "Jewish people go to that table and pointed to you."

My cousin told me he learned a big lesson from this story. His first response was not to run away when things seemed to difficult. Secondly, because he chose to stay he was able to see the strength of the Rebbe's Mivtzoim. When we do Mivtzoim with all our strength and don't let obstacles stop us, even Goyim want to help us!

Mivtzoim

When we go on Mivtzoim with the Rebbe's strength, we don't realize how much we can accomplish. The following story will explain this concept.

There was once a Bochur that went Rosh Hashana on Mivtzoim to blow Shofar for all the sick patients in a hospital. As he entered one room, knowing the patient was Jewish, he immediately asked if he could blow Shofar. "This man is on his death bed, it is not necessary," was the reply. However the Bochur insisted on blowing Shofar for this Jew and after much convincing, he got permission. When the Bochur finished saying the Brocha, the sick patient answered, "amen." Everyone was shocked to see that this man suddenly awoke.

A year later this Bochur went with his father to be a chazan in a shul. When they walked into the shul a man grabbed the boy by the arm. He looked up and saw a familiar face. It was the deathly ill man who suddenly awake from the reciting of the Brochos on the Shofar. The man looked at him and said, "because of you I am alive today." The boy realized that his persistence on blowing Shofar, and to fulfill the Rebbe's wish of doing Mivtzoim brought a Jew back to life.

Chavi Wilhelm

Every Nassi starting from the Baal Shem Tov continuing with the Alter Rebbe, allotted a specific Avodah which was a responsibility and a Zchus for each Chossid to try to follow. In this way we became connected in the highest degree to his Rebbe, a Chossid's dream.

Our Rebbe, Melech Hamoshiach, assigned Shluchim to every corner of the earth. For his Chassidim who were too young yet to go on Shlichus, the Rebbe gave them the task of Mivtzoim. The young men and girls do Mivtzoim as Ahavas Yisroel, Chinuch, Taharas Hamishpacha, Kashrus, Bayis Malei Sefarim, Tzedakah, Tefillin, Torah, Mezuzah and Neshek. The last Mivtza the Rebbe gave, was preparing the world for the Geulah Shleima. It is through this Mivtza that we can see true success in all the Mivtzoim as they prepare the world for Moshiach and the Geulah Shleima.

The Rebbe said the world is ready for the Geulah Shleima, and as we go out on Mivtzoim we can feel strengthened as we fulfill the Rebbe's request and prophecy of הנה הנה משיח בא.

Chaya Rochel Kershner

In this story we will see,
How a whole frum family came to be.
It was from one little girl, for one little light
Because she taught her family the way that is right.

The little girl discovered one day,
Through the Rebbe's mivtzoim campaign,
That every week she should light,
Her own little candle on Friday night.

She came home that day,
And with a smile I must say.
She asked her mother to do
This mitzvah, because she is a Jew.

Her mother refused to agree.
This mitzvah in her whole life she never did see
But this girl cried and screamed and made a big fight,
Until a Shabbos candle she was allowed to light.

Then one day,
It was her father that did say:
How can we talk about affairs of the week.
When our little girl about Shabbos Kodesh does speak.

Every Shabbos they did something small, for the holy day.
It was something small, but it lead the way
For many more and more.
Until as a frum family they were secure.

Now the family is living in a Jewish way,
And with happiness every day.
From that one little Shabbos light,
That lit up the thick dark night.

Rochel Notik

Moshiach!
For this we yearn,
It's a dream, a passion that shall forever burn,
Moshiach!
How near it seems,
It's almost unreal, everlasting dreams.
Moshiach!
It is here,
The strength, the courage, it's all so near

Leeor Hoffinger

As Chassidim of Chabad,
We were taught to believe That although it might seem that way,
The Rebbe did not leave.
Confusing may surround us,
And we know we've had enough,
But the Rebbe will redeem us
Although the waitings tough.
Hashem please stop testing us,
We are ready now
To greet the Rebbe Melech
Hamoshiach
You just have to tell us how!

Sheva Lipskier

When I think of Moshiach, I think of glorious times, people and places. The Rebbe said that we are the last generation before Moshiach. All we need to do is open our eyes.

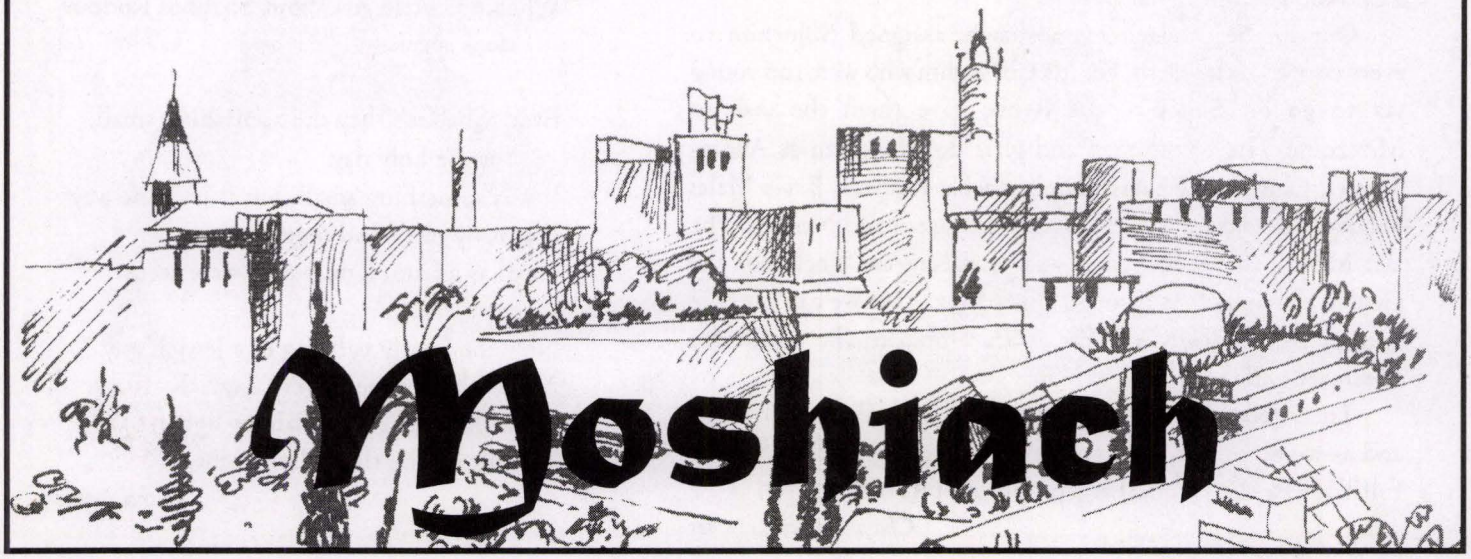

It states in Gemara if Bnei Yisroel are deserving, Moshiach will come on a cloud. If not, Chas Veshalom, he will come on a donkey.

Either way Moshiach will be here ever so soon. Let us open our eyes, by doing what the Rebbe has taught us. Through Ahavas and Achdus Yisroel, Moshiach will come, in the blink of an eye and most definitely B'Ananei Shamaya on a cloud.

Miriam Schmalberg

A golden beautiful treasure chest stands before you. The key to the lock is lying before you too. Just pick it up and open the box, to find in it the best treasure you've ever dreamt of. This treasure, so special, does not consist of gold and silver, not even diamonds or precious stones. It's Moshiach and all the wonders of Geulah. So let's say "Ad Mosai," pick up the key, and open the box, and enjoy the redemption.

Miriam Sirota

In the Bracha given by the Rebbe on Erev Yom Kippur 5752, he said, "The only thing that is still missing is the actual movement out of exile towards the Redemption, which should happen immediately in the blink of an eye.

This movement must of necessity, occur within nature. That is, there is no need for an open miracle or even a concealed miracle.

This is a new way of looking at the days of Moshiach. The Rebbe made it clear that much of what we consider to be only preparation for the Geula is, in fact, an actual part of the Redemption.

When Moshiach comes the knowledge of G-d will be so obvious and apparent that it is likened to the faculty of sight.

Given our limited intellectual abilities, most of us think this will happen in a miraculous way. All at once, people around this world will stop what they're doing and G-dliness will appear. But the Rebbe says, "The Redemption will come through nature, not through miracles.

On Gimmel Tammuz 5751, the Rebbe explained that the whole idea of Geula is the sanctification of nature, not the destruction or overthrow of the natural order. Redemption means that the inner essence of nature will be revealed. "Opening our eyes" to the Redemption means that we begin to see the true reality, we see that all the promises of our sages are materializing, one after the other.

This does not contradict the idea that the Redemption will occur in one instant, for that is also something that can happen within nature. Given the constant scientific advances we can easily believe that it will be possible to build the third Bais Hamikdash in less than eighteen minutes.

As science continues its daily advances we need to remember that we are standing at the very threshold of Redemption. To attain this awareness, we must learn as much as we can about Moshiach and Redemption which as the Rebbe explained will truly "open our eyes" to the Geula.

Chanie Nash

There was once a king who took a lot of pride in his garden. He had one large tree in the center that he wanted chopped down very badly. He had all the gardeners and professional tree choppers come and try to chop it down, but no one was able to do so.

The king decided to allow all citizens to come and try to get down this tree for a reward. Many people came but no one was able to do it. The strongest man came but he was not either able to do it. The king was about to give up when a little man came and chopped it down. Everyone asked him, "How were you able to do this?" And he replied "After so many people gave their best try, one more little try just got it down."

Moshiach is at our threshold, we just have to do one more thing, one more push, and he will come.

One little candle,
Made a home bright.
A little girl lit it,
On Friday before night.

Judy got affected,
When Jewish girls she met.
They asked her, "Are you Jewish?"
And gave her a pamphlet.

She ran home to her mother,
With her pamphlet in her hand.
"I want to light a candle!"
Judy did demand.

Her mother did refuse,
But Judy asked again.
She begged her every single week,
And knew it was in vain.

Judy then decided,
She'd do it on her own.
She ran down to the grocery,
When her mother wasn't home.

She asked them for a candle,
That Jewish people light.
They gave her a 'Neshama licht',
And she lit in Friday night.

Her mother came home,
And the candle caught her eye.
Some scary thoughts rushed through her mind,
She wondered who had died?

The mother ran to Judy,
And shrieked "What did you do?"
"You didn't light for me" Judy said,
"So, I had to light for you."

There was once a king who had a beautiful daughter, the princess. He wanted to marry her off to the wisest man in the kingdom. He announced a contest whoever could fill up a certain room entirely from the floor to the ceiling, in a certain time limit would marry the princess. Many men came to the contest, the first man had wagons full of straw and quickly loaded the straw into the room but unfortunately when the room was half full the time was up.

Next was a man with bricks and he had great speed and strength. He began filling up the room but for him also the timer buzzed before the room was full. People came with wooden boxes and cartons and balloons but no one could fill the room in time. People were beginning to give up hope and say "It's impossible."

Then came a simple man and approached the king. "I wish to also join this contest." "But where are your wagons of things to fill the room?" asked the king. "Every thing I need is with me now," he replied. And with wonder and excitement the king told him to proceed. The man came into the room, pulled down the shades of the window thus darkening the room. He then proceeded the light a candle and placed it in the center of the room. In a split second as he lit the candle its light filled the entire room. "Congratulations," said the king, "You are indeed a wise man and worthy to marry my daughter.

The light of a candle pushes away the darkness and fills it up with light, so too נרות שבת קודש will brighten up the world and prepare it for the נרות ציון, the light of Moshiach.

When I turned three, and forty inches in height,
Shabbos candles I began to light.
It was then that I started to have the insight,
That I can make the world a bit more bright.

I was taught,
One good deed leads to a few,
And I can help bring Moshiach for every Jew.

Her hand strikes that little match,
As the spark forms, and then shines.
As her hand slowly moves
Towards, that specific wick on her own candle.
Then,
It jumps into a small flame.
As she gathers her hands, the flame permeates that Very special wick.
She then covers her eyes and recites that special
Blessing with a soft and sweet tone of voice.
Yet with such meaning to the blessing
On that candle.
The flame transformed everything in her life.
As she uncovers her eyes, she welcomes
The Shabbos.

Our Torah gifts us with Mitzvos galore
For physical and spiritual to establish rapport.
Those uniquely for women number but three,
And each one is kept most joyfully.
The Rebbe has taught, has instructed, has asked,
That this trip be kept as in centuries past.
But the one he has instructed to be kept from age tender
Is the lighting of Neshek which brings spiritual splendor.
For a home bathed in light, in peaceful tranquility,
Will help bring creation to ultimate harmony.
The Zohar tells us, this holy book does
That the lighting of Neshek brings a promise from above.
The lights of Tzion shall shine holy and bright,
And surely dispel this dark golus night.
So we hope and we pray as Neshek lights spread
That Golus be replaced with Geula in its stead.

One evening Mrs. Cohen got a devastating phone call stating that a childhood friend had just died and the Levayah would be the following morning. Mrs. Cohen immediately booked a flight for the next morning, going to Canada, where the Levayah was to take place.

Flight 211 took off as scheduled, and once the plane was about halfway through the trip, the pilot announced that due to some mechanical difficulties they'd have to turn back.

Back at the airport, Mrs. Cohen called home and noticed another woman doing the same. The two women then sat down together and began to get acquainted. This woman said that she was half Jewish because her mother was Jewish, but her father not. Mrs. Cohen then explained to her that since her mother is a Jew, she is Jewish. Upon hearing that, she began to question again and again if it was true. She said that her whole life she wanted to be Jewish. Mrs. Cohen explained to her that all Jewish girls and women light candles and this would be a good idea for her to do especially since here mother was ill. They spoke a lot about 'Neshek' and the two then exchanged phone numbers.

Mrs. Cohen never got onto the flight, because it would've been too late for the Levayah and so she returned home.

About one month later, Mrs. Cohen received a call from the woman saying that she told her mother what Mrs. Cohen said and the two now light candles every Friday evening.

In a room devoid of light
The aim of a candle bright
A child stands attempting to ignite

Standing side by side
Mother and daughter tried
To instill within a love of Yiddishkeit

Suddenly a flame burst forth
A blinding light, a torch
The house is filled with Shabbos light galore

Father and son return home
They too feel the glow
Family together all uplifted so much so

The world confused one great mess
A small light dispels a great darkness
We begin with just one candle,
It accomplishes the rest

Chayale Halberstam

Who would imagine what could result from lighting one Shabbos candle? When the Rebbe first started the Mivtzah of Neshek the Rebbe said that a small amount of light pushes away a lot of darkness. Many people went out to the schools to tell all the children about Neiros Shabbos Kodesh.

One time, there was a girl who was given a candle. She was so excited about lighting candles! At first, her mother didn't want to let her light it but when she saw how much her daughter wanted to, she gave her permission. After some time, her mother was ashamed that her daughter lit Shabbos candles and she did not. She then began to light candles with her daughter every week.

Eventually, the rest of her family didn't want to be מחלל שבת while the candles were burning so they started keeping Shabbos. They then gradually started keeping more and more Mitzvos.

Look what can result from one candle!

Nechama Baras

Sara walked into the store. She hesitantly asked the saleswoman if she sold "Jewish candles." The saleswoman replied, "Oh! You mean this," and handed her a Yahrtzeit candle. Sara, not knowing what a Shabbos candles was supposed to look like, happily left the store with her Yahrtzeit licht.

When she arrived home, she lit the candle. A few minutes later, Sara's mother entered the house. A worried expression appeared on her face as she saw the candle. "Who died?!" she asked in despair.

A startled Sara replied, "No one, why are you asking?"

Because you have a memorial candle lit," came her mother's reply.

"What memorial candle?" asked Sara, confused.

"The one over there," said her mother, pointing at the candle.

"But that's a Jewish candle," said Sara, "The lady in the store told me."

"Well, I had enough of it! Blow it out and put it away!" came her mother's angry reply.

Sara silently blew out the candle and sadly put it away in the cupboard. A few weeks later, while shopping with her mother, they were approached by two young girls.

"Excuse me," they asked, "Are you Jewish?"

Sara's mother hesitantly replied, "Uh, uh, I'm not."

"Yes, we are Jewish," Sara interrupted.

"Well, here is a candle for you to light every Friday night," said the girls as they skipped away. Sara went home feeling wonderful.

Sara lit the candle every Friday night. This small mitzvah led her to start doing more mitzvos, until she was completely religious. Sara's children now attend Bais Rivkah, and are busy with Mivtzoim, spreading Yiddishkeit in the world.

BAS CHABAD

A Bas Chabad must learn from the Rebbe in two ways. We must learn lessons from what the Rebbe taught and apply these lessons to our daily lives. We must also look at the way the Rebbe behaved and try to act in the same way. I have chosen two areas to which this applies very strongly.

The first is respect. As we grow into adulthood it becomes more of a Nisayon for girls our age to show respect to our parents and teachers because we are very judgmental. But we can learn from the Rebbe's Sichos how important Kibud Horim U'Morim is. The Rebbe spoke about respect on many different occasions, stressing the importance of honoring one's parents and teachers, and even the Chiyuv of the Avos to honor their parents before Mattan Torah. The Rebbe, himself, was a living example of how one should honor his parents. He went shopping for his mother, on a regular basis. The Rebbe could have easily gotten someone else to do this task. The Rebbe also went out of his way to walk his mother home from 770.

Another area, that is a Nisayon is Tznius. This also applies very much to girls of our age. In our search for adult identity, we are often faced with the problem of style vs. Tznius. We must then remember what the Rebbe expects of us. The Rebbe said that every girl should be recognizable as a descendant of Sorah, Rivkah, Rochel and Leah through the way she dresses, acts and conducts herself in her personal Shlichus in life. From the Rebbe's own life we see a Dugmah Chayah in Tznius. At Shabbos Farbrengens, the Rebbe would make Kiddush and then eat only a little bit of cake, enough to be Yotzei Kiddush, rather than eat an entire meal with everybody watching. This was very much in keeping with the Rebbe's personal Tznius.

When we have issues in our lives that create conflict, we stop and must think: "What would the Rebbe say?" "How would the Rebbe act, or want us to act?" Then we will surely behave in the manner of a true Bas Chabad.

SHLICHUS

A young man
And alongside him
His even younger wife
With a one way ticket
Destination — unknown
Embarking on a journey
A mission
A focus
A job
With years and years
Of preparation and training
Behind them
They stand poised Ready, willing and able To conquer the darkness
To illuminate the world
Never once turning back
They will succeed
Reaching the ultimate goal
The Geulah

Sara'le Halberstam

She entered Bais Rivkah kindergarten, her parents planted a seed.
She continued through school, elementary, high school, and seminary,
watering the seed, ever so carefully.
She visited Shluchim for summer camp,
and participated in special programs.
She watched as they worked,
she listened as they spoke.
She saw how the Rebbe relates to his Shluchim, much like a father to his children.
She married. Now she too was ready to live her dream, to be a partner with the Rebbe,
to be a Shlucha.
She joined all the other men and women who have made their lives work permeating the world with the warmth, the light and the wisdom of Torah and its way of life.
Preparing the world for Moshiach.
As I water the seed, I dream of the day when I too will have the Zchus to be the Rebbe's partner, the Rebbe's Shlucha.

Shainy Karp

I feel privileged to have been on shlichus all my life. We do not live in a remote town but close to Crown Heights, so I'm fortunate enough to attend Bais Rivkah. It is very exciting living the life of a shluchah. You are able to meet many different types of people, all age groups from diverse backgrounds and reach out to them on their level.

Shlichus has given me a wonderful feeling of accomplishment. Every Shabbos, Yom Tov and special occasion my family and I share with our community the joys of Yiddishkeit, and taught them to appreciate Torah and Mitzvos.

For example, my brothers and I walked around our neighborhood with a lulav and esrog and made brachos with Jewish people. We helped with the cooking, preparing and serving the meals in the Sukkah for tons of people, who would have otherwise never eaten in a Sukkah.

I look forward to continue as I grow older the work of a Shluchah wherever I go.

Binie Hecht

When you awake in the morning there's a special light that's glowing.
The sun is the light,
That spreads its rays so bright.
These rays will soar
Throughout the continent,
So does the work of a shliach
Who is sent.
A Shliach will take his knowledge of the Jewish religion,
And spread it throughout the entire region.

Chaya Pinson

Every one of us on Shlichus
Shlichus is Mesiras Nefesh
We must give it all we've got
To help and teach other people
Is our task
To bring them closer to Yiddishkeit
Is what we try to do
So stretch out your hand
Pull them away from falsehood
Show them the truth
Act don't just preach
This will show them it's all true
So act as a Bas Chabad
Showing them the way
Help them take everything with stride
Going day by day

שלחיות

We all know that living as the Rebbe's Shluchim is not always easy. There are difficulties both B'ruchniyus and B'gashmiyus. Kosher milk, meat and bread aren't always easily obtained. There isn't already an established shul or mikva, and there are no frum schools.

There are programs to organize in a most inviting way. The programs vary from model Pesach Sedarim to Yom Kippur services; from Purim carnivals to school assemblies, Chanukah performances, summer camps and much more.

None of it is easy, but we know that we have the Rebbe's brocha to teach other Yidden about Yiddishkeit, to bring them closer to Hashem, and to bring Jewish life into Jewish communities.

With this Koach from the Rebbe, we can overcome all obstacles and bring Moshiach now! אמן כן יהי רצון

Sheina Weiss

Every person is born with a shlichus to accomplish so in reality everyone is a shliach. Yet we as Lubavitchers were given a specific shlichus that our Rebbe commanded us to fulfill, and that is to bring the world to its complete perfection.

Every chossid is a shliach in this very important shlichus, whether he lives in Australia or Crown Heights. Doing outreach programs and making people frum, stopping people in the streets of Manhattan, hosting people for a Pegisha, or just by being a walking, talking example of a Bas Chabad is all part of preparing the world for the coming of Moshiach.

It is clear that no matter where we live we can be a shliach of the Rebbe. Let us take advantage of this unbelievable zechus and act upon it to bring the Geulah.

Hindy Deitsch

Shlichus is a life of giving. It's giving your time, patience and concern. The success of Shlichus is not accredited to yourself either. The Rebbe is the source of it all. Even very young children appreciate Shlichus. They realize how much luckier they are than many of their non-frum friends. They have family and religion, good middos and self control.

The focus of life as a Shliach is not how to make money, or renovate your house, but how to bring people closer to Hashem, enlighten their life with Torah.

Estie Katzman

One day while sitting amongst my fellow classmates watching the video "Davening with the Rebbe," I became inspired to go on Shlichus. I thought if I can's see the Rebbe right now, I could at least follow his teachings, thereby connecting myself to him. I could go to the Ohel, learn the Rebbe's Sichos, and Maamarim, and go on Shlichus. I got inspired from the many stories I have heard about Shlichus. The pride you get when you bring someone closer to Yiddishkeit, and Chassidus is very rewarding.

Chany Perelstein

Something special happened as my plane touched the runway landing in Hong Kong this past Tishrei. There was magic in the air; everywhere I went, everything I touched was filled with this special aura. I too felt different as if during the trip I had gone through an amazing transformation. I was charged with a mission, I was joining thousands of Lubavitchers around the world that are privileged to be Shluchim.

From the moment I woke up my day was filled with a purpose — every action had special meaning. Through every Peulah that I was involved or any D'var Torah that I gave, I had the power to impact the very lives of the people that joined Chabad. Side by side I worked with people that only days before had been strangers, and now felt like family. Together we joined forces as we prepared for Chabad activities and programs. And, although I was on the giving end, I was the most fortunate recipient of all. Yomim Tovim that I had been celebrating my whole life somehow seemed more significant and special. I had a deeper appreciation for Yiddishkeit and Chassidim that only days before I had taken for granted.

This then is the magic I had felt — the magic of Shlichus where everything ordinary becomes something extra-ordinary.

I want to thank my uncle, aunt and cousins, Rabbi and Mrs. Mordechai Avtzon and family for giving me the opportunity of being a Shlucha and joining them in Hong Kong for Tishrei 5760. I want to thank Bais Rivkah for preparing me for this awesome responsibility and for giving me both the knowledge and the tools to be able to impart the beauty of our wonderful heritage. Lastly, but most importantly, I want to humbly thank the Rebbe for bestowing upon me the honor of serving as a "lamp-lighter."

את ראייתו השמימית של הרבי בקשר לשלמות ארץ ישראל ראה עם ישראל פעמים רבות

מלחמת ששת הימים:

בה בשעה שעם ישראל כולו היה שרוי בפאניקה נוראה נשמע קולו המעודד של הרבי: אין מה לדאוג ועם ישראל יצא בניצחון גדול.
ימים ספורים לאחר מכן כולם את דבריו.

מלחמת ההתשה:

גם פה השמיע הרבי את דעתו הנחרצת שאין לקבל את הסכם הפסקת האש.
אולם מנהיגי המדינה דאז לא אבו לשמוע לרבי ומתוצאות אותו "הסכם" סבלנו קשות לאחר שנים ספורות במלחמה הנוראה "מלחמת יום הכיפורים".

מלחמת יום הכיפורים:

מבית מדרשו הקדוש אשר בניו יורק הרבי למנהיגי הצבא לכבוש את דמשק ולו ליום אחד.
הוראה זו אם היתה מתבצעת היתה חוסכת אחת ולתמיד את האיום הסורי.

מלחמת שלום הגליל:

בעיצומה של המלחמה תבע הרבי ממנהיגי הצבא לכבוש את בירות ולו ליום אחד.
תביעה זו אם היתה מתבצעת היתה חוסכת קורבנות רבים במשך השנים שלאחר מכן עד עצם היום הזה.

ERETZ YISROEL

A land ...
... flowing with milk and honey
... where Hashem shows his hand in great abundance that Hashem chose for us that Hashem cherishes.

A land ...
Enveloped in Kedusha
Through which all Berachos for the world flow.
Of bright skies and dancing hills.
Of our hopes and dreams for thousands of years.

A land ...
Where it says that even breathing the air brings wisdom.
Where our Avos and Imahos dwelled.
Where we will return to when Moshiach comes,
"Vekabtzeinu yachad meiarba kanfos ha'aretz"
Brings us together from all four corners of the earth, into our land, bimheira b'yomeinu mamash.

Minna Caplan

Davening in a land near a wall soaked in tears,
Holding my Siddur whispering my fears.
In my hand I hold the power,
To heal every Jew.

By saying prayers, I can end all strife,
Ask for Moshiach, bringing a more peaceful life.
Each word is a gem that I can't possibly measure,
Opening the closed gates above, — let's
Cherish this treasure.

Chani Chabosha

To Eretz Yisroel I will always turn,
For Eretz Yisroel I will always yearn
This beautiful land became ours,
When we were promised to multiply like the sand and stars.

Eretz Yisroel is a place so fine,
And its heavenly smells are so divine.
The Avos were promised to have a place to live,
With Parnosa and Hatzlocha which Hashem would give.

Tehila Sharabi

In the commentary Rashi, we learn that the so called "ugliest" place in Eretz Hakodesh is ten times as wonderful then the most beautiful place in Mitzrayim. For every step you take on the holy soil, walking down the street with the hot sun shining on your face and beautiful scenery in the background, you receive a Mitzvah. People from all over come to see Eretz Yisroel, a land full of Kedusah. How wonderful it would be to hear the shofar blow and have the Bais Hamikdosh rebuilt! We'll gather in Eretz Yisroel when Moshiach comes. אמן כן יהי רצון!

See you in Yerushalayim.

Libby Pakow

What is so special about Israel that the whole world is fighting over? Israel is hardly a spec on the map! Yet, this is the land Hashem gave to us. This is that land of our forefathers walked on. Since the time Hashem gave the land to Abraham it became the holiest land on earth. All Jews yearn to be there. Israel is where the first and second Beth HaMikdash stood, and very soon the third one will stand. The Rebbe announced Israel is the safest place to be, even while it was involved in a deadly war with missiles and gas masks. With Hashem's help may all Jews meet together in Yerushalayim with Moshiach now!

Rochel Rothchild

Eretz Yisroel is a great place to be,
There are many wonderful things to do and see.

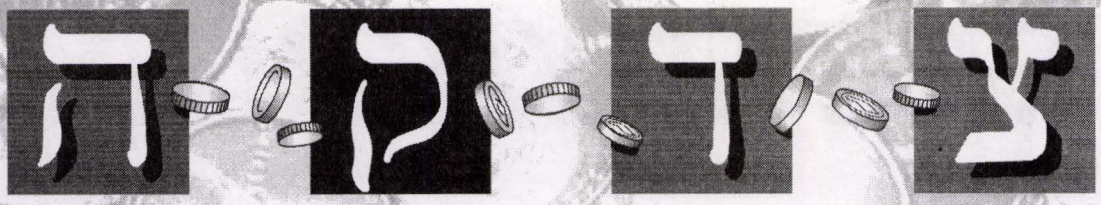

Many Tzaddikim are buried there,
Wisdom can be felt in the land's holy air.

There is a special vibrant Kedushah everywhere,
That you can't find anywhere.

But now I just can't wait to see,
The Bais Hamikdosh Hashilishi.

So everyday I hope and pray,
For Moshiach to come right away.

Fraidy Levilev

Rabbi Gabriel was married for twenty-five years yet he had no children, but he was very rich. Then a few years later he lost all his money but no one found out. A man was stuck in jail and the Alter Rebbe was collecting money to get him out. The Alter Rebbe sent a messenger to get money from R. Gavriel. R. Gavriel didn't want anyone to know he lost all his money so his wife sold her jewelry. His wife took the coins and shined them really well.

When R. Gavriel brought them to the Alter Rebbe he said "Nothing in the Mishkan shone as bright as the bowls of the women's mirrors where did you get these from?" So R. Gavriel told him what his wife had done. When the Alter Rebbe heard what she did he blessed them with children, money and long life. R. Gavriel and his wife got their money back, they had a child and they lived very long.

Mirele Lokshin

There is a story told about a boy named Avi who had a beautiful Bar Mitzvah and received a handsome amount of money as gifts.

A day after his Bar Mitzvah he ran to the bank put the money in, and calculated how much interest he would make over the coming year. A few days later his father said to him, "It would be a better idea if you took the money out of the bank and put it in a G'mach."

Saddened and reluctant, Avi put the money in a G'mach. The next day his head hung low while walking home from school thinking of how much interest he would have made if he had left the money in the bank. He then spotted a crumpled piece of paper on the ground, picked it up and to his surprise it was the exact amount he would have made in interest over a years time.

From here we see the great importance of giving Tzedakah even if you are loosing out, and how Hashem repays you when you give Tzedakah.

Esther Karp

Our sages tell us that "Gedola tzedakah shemikareves es hageulah." The mitzvah of tzedakah is very great because it brings the redemption closer.

Therefore, since Tzedakah has the special strength to hasten the coming of Moshiach, we should give tzedakah with this specific purpose in mind.

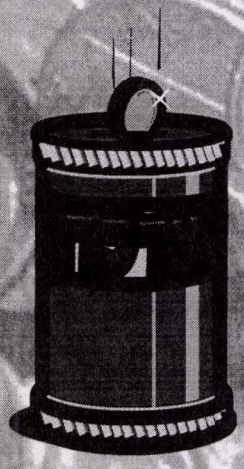

The Rambam says that one should always look at the world as if it is on a scale with an equal amount of good deeds and bad deeds. One good deed on our part can tip the scale and bring the Geulah.

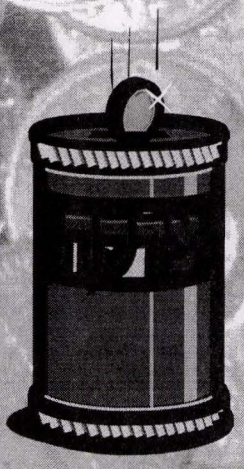

This is especially true with the mitzvah of Tzedakah. Every penny, nickel or dime that we put in the pushkah brings Moshiach much closer. The Rebbe has told us that Moshiach is incredibly close and we have to start living with Moshiach.

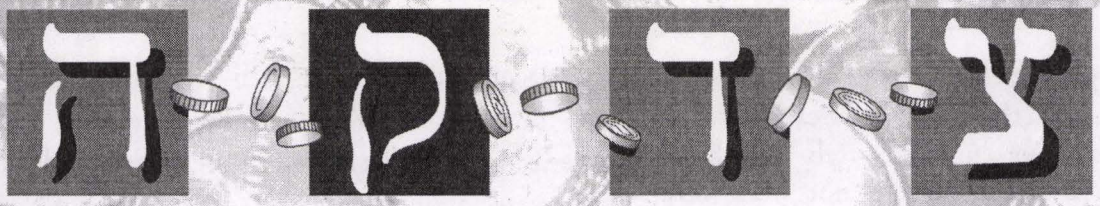

The way to do this is through learning about Moshiach and preparing our lives for his coming.

Therefore, when we give Tzedakah, we should keep in mind, "Gedola tzedakah shemikareves es hageulah." When we help others and give them charity, Hashem will certainly respond by bringing Moshiach right away.

Rochel Chudaitov

There, But For The Grace Of G-d Go I

The night was cold and dreary. Snow and frost covered the entire village. From many chimneys, columns of white smoke curled up to the cloudy skies. Here and there, a beaten hut could be seen. Behold, we come upon a family that would spend the night huddled close together to keep the winter chills out from their bones.

In the quiet shadows, the crunch of boots on the snow could be heard as two saintly looking men made their way to one of the largest mansions in the town. Reb Chaim of Sawz and one of his pupils were on their way to raise funds to buy firewood for the poor.

At the threshold of the magnificent, lighted mansion, Reb Chaim knocked on the door. He then waited as the secretary hurried to tell his master Reb Dovid about the esteemed guest at the door.

When Reb Dovid came to the door, he immediately invited Reb Chaim inside the warm house for some hot tea to dry the chill from his bones. Reb Chaim nodded his head in agreement, but made no move to enter. He began telling Reb Dovid about the cold weather, the thick snow, and the biting wind that was blowing. He described the necessity of helping the poor with obtaining firewood to heat their homes.

Reb Dovid, who had been standing patiently at the door in his shirtsleeves, began to shiver from the chilly night air. He asked Reb Chaim again to come in and sit down at the table. Again Reb Chaim agreed, but still made no move towards the table. He continued to elaborate on the desperate plight of the poor and freezing Jews in the town.

Reb Dovid wrapped his arms around his body in his attempt to stay warm. Finally, he could contain himself no longer.

"Reb Chaim!" He blurted out. "Couldn't you tell me about this while we were sitting comfortably at my table? It's very colding standing by the door!"

Reb Chaim finally entered the house. Then, with a twinkle in his eye, he answered Reb Dovid.

"Yes, I really could have done my mission the way you said. However, then you wouldn't have felt the chill that the poor Jews feet in their homes. Now that you know what it feels like to shiver in the cold, I am sure that your response will be in much greater measure than before."

Shternie Stock

There was a wise rabbi named Reb Shalom. Rebbetzin Malka, his wife, was known throughout the town for her most delicious meals.

In another part of town there was a man named Bizzbazzel. He was the richest man in the town. He was a very greedy man who wouldn't dare to show his face to a stranger. When the Rabbi heard about this he decided that something had to be done.

Bizzbazzel woke up one morning to get a message that the Rabbi invited him to his home. He was thrilled. He wanted to be good and hungry for dinner that night. When he arrived at the Rabbi's house, he was told to sit next to the Rabbi.

The meal began yet each time he picked up his fork the Rabbi would ask him questions, and when he finished what he was saying the Rabbi would ask more questions.

He spoke and the Rabbi ate. His mouth was dry from speaking, and he was hungry from not eating. He ached for the delicious looking food.

When the meal was over he couldn't wait to leave, but he was stopped. The Rabbi wanted him to stay over night.

He was brought to his room, however, he could not fall asleep. He was thinking about the food. All the food that was thrown away. All the wasted food.

He also cried, he cried for the hungry people, and he cried for being so stingy.

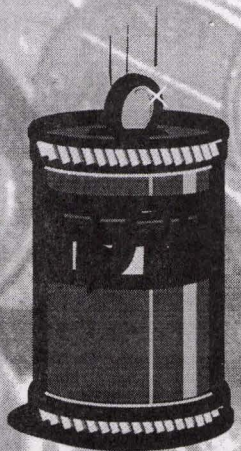

The next morning as he got up to leave, he was a different man. He made orders, to call all the beggars from the market place to come to his house.

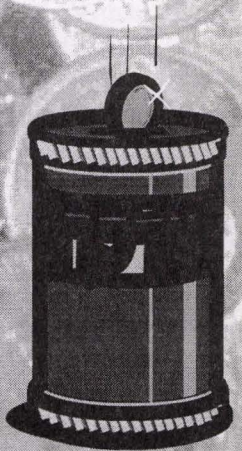

There was a crowd gathered before his house.

When the news got to the Rabbi, he knew his plan had worked.

From then on, Bizzbazzel's name was surrounded by blessings.

Ancestors

My great-grandmother, Rebbetzin Mariasha, lived through terrible experiences in Russia. Her husband, Reb Yitzchak Elchonon Shagalov, would not work on Shabbos, so the family was thrown out of their home. With their six children, they went to live in the women's section of a Shul, behind a partition they set up. It was very cold there and an icy wind blew in. They had to bring in water from a well some distance away. But they didn't mind because they knew they were doing it for the sake of keeping Shabbos.

Suddenly, her husband was arrested by the Russian secret police. He had been the only Mohel in their town, even though it was against Russian law. He also used to teach Jewish children Torah in secret and did many other things to strengthen Yiddishkeit. Many, many years after his arrest, his family found out that the wicked Russian police had shot him to death.

Bubba Mariasha was then still a young woman. She wanted to keep her children out of the Russian schools which would teach them to go against the Torah. So she found places to hide them until she could set the family up safely in a different city.

Hashem has rewarded her for all her years of real Mesiras Nefesh and suffering. She has so much Nachas from her children and all her hundreds of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, even great-great-grandchildren! Many are the Rebbe's Shluchim in cities and lands all over the world, strengthening Yiddishkeit just like she and her husband did in Russia (but without, Boruch Hashem, having to endanger their lives as she and my great-grandfather did).

Now you know why I admire my great-grandmother, Rebbetzin Mariasha, so much!

Brochie Goldman

My great-grandfather, Reb Eliyahu Simpson ע"ה, was a man of great virtue. When the Frierdiker Rebbe visited America in 1929, he stayed in my great-grandfather's home. My great-grandmother, Fruma Ita ע"ה, would bake the finest challah every Friday for the Frierdiker Rebbe.

My great-grandfather was the Frierdiker Rebbe's secretary for ten years the Rebbe lived in America (1940-1950).

After 1945 when it was difficult for people to understand the Rebbe's words, my great-grandfather would enter with everyone in Yechidus and repeat the Rebbe's words to the person asking the question. He was chosen for this special task because all the Chassidim knew that he would never repeat what the Frierdiker Rebbe said, even to his closest relative.

I greatly admire my great-grandfather, and I hope to be able to follow in his footsteps.

Cheyena Avtzon

My Father O.B.M.

A man who shared and cared all his years.
He helped me in time of sorrow and despair.
And cheered me up when I was feeling down.
He always lent a hand at times of need.

That picture on the wall,
My favorite picture of all.
His full salted square beard,
His eyes that shone brightly,
And his smile that touched every one's heart.

Yud Tes Iyar, a day I will always remember.
The day my father opened the door of my room,
And said good bye to me so softly
That parting I received is engraved in my heart.

Esty Kessler

Grandparents are those we can't live without,
For me, my grandparents are the best, is no doubt.
You have someone to listen, to everything you say,
They listen to your joy and happiness each day.
Instead of sipping coffee they'll shed their joyful tears,
Grandparents at your side, to help you through happiness and fears.
They love it every moment that you're sitting right near by,
They wipe away your tears when you begin to cry.
They pick you up and help you when you're feeling down,
They put a smile on your face in place of every frown.
I sit down and send them a smile every day,
And they can catch the smile, however far away.
They say good morning to me in a tone so sweet and light,
And every night I hear them when they tell me good night.
They sit and look at my pictures hanging on the wall,
They cherish and hold it tight to make sure it won't fall.
Grandparents very far away from me though it's not so fine,
It doesn't really matter as long as they are mine.

Chany Turner

One of the people I strongly admire is my Zaide. My Zaide is always learning. Whether at home, in shul, or in his office, I always see him with a Sefer. As a child, I often wondered how much can a person possibly learn, but I now realize that Torah has no boundaries. One can never learn enough.

My Zaide's Anivus, deep Emunah and unyielding Yiras Shomayim has always been exemplary. On many occasions, the Rebbe himself praised my grandfather and blessed him with the ultimate blessing of serving our holy community until the coming of Moshiach Tzidkeinu!

May we be zoche to the fulfillment of the Rebbe's words of "הגיע זמן גאולתכם" speedily in our day אמן!

Rochel Schechter

My great grandmother, Sarah Shimanovitz ע"ה was a great woman who dedicated her whole life towards the Inyan of Tzedakah. When she arrived in Canada, after the war, she totally devoted herself to raising money for the Montreal Yeshivah Dormitory. There she established an organization named נח"ת; נשי חובבי תורה.

In addition to her נח"ת activities, she had raised over one hundred thousand dollars for Hachnosas Kallah in Israel. She also contributed a large sum of money for Beit Sefer Lemlochah; a school, in Israel, for teaching Jewish children a trade. She never took any commission for herself from what was collected. Everything went one hundred percent to the organizations.

In addition to her Tzedakah activities, she took two orphan children and raised them as her own. I can see that my great grandmother is a true example of what it means to be a true Baalas Tzedakah.

My grandfather was born in the year 1917 in the country of Poland. He was young when he attended Lubavitcher Yeshiva and he was known as one of the best students in the school. He went there until he was twenty one. That year he had to escape the Nazis and the boat ended up in Shanghai, China.

He later went to Canada and married my grandmother Devorah Fried. They lived there for two years. At that time the Rebbe said that they should move to Philadelphia. There they had a son named Eli. When he was one, they moved to New York and had four more sons.

It was then that my grandfather became principal of Lubavitcher Yeshiva on Ocean Parkway. He was very nice and completely devoted to his Talmidim. Every day he would come home and tell his family how he loved his students. They all loved him. My grandfather was also very close to the Rebbe. He was the Rebbe's Baal Tokeah.

One day, one of my cousins went into his office and saw that my Zaidy wasn't feeling well, so they brought him to the hospital. He fell into a coma for fifteen long months. Six years ago, he passed away on Thursday night, Motzoei Zos Chanukah. His students and so many more were very sad because he had meant so much to so many people.

My Zaidy Rabbi Berl Junik

My Zaidy has always been there for me since I was a baby. His lap was home to my laughter as well as my tears. A nice word, a comforting hand, always available and ready to fill my every need. His kindness and understanding have left a deep and everlasting impression on me.

My Zaidy's honesty, integrity and special midos earn him a truly loved and respected place in our home. Not only, on a personal level do I admire my Zaidy, but also for his unique dedication and devotion to the Rebbe MH"M.

When my Zaidy left Russia he came out together with Rebbetzin Chanah. On his papers were written that he was her son.

Among the many zechusim that my Zaidy had was, he used to set up the table for the Rebbe's Farbrengens and would go into the Rebbe's room to get the becher and wine. He was especially close to Rebbetzin Chaya Mushka and he was treated like a בן בית in בית הרב.

There is so much more I can say, however, I will end off saying that I am really lucky to have such a great and wonderful Zaidy and may he live עד מאה ועשרים שנה.

In merit of his many good acts may we be zoche to the ultimate hisgalus MH"M now!

Raizy Junik

I admire a very great and important person, my mom. She is a really sweet and kind person. She's always willing to help others when help is needed. My mom sometimes cooks food for others that need food and can't afford it. My mom never allows a person to leave empty handed if they ask for money.

My mom has lots of things that she needs to do at home cook, clean, etc. Yet she somehow manages to raise money for a school.

It is clear to see why I admire my mom, and I'm sure if you knew her you would admire her too.

JEWISH PRIDE

Pride in being a Jew
Pride in being part of the few
Pride in being a Jew
Pride in being you.

Pharaoh tortured every Jew
He and his entire crew,
Every male in the Nile they threw,
Many Jews they slew.

And yet that feeling of Jewish Pride
Surrounds the Jewish people,
Surrounds the broken men,
Surrounds the children and adults,
Making them strong again.

Nebuchadnezzar exiled the Jews,
To destroy the Bais HaMikdash, fire he used.
Although, in Bavel the Jewish people he abused
Their Jewish identity they didn't lose.

Yes — the feeling of Jewish Pride
Surrounds the Jewish people,
Surrounds the broken men,
Surrounds the children and adults,
Making them strong again.

Titus gave no thought to divinity,
He thought he was so smart and witty,
He broke into the holy city,
To the Jews he showed no pity.

But still, the feeling of Jewish Pride
Surrounds the Jewish people,
Surrounds the broken men,
Surrounds the children and adults,
Making them strong again.

1492 was a fateful year,
To be a Jew — who would dare?
But although they felt a lot of fear,
The Jewish people didn't care!

Indeed, the feeling of Jewish Pride
Surrounds the Jewish people,
Surrounds the broken men,
Surrounds the children and adults,
Making them strong again.

In 1939 — what should they do?
Everyone was chasing after the Jew!
For Jews, the way was worse than a curfew
It diminished their number to only a few.

Nevertheless, the feeling of Jewish Pride
Surrounds the Jewish people,
Surrounds the broken men,
Surrounds the children and adults,
Making them strong again.

It is essential to have
Pride in being a Jew
Pride in being part of the few
Pride in being a Jew
Pride in being YOU!

Outnumbered by the others
In a world so very vast,
Mocked and afflicted,
What is the power of our past?

What is the secret of our strengths,
To reach insurmountable height?
What inspires us to be victorious?
What guides us in our plight?

As a nation, we shall never falter,
History, is our guide,
In each heart there shines a light.
As a Jew we live with pride.

We know the glory of our nation,
And the power of our deed.
With pride we differ from the others,
With pride we all succeed.

How fortunate is our lot,
How lucky is our say,
Bnei Yisroel stand erect,
With love and pride we lead the way.

Friendship

A timeless tale is told of a man named Moshe and his extraordinary friendship.

There was once a king who would invent libelous charges against the Jews in order to persecute them. Moshe, the tailor, was unfortunately the king's newest victim and was sentenced to be brutally murdered in the center of town, where everyone would watch.

Being accused so unexpectedly, Moshe had been away from his home and did not have an opportunity to say good bye to his family. He therefore asked, "If your majesty allows, I would like to say good bye to my wife and children."

The king replied, "I'm only willing to fulfill your request, if you return at this exact time tomorrow. You must also find someone willing to take your place and die instead of you if you should not return."

The king was shocked when he heard an unexpected cry from the crowd. A man ran up to the front of the crowd and said, "I am willing to take Moshe's place." The king was astonished, and looked at the man as if he was crazy. Moshe's jaw dropped open as he tried to dissuade the man. "Ely, my friend, you can't be serious. Don't do this." But Moshe could not change Ely's mind. "I will wait for you here." With tears of happiness Moshe left.

Moshe spent his time wisely at home, all the while keeping in mind that Ely would fall prey to the king's evil plan if he would not return on time. The next day Moshe hurried back to the center of town, where his execution was to take place. Moshe quietly approached the area, where they were preparing to kill Ely. "Stop," Moshe yelled out, "I am here." To which Ely replied, "No, I have earned the privilege of dying. I was able to live as your friend and now I will die as your friend." Moshe would not hear of this. "No, it's my time to die." The king interrupted them and said, "Just as you are willing to die for each other, I am willing to let you live for each other. But please include me in your friendship."

Though we are all going our separate ways, it's important to treasure our friendship, because they are just as important as the friendship between these two friends.

I saw you walk the halls so confident and swift,
And I wondered what you did to deserve such a gift.
Then, I had no friends, I was depressed and sad,
You were so pretty, poised, happy-go-lucky and glad.
I saw you walk to your exclusive group of girls laughing at the halls end
And I wondered what I can do to be your friend
I finally mustered up the courage to go up to you and talk
But you just shrugged your shoulders and away from me you did walk
I wondered under all the shallowness do you have a soul
Are you warm-blooded? Is your heart whole?
It will probably take long for my broken heart to mend
And I wondered, do I want you for a friend?

Naomi Katz

What is a friend? People might say a friend is a person you can say "Hi" to on the street, or a person you can talk to on the phone. But what is a real friend? A friend is a shoulder to cry on, someone you can pour out your troubles to, someone who is understanding. A true friend is someone whom you can trust. She will build you up, not put you down.

I was once asked, "How many friends do you have?" "Why ten or twenty," I replied.

"But how many friends do your really have?" I thought for a moment, and then answered, in a bashful voice — "I'm lucky if I even have two."

A friend is a person you love, someone who would so completely go out of her way for you.

Now I ask you, how many friends do you have?

Friendship

"The love in your heart wasn't put there to stay. Love isn't love till you give it away."

We all feel good when we feel loved, therefore it is a human trait to desire friends.

It is a natural longing for understanding and acceptance, that pushes us to want friends. The acquisition of friends satisfies this wanting. But one does not give into longings just because they exist. One must determine first if this need comes from something G-dly. If it does, then the need is satisfied.

We are told clearly in Pirkei Avos that the urge for acceptance and friendship is one to be fulfilled: "קנה לך חבר". But Pirkei Avos doesn't just say "Have a friend." Rather, it gives us insight into the whole nature of the ideal friendship. It says, "Buy yourself a friend." Buying does not imply a transferring of a valuable from one who is emptied, to another who now has something. Buying is a exchange of valuables. You give of yourself and in turn receive what another has to offer.

Not only are friends desirable — they are essential! A story is told about Choni Hamaagol who slept for many years and awoke to find the generation he knew dead and gone, and a new one in its place. Search as he might, not one familiar face did he find. He hadn't a friend in the world! Said he: "או חבורתא או מתרתא". "Either friends or death." He chose death, rather than live without friends.

The way we treat our friends now is the way we will act with acquaintances all our life. It is therefore wise to understand now what a proper relationship with a friend entails. The Torah says: "ואהבת לרעך כמוך". "Love you friend as yourself." Although we have faults, we accept ourselves, tolerate ourselves, and even like ourselves, all our frailties included. The trick is to extend this positive feeling from self-love, to love of others, and accept them too, the way they are.

The beautiful Sefer Koheles, written by Shlomo Hamelech, provides us with the most basic tenant of friendship: "טובם השנים מין האחד כי אם יפלו האחד יקים את חברו ואילו האחד שיפל ואין שני להקימו דו" "Two is better than one, for if one falls, the other picks him up. And if there is one, who will pick him up if he falls?!"

Elisheva Mochkin

Friendship is a sheltering tree whose branches envelop us in love and happiness.

In my repertoire of friends, first come my parents. My parents are always there for me and listen to me at all times. They guide and direct me in the ways of Torah and are models for me to emulate. They don't give me everything I want they give me everything I need.

My Bubby accepts me for who and what I am. She has a positive attitude no matter what I do. Her sense of pride in me gives me a feeling of fulfillment. She encourages me to dream because she knows that dreams are essential to achievement. Always happy to see me, her face lights up with a welcoming smile as she opens the door.

My siblings are my confidants, my allies and my devoted friends. We are all strong willed and admire each other for standing up for what is right and for having the courage to follow our convictions.

I enjoy working and spending time with my peers. During study time, recess breaks, discussion periods and after school activities we spend quality time, sharing and caring for each other.

As I grow there will be people I will meet and new acquaintances I will make, who will continue to help mold my character. Through giving good advice and having discussions my friends help me become a better individual.

A famous poet once said, "No man is an island," therefore, we must depend on each other to help us through the maze of life. Friends are comets in the sky, that light my way beyond the bridge of dreams.

Friendship

A friend they say, is a lifetime chance,
That never should be missed.
They also say that with a friend,
Life soars a bliss.
But let me tell you what I learned,
With all the experiences that I've had.
For all the laughter that I've ever shared,
Or tears for good or bad.
Yes, I have learned many things,
Like how to laugh or cry.
But let me tell you just one thing,
Believe me, it's no lie.
A friend is a stain, that leaves a mark,
A friend that always lives.
But not only an ordinary stain,
A stain that only good it gives.
A friend is some one that lends their heart,
And also lends their ears.
A friend can always understand,
And give away their tears.
But a friend will never be a friend,
Without a friendly chat.
And now as I get to the point,
I'll say it quick and fast.
You were the one and only friend,
Whose memories will last.

Chanie Gross

Friends are a gift,
To help you live,
And you're there to help them too.

Friends are dear,
They stay very near,
To comfort you in times of fear.

Friends are so sweet,
They're just like a treat,
Because a true friend just can't be beat.

A true friend's smile,
Can stretch over a mile,
And stay engraved deep in your heart.

A true friendship would last,
A time, very vast,
And the joy would never be forgotten.

So give yourself a lift,
To buy yourself a gift,
And your happiness would last a lifetime.

Etty Pinson

Friendship

It's so good to have a friend,
Someone that really cares,
And gives a helping hand,
You do things together.
In all kinds of weather,
Sunshine or rain,
To help each other out,
That's what real friendship is all about.

Dorith Mizrachi

Friendship is more than a way of fun,
Talking to your friend is necessary for everyone.
Whether on the train or on the bus,
Friendship is worth making a fuss.

Walking down the street,
It's your friends who you'll meet.
They'll greet you with a smile and a care
For it's with friends your feelings you share.

When we are together, we're as happy as can be.
For as the Torah tells us Ahavas
Yisroel is the best way you see.

Chanie Duban

To be a friend to have a friend
That is the aim
For it is more important than any type of fame
קנה לך חבר is what we are taught
A friend is not to be fought
But to acquire a friend is certainly great
A lot of work to find a playmate
Laughing in the hall
Slamming a ball
Or having a slumber party
And going to the mall
These are the fun parts the best of all
But to have a shoulder on which to lean
And share secrets, thoughts, hopes and dreams
A friend who is always there for you
To help you pull through Because Ahavas Yisroel is what will bring Moshiach Tzidkeinu

Yom Tov

Our Yomim Tovim — our holidays —
Are indeed very special days;
They are days of rejoicing, days of remembrance
Days we celebrate with great jubilance.

5760 years since the world's creation,
And still every year we hold a celebration
On the day of the birth of man,
Hashem judges every creature,
To see what they did and what they can.

On the 10th of Tishrei, it's signed and sealed
The fate of every creature, but it's not revealed.
We do our best, and try to repent,
On the holy Day of Atonement.

The Jews were surrounded on every side
By a cloud — they didn't need to hide
From any sort of enemy
Who looks at them with enmity.
Eating in Sukkos, we do love,
Because it shows thanks to the One Above.

Chanukah — the Holiday of Light,
The victory of the Jews was very bright,
On all the eight days we light the Menorah,
To celebrate the continuity of the Torah.

Purim — a day of rejoicing
Everyone is singing and dancing.
We're celebrating the great turnabout,
When Haman's family was wiped out!

On Pesach, everything is spic and span,
We take out our new pots and pans,
Not a crumb is to be found,
We eat only Matzah — not like all year
'round.
Because when the Jews left Egypt, one day,
They didn't have time to stay,
Before the dough rose, they were on their way.

On the holiday of Shavuos,
Hashem gave us the Luchos.
We read each and every "Dibrah"
On Shavuos — from the Torah.

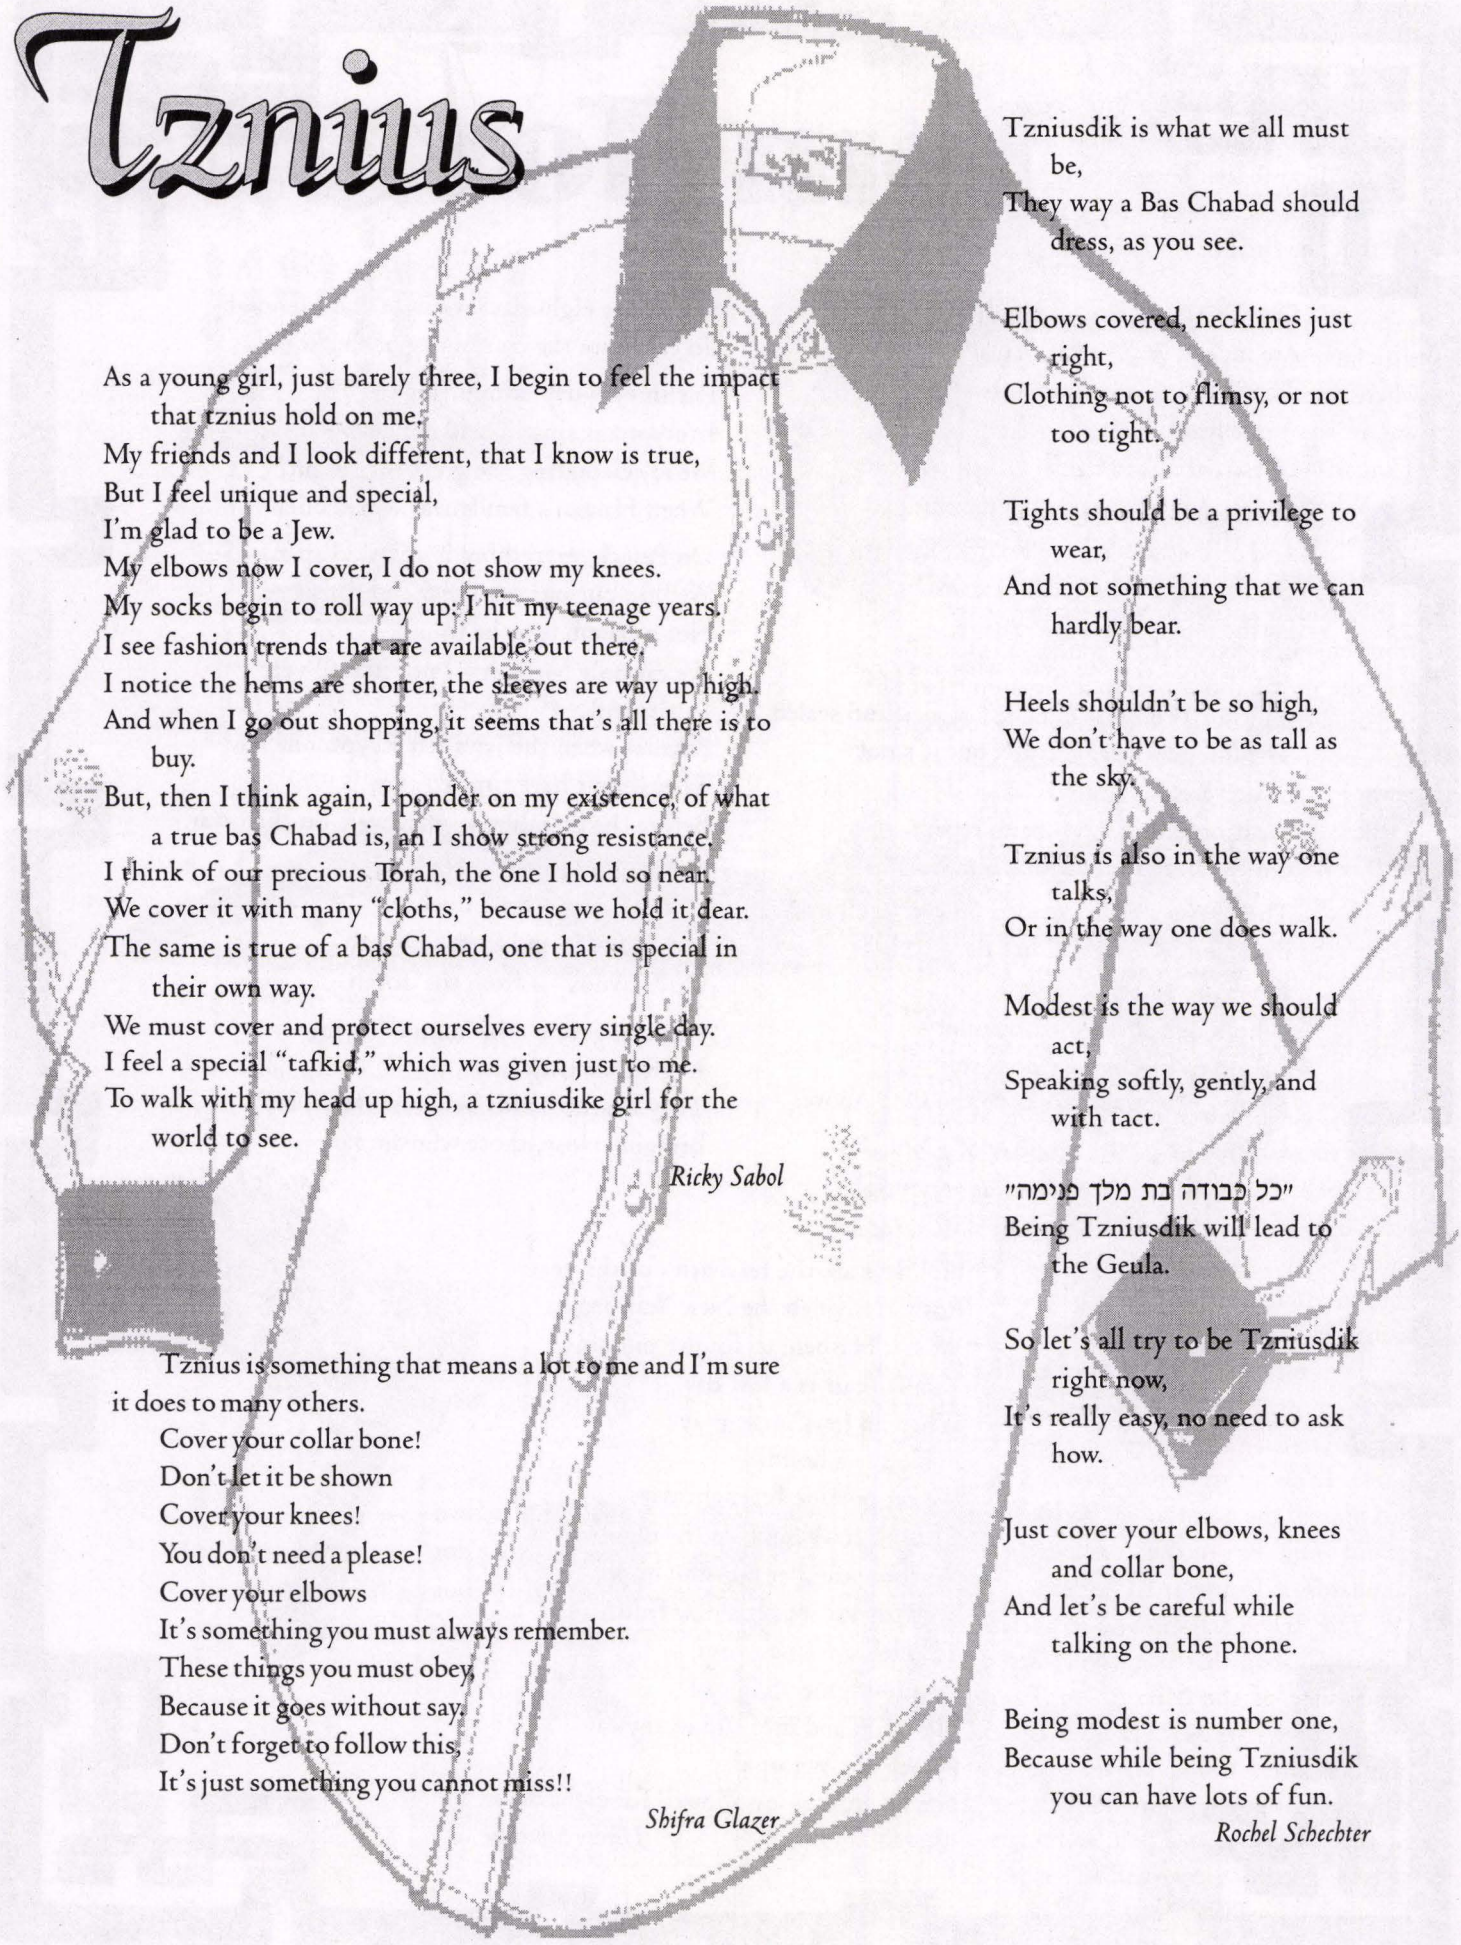

Hashem gave us the Yomim Tovim,
A gift they truly are,
They are the bonds between every Jew,
Bringing close, those who are far.

Sara'le Roitblat

Holidays are the festivities of the year
Rosh Hashanah the New Year begins
We ask Hashem to forgive our sins
Yom Kippur is a fast day
When all Jews must pray
Sukkos is a holiday
We eat outside for eight days
Chanukah we light up the nights
With the candles burning bright
Tu B'Shevat we eat a new fruit
To celebrate a new root
Purim is a mocking day
Have fun and dress up in anyway
Pesach is clean up day
For no crumbs are allowed for eight days

Tznius

As a young girl, just barely three, I begin to feel the impact that tznius hold on me.
My friends and I look different, that I know is true,
But I feel unique and special,
I'm glad to be a Jew.
My elbows now I cover, I do not show my knees.
My socks begin to roll way up: I hit my teenage years.
I see fashion trends that are available out there,
I notice the hems are shorter, the sleeves are way up high.
And when I go out shopping, it seems that's all there is to buy.
But, then I think again, I ponder on my existence, of what a true bas Chabad is, an I show strong resistance.
I think of our precious Torah, the one I hold so near.
We cover it with many "cloths," because we hold it dear.
The same is true of a bas Chabad, one that is special in their own way.
We must cover and protect ourselves every single day.
I feel a special "tafkid," which was given just to me.
To walk with my head up high, a tzniusdike girl for the world to see.

Ricky Sabol

Tznius is something that means a lot to me and I'm sure it does to many others.

Cover your collar bone!
Don't let it be shown
Cover your knees!
You don't need a please!
Cover your elbows
It's something you must always remember.
These things you must obey,
Because it goes without say.
Don't forget to follow this,
It's just something you cannot miss!!

Shifra Glazer

Tzniusdik is what we all must be,
They way a Bas Chabad should dress, as you see.

Elbows covered, necklines just right,
Clothing not to flimsy, or not too tight.

Tights should be a privilege to wear,
And not something that we can hardly bear.

Heels shouldn't be so high,
We don't have to be as tall as the sky.

Tznius is also in the way one talks,
Or in the way one does walk.

Modest is the way we should act, Speaking softly, gently, and with tact.

"כל כבודה בת מלך פנימה"
Being Tzniusdik will lead to the Geula.

So let's all try to be Tzniusdik right now,
It's really easy, no need to ask how.

Just cover your elbows, knees and collar bone,
And let's be careful while talking on the phone.

Being modest is number one,
Because while being Tzniusdik
you can have lots of fun.

Rochel Schechter

Tznius

Tznius is a way of life for a Jewish girl. It directs the way a Jewish girl dresses, talks, and acts. Throughout the generations, Tznius has been a Mitzvah that Jewish women have been very careful to observe. As far back as our Imahos, we see that the Imahos were extremely Tzniusdik in their actions.

When the Malachim came to tell Avraham that he was to have a child, they asked Avraham where Sora was. Avraham notified them that Sora was in the tent. Rashi explains that Sora was a Tznuah — she acted Tzniusdik.

When Rivkah first saw Yitzchok davening in the field it says that she covered her face, because she wanted to be Tzniusdik.

Rochel wanted to protect her sister Leah from embarrassment. In a quiet and Tzniusdik way she revealed her personal Simanim that she had secretly received from Yaakov, thereby giving up her opportunity to marry Yaakov. She was later rewarded for her great actions by also marrying Yaakov. In addition meriting to have a great son who is known as Yosef HaTzaddik, and became the Bechor of Yaakov.

When Rus was collecting the wheat from the fields, she made sure to bend down (to the wheat) in a Tzniusdike fashion. Boaz was so impressed with her Tznius. This characteristic played an important role in his decision to marry Rus.

The Rebbe often told the story of a woman by the name of Kimchis who was so strict in her adherence to the Mitzvah of Tznius that the walls of her house did not see her hair uncovered. In the zechus of her observance of this Mitzvah, she merited to have seven sons, who were Kohanim Gedolim.

In the times of the Cossacks, the Cossacks tortured many of the Yidden. One day they decided to drag a girl through the streets tied to a horse. In order to remain dressed properly, this girl pinned the dress to her body. In this way, she would not be forced to sacrifice her high standards of Tznius at all.

The Rebbe reassures us in a letter to N'shei Ubnos Chabad that if a woman strengthens her observance of the Mitzvah of Tznius she will merit to see true Nachas from her children and grandchildren. Let us strive to achieve this goal by being extremely meticulous in our observance of this Mitzvah, and just as בזכות נשים צדקניות נגאלו אבותינו ממצרים we will be zoche to Moshiach Tzidkeinu speedily in our days.

Miriam Glick

The Torah says "כל כבודה בת מלך פנימה" — a princess' beauty lies within who she is and what's inside her. If we don't concentrate as much on the outer part of us the external, we leave room for our inner qualities to shine through. This is truly what we're all about. The laws of Tznius help us to focus on that which is really important; our character, intellect and Middos.

Tznius is not only the way we dress, it is very much the way we act. Being princesses that we are, we must behave in a most respectful way. We speak differently and walk differently. We are not just common people, we are royal

Chany Witkes

Tznius is important to us in each and every way.
Tznius is not only what we wear from day to day.
Tznius is also about what we do and say.
Tznius is something we do without a doubt.
Tznius is what we as Hashem's children are about.

Soshia Becker

Tznius is a Halacha we must strive to keep
Every day and every night
With this Halacha we must be careful
And make sure we dress just right
So let's be Tznius

Cover your elbow, pull down your sleeves
Pull up your socks so we don't see your knees
Make sure you're Tznius button is always closed
And then you will be ready for a Tznius girl's pose
So let's be Tznius

So follow these things
And you will be fine
If you want to bring Moshiach closer
Be Tznius all the time!

EIGHT YEARS IN ONE BOOK

Eight years have passed
It has gone by so fast,
So much we have learned
Our graduation we earned.

At the beginning
First grade we entered,
Around learning Chumash and the Alphabet
Our lives were now centered.

Wearing our brand new uniform
All navy and light blue,
Our outfits for eight years
We would quickly have to get used to.

The second, third and fourth year
In 310 Crown Street we did pass,
And now that we mastered reading and writing
Our tests were coming fast.

In fifth grade, Church Avenue school
To us was introduced,
And the fact that we were half way through
Gave us a survival boost.

Getting used to departmental
Was a pretty hard thing,
Although a teacher for each subject
Did make sixth grade interesting.

Sixth grade was the big year
When history was made,
We moved into the new building
All that waiting definitely paid.

Our Bas Mitzvahs
Were celebrated in seventh grade,
We began to mature into young ladies
Our childhood was beginning to fade.

Now in our final year of elementary
With our "graduating look,"
We accepted our diploma,
And that's "eight years in one book."

Rivky Lerman

The years have flown by. In the first grade we were very excited that we would finally wear uniforms. In the second grade we proudly held up our Chumashim and felt proud that we were not the youngest in the school. In the third grade we learned to write secret letters. In fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh we were busy making friends, learning concepts and skills necessary for all future learning, having fun and studying for tests. Eighth grade! Finally! The oldest girls in the school, those that set the example, the planners. Soon eighth grade will be over and we will all go our separate ways beginning our journey once again in high school.

Altie Adelstein

EIGHT YEARS IN ONE BOOK

As I stood holding my mothers hand,
At the kindergarten entrance,
My Bais Rivkah experience
Was about to commence.

Wearing uniforms, we entered first grade,
Second and third grades opened the door,
To spelling, vocabulary, and much more,
Chumash and Navi we learned to translate,
To enter Church Avenue, we couldn't wait.

The grades passed by one by one,
Each with its own teacher and flavor,
Leaving us with much to savor.

In sixth grade we were very well versed,
For "Production", many eves we rehearsed,
Moving to the new Campus Chomesh was great,
In its magnificence, it was easy to concentrate.

Now that we have come to our elementary graduation,
We can say without hesitation,
Our years in Bais Rivkah, it is difficult to summarize,
As Chassidishe young ladies we are now recognized,
Bais Rivkah — for all in us you did imbue,
We say Thank you, Thank you!

Esty Mintz

Here we are walking out of our eight years of elementary school into a higher level we never knew. We've all been through smiles, laughter, frustration, and confusion. Yet, we all managed to get where we are now. We are very lucky to have such a beautiful yearbook. Later on in our future we can look back at our memories and laugh together. It's quite amazing how time flies by. It feels like it was just yesterday when we stepped into first grade. I am going to keep this yearbook so dear to me forever, because most of my memories are in this book. There were two things I always looked forward to since first grade, one was opening a yearbook and seeing my picture knowing that 'I did it'. Second was walking down the aisle with our graduation gowns and hats. Thinking 'Finally, we're here, and we made it.' Congratulations!

Shani Friedman

Bais Rivkah has given us more than you can imagine. We started out in first grade, reluctant to leave the security of our homes. Over the years, with the help of our caring and devoted teachers, we grew from learning the ABC's to script... from Chumash with Rashi to miforshim... Thank you, Bais Rivkah. These eight years flew by so quickly, we will remember them forever. The lessons you taught us and the memories we formed will remain with us for a lifetime.

Chaya Bleier

Sept. 6, 1992

Dear Diary,

This morning I woke up extra early. I'm so eager to start my first day of school. I couldn't wait to put on my new uniform and be just like my older sisters. I prepared my briefcase with a notebook and three sharpened pencils. I wonder how my teachers will be like and how it feels to sit in a chair with a desk. To tell you the truth I'm a bit nervous.

June 2, 2000

Dear Diary,

Guess what another day of school. Just a few more days and good bye to Beth Rivkah elementary. At this point in my life I feel comfortable walking through the halls of Beth Rivkah and greeting friends and teachers. Now I'm ready to face the challenges of high school and feel that I've gained so much throughout these years academically and socially. As I leave Beth Rivkah I wave good bye to the building and to the eight wonderful years that have affected my life.

Shoshana Ostrov

When we were in first grade
We knew nothing at all
All the girls were so big
But we were considered small.

When second grade came about
We would scream and shout
For we were two years away
From being big girls on that special day.

Third grade was a dream
We walked on air and steam
For everyone looked up as us
For we were number one and plus.

We were the greatest
We were the best
When we were in fourth grade
We were higher than the rest.

Oh no! What a downpour
Oh no! What a fall
When we walked by the big girls
We all felt so small.

Now sixth grade was better
We felt bigger too
We had 7 or 8 teachers
And production, that's true!

Now seventh grade was the year
The year of success
But scrapbook was great Actually the best.

Now here in 8th grade
We reached so high
We're the highest in elementary
And time seemed to fly.

Now ninth grade is coming
And boy what a fall
And soon we'll feel so small again
While walking through the hall.

Congrats 8th grade!

EIGHT YEARS IN ONE BOOK

Recently, I visited an antique shop. As I strolled around admiring the quaint objects the owner remarked, "Each item in the store is not merely an object that I sell, but part of my life. See that cradle over there? That was my mother's when she was a baby, and was then passed to me. See that miniature rocking chair? I sat on it at the age of two. Now they are all part of my past and I am selling them."

It was hard to believe that this old man was once young and small enough to fit in that small crib. It was even harder to believe that he was getting rid of all the things that were part of his past. I thought it would be dear and special to him. After all isn't the present a result in continuation of the past? Walking out of the store a question struck me. What kind of things would I put into my antique shop? Which items from my life would tell my history.

I began to imagine a display. In middle of the shelf I would place the Leshana Tova card I made for my mother in first grade. Maybe it was a bit lopsided, but I remember how proud I was. Right next to it in the place of honor I would place my six day of creation book from second grade. I remember how carefully I struggled to make the sky blue. Those were the years I was in the Yiddish class. I would hang on the wall of my store, my first attempts to write Yiddish stories. My store would have to be quite large. I would need room to put my broken desk from Church Ave. If I would be artistic, I would make a model of the Church Ave. building and show it to my grandchildren. I will show them the Mesirus Nefesh we had to learn in that rundown building. Next to it would be a model of Campus Chomesh, and I would be filled with pride. In an antique shop it is impossible to exhibit feeling and memories. Walking away from the antique shop realization struck me.

Eight years of school, is so much more than a collection of objects and memories. These past years have made me what I am today. I could never see even the most unimportant thing because it is part of my past, and the past resulted into the present.

Nechama Tiechtel

I have spent all of eight years in this school. All of my eight years here are put into one book a yearbook. This book symbolizes all our years and accomplishments here. As we leave this building to reach higher points we look back. We look back at all of those easy and hard, good and not so good times here. We look back at all those teachers we had teaching us; at all those days and hours spent here. As we leave we have this book as a souvenir of all our memories here.

My Golden Sister

There is a Neshamah that was brought down to this world לי תשרי five years ago. This Neshamah was called Menucha Rochel for her grandmother. Rochele had blue eyes and golden hair and a delicious smile. For two years we watched Rochele grow. She hardly whined or cried and she was always smiling. To see her jump and ask to be held to kiss the Mezuzah and on Shabbos to run and kiss the Torah was a Mitzvah she will always be Mekayem.

On Shabbos Parshas Beshallach she fell ill. She slept for four months. Four hard exhausting months. ט"ז אייר her Neshamah left. She was two and half years old. I call her my "golden sister" because she was as precious as gold and even more.

Chanie Baumgarten

My Sister Fruma Ita

She was someone who was very kind
A person like her is hard to find
She was Aidel and very sweet
She was someone special and very unique
One of the great Middos that she had
Was caring for others cheering them up when they were sad
To every person she gave a smile
And to get her to help did not take a while
Her wonderful Ahavas Yisroel
Her cheerfulness and loving heart
They are imprinted in our minds
They are engraved upon our hearts
We continue to ask Hashem for Moshiach
So we can once again see you במהרה בימינו ממש!

Malkie Borenstein

Dear Alta Mina ע"ה,

It seems so natural to say "Dear Mina." Although when you were here, I never did get to sit down and have a long talk with you. I was a the young age of three, and you wre a mature seven years old, when Hashem plucked his beautiful rose from the garden.

Ten years have passed, but you are still an integral part of my life.

So many images of you are in my mind. So many stories of you inspire me. I may feel angry and frusterated about something, and then I remember:

... Your determination, as you return to school after a day of treatment

... Your happiness at greeting the Shabbos Queen, all dressed up, even when you are in the hospital

... Your glowing face when you say a Possuk in front of the Rebbe.

Mina ע"ה, you never had the chance to graduate 8th grade. As I stand here, at this important moment in my life, I wish you were at my side.

I know I can't change reality, but I can try to emulate you. I can try to be a source of Nachas to my parents and the Rebbe.

I hope, Mina ע"ה, that when we will meet again very soon, in the times of Moshiach, you will say: "I am proud of Nechama."

Your beloved younger sister, Nechama Tiechtel

Mrs. Altein & Mrs. Jacobson

Every school, like a body, needs a backbone, to keep everything functioning.
You were that backbone.
Every school, like a family, needs parents to care for each member.
You were those parents.
Every school, as a school, needs disciplinarians to teach the students the proper way to behave.
You were those disciplinarians.
In short, you were anything and everything we need to run this school
Thank you.

Mrs. Wilhelm

So friendly, caring and extremely nice. She's always there for the student body with a kind and listening ear. All the many projects and contests are due to the credit of our superb Mrs. Wilhelm. She is truly second-to-none.

Rabbi Frank

A walking, talking encyclopedia who is constantly adding flavor to our lessons. Thanks to him, our level in learning is par excellence. With his sense of humor, he is truly a sensation.

Mrs. Sperlin

A phenomenal and intelligent teacher who is super at spelling, vocabulary, grammar and literature. She is never at loss of words to use in her speech as well as in her writing.
Her students will always be familiar with national and international affairs. She is a thoroughly experienced director of the yearbook. Her patient guidance throughout the ups and downs is greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Strauss

An excellent, marvelous, terrific, amazing and rare teacher. Her lessons are all spiced up with exceptional stories and jokes that give us all a good laugh. We all come out of her class with an abundance of knowledge in history and math, and she makes sure our "Brains Don't Rust." We'll remember throughout our lifetime all the Middos we learned on each and every chapter.
In the Financial Dept., she is absolutely one-of-a-kind. She is an extremely important asset to the eighth grade.

Mrs. Feldman

Mrs. Feldman is a very good Chumash and Parsha teacher. She is very patient and cares about every single girl. She helps us understand the importance of Tznius. She teaches us the Chumash and Rashis in a very fun and interesting way. She teaches us what the Rebbe says on the Parsha and lessons that apply to our day to day lives.

Morah Meizlish

A fabulous Yahadus, Navi, and Historia teacher who always is concerned about each individual student. She takes her time out to teach us how to live our lives according to Halacha and Chassidus.

She is a devoted teacher and a caring person

Mrs. Rubinstein

A fantastic science teacher who made us come to appreciate Hashem's complex world. She taught us to safeguard our bodies from harm, by keeping healthy, and watching out for danger signals. An experienced Math teacher, who with her vast stores of knowledge, is able to solve all problems!

Miss Wilhelm

Thank you Miss Wilhelm for your constant patience and dedication to teaching us math. We appreciate your persistence and unfailing tolerance.

Miss Backman

A remarkable teacher who always has superior ways to make her lessons exciting. She is tops at grammar, vocabulary and spelling. She certainly taught us to "rack our brains and elaborate" when we write. (It definitely shows.) Her stories she reads with expression galore, which leaves us all in a trance. We'll always remember to spell flower, F-L-O-W-E-R. She is truly a devoted teacher.

Mrs. Rosenbluh

She is a marvelous teacher who brings very interesting facts to our class. Her enthusiasm and determination really makes learning fun!

Morah Rivkin

An excellent Ivris teacher who's an expert in teaching each girl to learn to speak Hebrew at their own level. She is very patient with original projects and fun, she is able to teach us the material clearly

Mrs. Reichman

Her personal interest in every one of her students helps them achieve their full potential. Her cheerful attitude and interesting lessons make history not at all boring.

Mrs. Grunfeld

An incredible science teacher who has much knowledge to share. She has many different interesting ways of giving over the science in an easy and simple manner.

Her experiments help us comprehend the science in a way that we will remember it forever.

Mrs. Heller

Her distinct method of teaching Navi and Yahadus is appreciated immensely. The many Meforshim she brings in gives us a new insight on Navi.

Mrs. Wilhelm

We'd like to thank our wonderful teacher for her ardor and devotion in teaching us to understand and speak our language.

Miss Labkovsky

An awesome Chassidus teacher.
The Tanya that she teaches us is very interesting and her stories help us understand it.

By her teaching us, she enhances our knowledge in Chassidus.

Rabbi Wolf

A #1 administrator, who always cares about how the school runs. He's always there when we need him. Not only does he do what's expected of him, but "even more than that."

Thank you Rabbi Wolf for all your effort.

Secretaries

From chalk to erasers, from paper clips to paper – they had it. From bandaids to tylenol, they supplied it.
No one has more patience
then Zeesy, Chaya Leah, Dobbie, and
Mrs. Pewzner.

As I look back on the past eight years, I see how much Bais Rivkah Elementary did for me. When I entered first grade I remember being afraid of what lay ahead. Now when graduating eighth grade, I feel a bit apprehensive about entering high school. It's like a little child going to camp for the first time; it's not easy to say goodbye to her parents, but the new experiences make it all worthwhile.

In the years gone by, my teachers guided me as I made hachlatos, learned interesting subjects, and strengthened my hiskashrus with the Rebbe. I will always remember and carry these things with me for years to come. That's why even though saying goodbye is not easy; we're not really saying farewell at all.

Frumi Rosenfeld

When you go remember me
Don't push back the memory
Of hopes and dreams we always shared
Of tales we told, of games we dared
Remember me...
Remember how we'd climb the tree
In our imagination we'd run free
All the truths you made me see
Remember me...
In the book we paddled by
Like the birds we pretended to fly
We'd fantasize of queens and kings
And of mystical things
Remember me...
The time has come and we must go
But there is this you must know
Don't rush your memories please go slow
Remember me...

To Our Dear Niece & Cousin

Racheli

It is said that parents are given Ruach Hakodesh when they name their children and that each child bears the name that indicates the dynamics of their unique personality.

In your case, Racheli, your name means a sheep, specifically a female sheep. What an appropriate nomenclature for such a feminine young lady. Your name serves to accentuate your power as a young woman. The world is within your grasp and what you do with it can reflect positively on all womankind. Work hard to achieve all that you can as a person and as a young woman. Women are said to possess immense emotional strength. Use that fortitude to form a better future for your generation and for those that will follow. Show the world that just like the Rochel before you, you are poised for its challenges, and meet them with the emotional reserves only a woman possesses. In this way you will serve as an inspiration to the family you were born into and Bezeras Hashem to the family you will one day create.

All our love and best wishes

Uncle Sholom, Auntie Esther

Rochie

To a special girl we are proud to call our own,
Yesterday you were a baby and today you are fully grown.
The years flew by so quickly, it feels like only seconds,
But in reality a new path for you now beckons.
As you start this new part of your life,
We will give you some very good advice.
Derech Eretz and Emes are your ever lasting guides, and for this you should always strive.
Pursue these goals to achieve tremendous strides.
Your very special Midos will enable you to be the best you can,
And we will forever be beside you to always hold your hand.

May you continue to be a source of true Yiddishe and Chassidishe Nachas to the entire family. We are truly proud of you!!!!!

מלכי תחי' רייצעס, היקרה!

מתכבדים אנו ליתן לך סל מלא ברכות שתמשיכי בלימודיך ותעלי מעלה מעלה!

"פי' פתחה בחכמה ותורת חסד על לשונה"

את - יחד עם חברותייך - זכית ללמוד ולהתחנך במוסד הקדוש "בית רבקה", מוסד של הרבי, הנמצא בקירוב גשמי אליו, בד' אמותיו, בשכונת "קראון הייטס" - "כאן צוה ה' את הברכה" - אשר בו מחנכים, וכלשון הכתוב:

"פי' פתחה"- שלא להיות בכיווץ וצמצום, אלא להיות "פתחה", בהתרחבות והתפשטות.
אבל למה תהי' פתיחה זו?

"בחכמה" - לא ח"ו וח"ו "לפתח חטאת רובץ", פתיחה לחוץ, כי "כל כבודה בת מלך פנימה"; אלא הפתיחה היא אך ורק לענינים פנימיים, "פתחה בחכמה", בחכמה האמיתית של הנפש האלוקית, "לב חכם לימינו" - שזו היא הנפש האלוקית.

"ותורת חסד על לשונה" - שאתן שקועות ועסוקות כל-כך בתורת השם עד שתורת השם מקפת אתכן מכל הצדדים. כל "לשונה" חדור בתורת חסד, תורת השם, כולל ובמיוחד בענין שהזמן גרמא - לימוד תורת הגאולה.

"ותורת חסד" - לימוד התורה אינו רק בשביל עצמך וחברותייך, אלא "תורת חסד", להשמיע את התורה גם לאלו שלעת-עתה לא זכו עדיין ללמוד את תורת השם, כולל במיוחד בענין שהזמן גרמא - להכין את כל העולם כולו לקבל פני משיח צדקנו.

ובכל הנ"ל תעלי - יחד עם החברות שלך - מעלה מעלה, עד שתעמודנה הכן כולכן על גג ביהמ"ק, וניצוץ המשיח שבכן יכריז "ענווים הגיע זמן גאולתכם", ובמיוחד בשנת היובל, "גאולה תתנו לארץ", ונודה לך שיר חדש על גאולתנו ועל פדות נפשנו ככתוב (תהילים צ"ט - קאפיטל של הרבי) "יודו שמך גדול ונורא קדוש שמו", וכתיב (תהילים ק' - קאפיטל של הרבנית) "הודו לו ברכו שמו".

ואמר ביום ההוא הנה אלוקינו זה קוינו לו ויושיענו, הנה אדוננו מורנו ורבינו נשיא דורנו מלך המשיח נשמה בגוף מלך ביפיו תחזינה עיניך!

ונחתום בדברי הרבי: "הנה זה מלך המשיח בא"
ברכה והצלחה!

דודך ודודתך,

It is said that our name is an expression of who we really are; how our neshama responds to situations and others. This definition certainly is appropriate for my friend Sheina Schaeffer.

For "Sheina" as we all know, means pretty. To me Sheina is more than pretty – she is beautiful. Yet I have no idea what she looks like physically.

But close your eyes and feel what I see . . .

A phone call at the end of her busy day, asking if she can take me on any errands. That is the beauty of caring.

Warning me when a puddle is in front of me or when we are about to cross a big curb. That is the loveliness of love.

Coming across the street to help me find something I have dropped on the floor or to deliver some of her mama's yummy pea soup. That kind of compassion is gorgeous.

So on your graduation, Sheina, thank you for bringing so much beauty into my life and living up to your name by being such a good example for this new Baal T'shuva.

Gratefully,

Lieba Schwartz

We add everything up at the end of the year
A Cheshbon Hanefesh is made
Are we truly ready?
Have we completed the 8th grade?

"Yes!" we say with satisfaction —
We have reached the pinnacle of success
And as a token,
This yearbook we now possess.

A yearbook is hard to produce
A lot of work we did invest.
Thank you for giving ads —
Now our yearbooks is the best!
