THE BIALYSTOKER SYNAGOGUE
A SHORT HISTORY

During its 100 years, the Bialystoker Synagogue has continuously served the religious, educational, charitable and social needs of the Jewish residents of the Lower East Side. Many changes have taken place both in the community and the congregation since the Bialystoker's inception a century ago.

In 1878, Bialystoker landsmen organized the Chevrah Anshei Chesed of Bialystok. It was located in a first floor loft at 101 Hester Street. Later, the Chevrah bought a house at 82 Orchard Street and converted it into a small synagogue.

Another group of Bialystok landsmen organized the Adas Yeshurun Congregation in 1893. They were located on Grand Street.

As more Jews from Bialystok and its environs came to the United States both chevras became too small to accomodate the newcomers. They were now in the market for larger quarters. At that time, the Methodist church at 7-11 Willett Street came up for sale.

In May 1905, the Anshei Chesed Congregation bought the building and the surrounding land for $150,000 cash, a considerable amount in those days. On August 3, 1905, upon the payment of $5,000 title, the building was taken. To raise the $100,000 balance in cash, as per contract, several important undertakings were started.

First, the land around the building was sold for $40,000.

Second, the Chevrah Adas Yeshurun was invited to join. After several meetings, the mergers of the two chevras took place with the proviso that the name of the merged congregation become Beth Hakneses Anshei Bialystok.

Third, after many refusals by banks, the Bialystoker was issued a $43,000 mortgage from the Metropolitan Savings Bank. This was due to the efforts of Jay Walkenberg, a member of the shul.

Fourth, the members also lent several thousands of dollars to the synagogue.

And, finally, the small shul was sold for $14,000.

The proceeds of all these transactions enabled the congregation to pay off the $100,000 debt and to make needed repairs.

On Septeber 3, 1905, all necessary changes had been completed. The building became a Beis Hamikdash M'at (a holy sanctuary). Religious services began. An entire week was set aside for a Chanukas Ha'bayis celebration. Thousands came daily to participate in the ceremonies which were headed by famous rabbis, orators and cantors.

The mortgage on the shul was slowly reduced during the years and was finally eliminated in the year 1950. The Bialystoker was then under the aegis of Rabbi Mitchel S. Eskolsky with Saul Price as president.

Many renovations have been made. The dome-like ceiling of the synagogue is painted in azure dotted with gold stars. The Hebrew months and their zodiac symbols are depicted surrounding this artifical sky.

Scenes of Israeli holy places are painted on the walls in the women's section.

Stained glass windows, intricate and simple, put visitors and worshippers in awe.

The Sisterhood has modernized the kitchen.

The portable Mechi'tsah in the Beis Hamedrash allows congregants to have affairs in the shul.

The Men's Club has cleaned up the old Talmud Torah for Kiddush use.

People gaze at the intricately carved wooden panels adorning the Aron Ha'kodesh. The three crowns (the Keter Torah, Keter Ke'hunah, and Keter Malchut) which adorn the top of tha ark were imported from Europe circa 1905-06.

The edifice that houses the synagogue was built in 1826. According to Prof. Gerard R. Wolfe of New York University, an authority on East Side synagogues, this structure was probably the first house of worship in the United States to be erected of big stones.

In 1972 both the state of New York and the Federal Government designated the Bialystoker Synagogue a landmark.

In 1975 the Bialystoker installed air-conditioning for the comfort of its worshippers.

In 1978 the Sineer Synagogue (homeless via a fire-bombing) merged with the Bialystoker.

During our century, the Bialystoker Synagogue has amassed an enviable record of service to the Jewish community. We have attained a lofty position of leadership and credit among members notable people.

We look forward to the second century with confidence. Our aim is to serve the Jews of this community with the same zeal and devotion of the early organizers and builders.

The Hundredth Anniversary. It is quickly, if blissfully uttered. Rapidly it glides off your tongue, touches momentarily lip and teeth, and the brief phrase is gone. But one hundred years, by any standard or measure, is a long, long time.

What stands illuminated in the glow of a centennial celebration are not just the highlights of the past century. This anniversary underscores the difficult beginning, the hopes and the struggles, the expanding activity, the ability to endure the vicissitudes of one hundred long years in an era undergoing change. This, in a time when, indeed, the whole maelstrom of Jewish life is undergoing a complete transition. Yet, not only have we survived, but we are flourishing in the proud Lower East Side, the cradle of Jewish life in New York.

A century represents thousands of lifetimes. This event is crowded and alive with the men and the women of countless families who were not content merely to come and enjoy the bounty of America. They possessed the foresight and the desire to create, to extend the past into the future.

Over a hundred years ago, Torah had hardly a place on these shores. It was a nostalgic memory, which only Europe seemed able to nourish. Synagogues were few in New York. It was this barrenness which provided the challenge. As always, our people hungered for their heritage.

We are mindful, at this anniversary, of the founders of this synagogue and acknowledge their deeds with thanksgiving. This celebration has personal validity and contemporary significance for we are not only the inheritors of the past. We have enriched it with renewal. We are not content nor did we remain passive beneficiaries. We, too, in our time, were confronted with chaos and answered with creation.

The entire Jewish concept of the community finds its origin, as well as its vitality in the synagogue. The spirit of holiness, declared the Rabbis, descends only in the presence of the group, and therefore none of the prayers associated with the sanctification of the name of G-d may be recited in the absence of a group. Indeed, according to traditon, G-d's name is sanctified only through community association.

Whenever a Jew joins his fellow Jews in synagogue worship, he affirms the peoplehood of Israel and demonstrates the unity that transforms us from a mere collection of individuals into an integrated community. The concept of tzibur expresses itself only in reference to synagogue worship. We take pride that we have been a tzibur; that in one hundred years we have not missed a Borchu, or a Kedusha; that in all changes and upheavels we have held on high the torch of holiness and added brightness to its flame. Today, the Bialystoker Synagogue stands as a majestic tribute to our predecessors and as a dedication to their descendants.

I invoke upon the officers, members, friends and supporters of our synagogue the blessing of Moses when he looked upon the completed Mishkan, "May it be the will of G-d that his Schechinah rest upon the work of your hands."

Trust in G-d with your whole heart, and do not lean upon your own understanding.

In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths aright.

GAON'S MESSAGE

(loose translation)

I am very happy that the Bialystoker Synagogue has had the privilege to become a place of prayer and a place of Torah for the past 100 years.

To the honored, endearing men:
To the shul which at all times has had esteemed rabbis, officers, and gabboim who fear Hashem, Blessed Be He:

On this occasion, I give the blessing that the Bialystoker Synagogue be worthy to exist until the coming of the Messiah.

Blessings to my close friend, the rabbi, the gaon, the esteemed Yitzchak Aharon Singer and to the president, the very honored, "mechutan" Reb Yitzchok Menachem Greher sh'lita. They should serve in holiness, with Rabbi Singer as rabbi and Reb Yitzchok Menachem as president until the coming of the Messiah.

With the will of Hashem, this synagogue should be implanted in Eretz Yisroel, along with all worthy, esteemed synagogues.

I affix my signature on this 29th day of Tishrey, the year 5739.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

At this 100th Anniversary of the Bialystoker Synagogue all of us can look back with pride on its accomplishments.

Our services are well attended and this is due to our beloved Rabbi Singer who attracts Hasidim and Misnagdim and those who are neutral.

Our rabbi conducts classes in Talmud and Mishnayos and these are very enjoyable and educational. We also have classes every Saturday afternoon led by Rabbi Pernikoff, Charles Korn and Nathan Rosner. The attendance at the classes keep increasing regularly. We even have women attending.

Our synagogue has established a charity fund and thousands of dollars are given to people in need. And this is done in a dignified manner.

We also have a Junior Congregation, under the leadership of Mareleyn Schneider and Paul Plotzker, which meets every Saturday morning. Many children from the neighborhood take part in this activity. Interesting programs are prepared by our capable leaders and an enjoyable time is had by all the children.

I want to thank our Dinner Committee for the remarkable job that they have done to make this affair the success that it is. I want to especially thank Essie and Mareleyn Schneider for the many hours of work that they gave us to make our journal as beautiful as it is. I can name many more people who have served this synagogue during my term of office, but for fear that I might forget to mention someone who has served, I'll just thank all of you who have cooperated so nobly with me and these people know who they are.

I am very proud of having served you as president for the last six years. I hope I have merited the honor you have given me.

It is my wish that our synagogue will continue the good work that it is doing and will retain its reputation as one of the leading houses of worship in the city. May we all celebrate many simchas in our synagogue.

* HONORARY PRESIDENTS

BIALYSTOKER WILL CELEBRATE BURNING OF ITS MORTGAGE

The Bialystoker Synagogue, 7-9-11 Willett St., one of the outstanding congregations of the lower East Side, will celebrate the burning of its mortgage tomorrow night with a concert in the main auditorium.

Judge Saul Price, president of the congregation, will serve as chairman of the evening's festivities, which will begin at 7:30 P. M. More than 1,000 persons are expected to attend. Rabbi Mitchel S. Eskolsky, who has been spiritual leader of the congregation for the past 20 years, will greet the guests.

The world-famous Cantor Yakov Goldstein, recently arrived from London, England, will be the guest artist at the concert. He will be accompanied by Mayer Machtenberg and his choir.

The Bialystoker Synagogue purchased its present building in 1905 from the First Methodist Church of New York. The mortgage on the building at that time was $105,000. Over the years, payments gradually reduced the size of the mortgage until it stood at $5,000 this past summer. Under the leadership of Judge Price, trustees, friends and patrons of the Synagogue have since joined in raising the final sum necessary to liquidate the mortgage, leaving the Synagogue building and its adjoining Talmud Torah building free from the burden of debt.

The officers and trustees of the Bialystoker Synagogue who were elected last week to serve the congregation for the coming yeare are President, Judge Saul Price; vice presidents, Nathan Hershkowitz, Paul Hershkowitz, Benjamin Silver and Irving Sobel; financial secretary, Louis Davis; treasurer, Charles Glasser; recording secretary, Benjamin Bomrind; chairman of the education board, Max S. Horowitz.

Jack Goldstein is chairman of the Board of Trustees. Other trustees are: Assemblyman Leonard Farbstein, Sidney Aretsky, Benjamin Benson, Isidore Berger, Moe Goodheart, Jacob Greenberg, Louis Handweiler, Philip Jablon, Sam Jacobson, Dr. Arnold Kagan, Bernard Kansler, Dr. Morris Kaplan and Max D. SISTERHOOD MESSAGE

I deem it an honor and pleasure to be able to greet you at such an auspicious occasion. It is a once in a lifetime happening; what a joy it is.

The officers and members of the Sisterhood are indeed proud to celebrate with all our friends and neighbors the 100th anniversary of the founding of our synagogue.

We want to pay tribute to the well deserved roster of honorees, to all the dedicated and hardworking men who have shared in our cause, to our youth and the youth to come, and to the ladies in the synagogue.

We rejoice in the knowledge that our existence and continuity depend upon the reliable aid from all the above.

We, like the early Bialystokers, are the leaders, founders and builders of the future. At the ripe age of 100 years, we have reached our goal of making this shul the most beautiful house of worship in our Jewish community. May we continue to improve on the beauty and may all our dreams come true through our youth.

We hope the community takes its opportunity to use the many services we offer; may the community continue to adequately support the Bialystoker Synagogue.

Our deeply felt appreciation goes to our worthy Rabbi Irving Singer for his service and leadership. May he be blessed with good health and nachas for many, many years to come.

Let us ALL join together in sharing this happy occasion.

MEN'S CLUB MESSAGE

There are very few occasions that have such a tremendous impact as the one we are now celebrating.

Our Men's Club members have made themselves seen and heard in all the plans for the success of our centennial banquet. This expression of friendship in carrying out an ambitious program makes the job of heading this group one that I accept with pride.

The harmony that exists among the members and the formulation of new plans for future functions (all of a social nature) have made our Men's Club a continued social asset to our Synagogue.

We can all take a bow for sharing in the pleasant times we have had together and for those to come.

Please accept my thanks. This has been the frosting on the cake of life.

Agreement

This is an agreement between the Bialystoker Synagoue and Cantor Al Horenstein signed in 1906 (July 14).

The contract was for one year. The total expenditure was $3,000 with $1,200 for the cantor and $1,800 for a choir and leader. The money was paid in several installments. The cantor was to officiate on all holidays and every fourth Shabbos. The other three Shabbosim he was to daven Friday nights. On Chanukah, the cantor performed on one night. He attended the funerals of members and made a Cha'zakah.

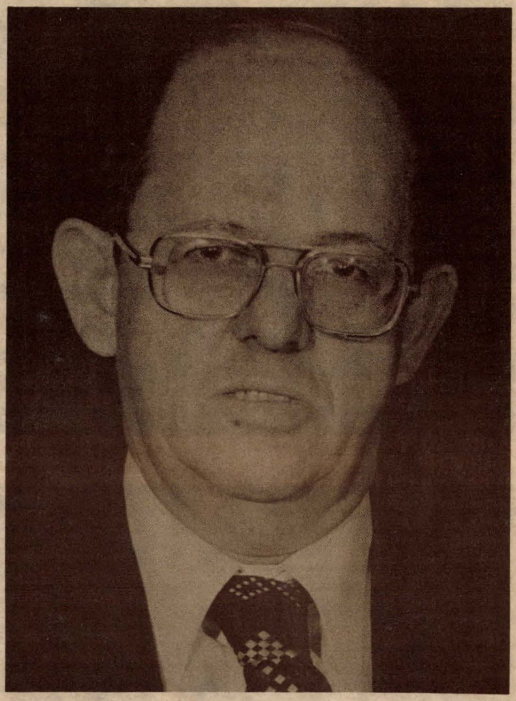

The following is a translation of a contract between the Bialystoker Synagogue and the sexton Mr. Manes Landesman. The agreement is for the year beginning January 1, 1913.

AGREEMENT

This agreement between the Bialystoker Synagoue and Mr. Manes Landesman has the following conditions:
1. Mr. Landesman is engaged as sexton for one year from January 1, 1913 to January 14, 1914. He is to receive no salary. He will have an income as follows:
a. The sexton when he collects donations for the synagogue shall receive 25 percent; this applies only to worshippers who are not members. From members' donations his share is only 5 percent.
b. Yarzeit payments from non-members belong 50 percent to the sexton ... if the payments are not pledges.
c. Members' yarzeit payments belong fully to the sexton.
d. Ladies' yarzeit payments belong fully to the sexton.
2. From every wedding in the synagogue the sexton is to receive one dollar.
3. All pledges made on the Bimah belong to the sexton when so specified.
4. Income for Siyum Bichorim belong fully to the sexton.
5. For a funeral (G-d forbid) up to a five-year-old, he receives one dollar; above that age his fee is two dollars. He is also entitled to all monies given to him in the sysnagogue provided this is given to him directly and legitimately.
6. The duties of the sexton follow:
a. He must attend to the cleanliness of the synagogue in every manner.
b. He must see to it that the janitor obeys all his orders regarding the proper upkeep of the synagogue.
c. He must give notice (of debts) to all members when the secretary requests the above.
d. He must be present in the synagogue and Beth Hamedrash at services and meetings.
e. On the Bimah, his duty is to call men up to the Torah and make M'shaberachs. In case of a member's death (G-d forbid), he must be available to attend properly as needed.
7. Two months before the agreement expires each side is to notify the other their intention in regard to the new term.
8. The sexton Mr. Landesman is to deposit $1,700 dollars with the sysnagogue as security. He has no claim to interest payments.
9. The security money is to stay with the synagogue until the end of his term in office.
10. He must guard the K'lay Kodesh and all other assets of the synagogue. He is responsible for the same and the security is surety for any losses. He must let no one use the synagogue or Beth Hamedrash for any occasion without permission from the president.
11. He must implement all presidential instructions which benefit the sysnagogue.

RITUAL DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

This 100th Anniversary Dinner celebrates an event that represents a milestone in the history of the Bialystoker Synagogue and the entire Jewish community.

We proudly mark the anniversary this year of one hundred years of glorious service to our members and our fellow Jews. The Bialystoker Synagogue has played a significant role in the lives of the Jews of the Lower East Side. In the 100 years of our history, we have proven leadership to our yeshivos, leadership in our work for Israel, leadership for the sick and needy in our community, and leadership for all worthwhile causes in Jewish life.

Having reached the 100th year, we are now on a new plateau of maturity and sophistication. We pray that the synagogue will continue to inspire with reverence for G-d and his Torah those who come here.

We have been fortunate indeed and take great pride in having as our spiritual leader Rabbi Yitzchok Singer who is a source of inspiration to us all.

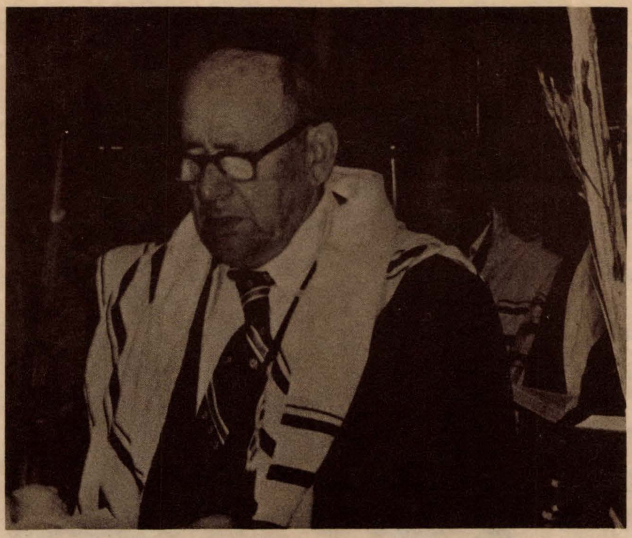

We pay tribute to our distinguished honorees this evening. We are most fortunate to have an unusually competent and loyal group of men and women who work tirelessly to further the sacred work of the synagogue.

May the Almighty bless us with the will and the means to continue our work and see the Bialystoker Synagogue grow from strength to strength!

STATE OF NEW YORK

In Assembly

ALBANY

Resolution No. 125
February 28, 1978

by Mr. Stein

...ssembly resolution congratulating Bialystoker Synagogue located on the Lower East Side of Manhattan on the occasion of its One Hundredth Anniversary to be celebrated this year.

Whereas, Jews have been a presence in the City of New York in celebrating its One Hundredth Anniversary during this calendar year of nineteen hundred seventy-eight, the festivities of which will culminate at a dinner to be held on Saturday, December second, nineteen hundred seventy-eight commemorating this centennial year; and

Whereas, This Synagogue is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is the oldest and largest synagogue on Manhattan's Lower East Side; and

Whereas, The spiritual and temporal affairs of the Congregation, which worships in this much venerated House of G-D, are presently committed to the care and guidance of Rabbi Irving Singer and the Congregation's President, Mr. Irving Grober; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Legislative Body pauses in its deliberations and publicly commemorates the clergy, congregation and officers of Bialystoker Synagogue on the occasion of its One Hundredth Anniversary to be celebrated during this calendar year of nineteen hundred seventy-eight and wishes each and every one of them continued well-being and success in all undertakings, and be it further

Resolved, That this Legislative Body joyously, albeit vicariously, anticipates that great day of December second, nineteen hundred seventy-eight when this venerable Synagogue, dedicated to the service of G-D, will be triumphantly saluted at a commemoration dinner, and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Bialystoker Synagogue, to Rabbi Irving Singer and to the President of the Congregation, Mr. Irving Grober

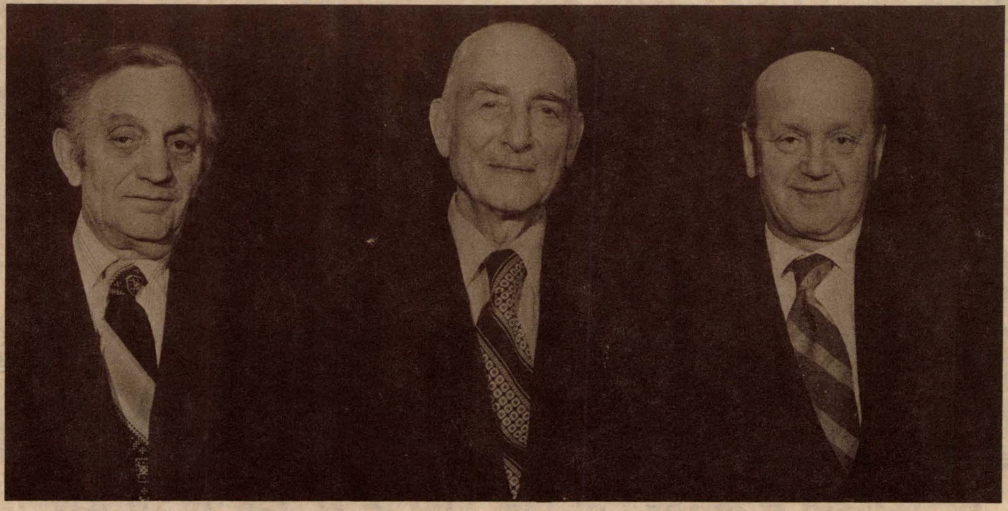

By order of the Assembly,
Catherine A. Carey, Clerk

In sacred memory of Dr. David P. German AND with best wishes to Rabbi & Mrs. Y. Singer and the Bialystoker Synagogue MR. & MRS. B. BLUMENTHAL

The Bialystoker Synagogue has two worshippers who were born in Bialystok. One, Avraham Simcha Smus, is close to 90 years old. The other, Irving Pearl, has been with the shul since 1920 when he arrived on these shores.

Mr. Pearl performs many tasks for the shul. Among them are: davening, reading the Torah on Mondays, Thursdays and the Shalosh R'galim; reciting the Shir Ha'shirim, Megilas Esther and Kohelet on their respective days; lamenting Kinos; and being our ba'al shachris on the Yamim Noraim. He also shovels paths in the snow for the convenience of others.

Mordechair Yosef Ginsburg came to the United States in 1914 from Bialystok. His first and only shul in the new land was our synagogue. He not only attended services, but became an active participant in its affairs. For over 40 years, Mr. Ginsburg was gabbai and ba'al musaf on the Yamim Noraim.

Out of love, he embellished our Aron Kodesh with a Paroches whenever the shul needed one. This voluntary contribution has been continued by his children — the Ginsburgs, Marcuses and Rosses.

EAST SIDE NEWS

Bialystoker Synagogue Conducts Youth Sabbath

The Bialystoker Synagogue, one of the leading orthodox congregations of the Lower East Side located at 7-9-11 Willett Street, will dedicate Saturday, June 8, as Youth Sabbath in honor of the completion of another year of activity by its Junior Congregation, it was announced today by Rabbi Mitchel S. Eskolsky, spiritual leader of the congregation.

The entire service, including the order of worship and the reading of the portion of the week from the Holy Scroll of the Torah, will be led by the intermediate and junior worshipers of the congregation.

The Junior congregation is sponsored throughout the school year by Nathan Appelbaum in memory of Taube Appelbaum and is under the direction of Yitchak Heimowitz.

The youthful participants in the service will be Arthur Miller, Sidney Hirth, Mosheh Snow, Lester Arfe and Chaim Victor Snow. Those who will join in the reading of the Torah include Sender Hirth, Arthur Miller, Mosheh Snow, Byron Zabusky, and Judah Deutsch.

Rabbi Eskolsky will deliver a sermon especially dedicated to the youth of the community.

The Samuel Dickstein Lodge of the B'nai B'rith will distribute prizes, through the offices of Max D. Heimowitz, to six youngsters of the Junior Congregation who have distinguished themselves as leaders of religious services as well as regular attendance at the synagogue services.

The following have been chosen to receive the B'nai B'rith prizes: David Heimowitz, Yitzchak Berger, Yosef Korn, Deborah Snow, Morty Schneider and Reuben Epstein.

Bialystoker Synagogue Plans to Mark Jewish Tercentenary May 1

The Bialystoker Synagogue, 7-9-11 Willett Street, one of the oldest orthodox congregations located on the Lower East Side, will celebrate the 300th Anniversary of Jewish settlement in the United States on Sunday, May 1, at 7:30 P.M. Another occasion which the synagogue will observe is the 50th Jubilee of its present building, which was purchased on May 3, 1905.

The guest speaker of the evening's program will be Supreme Court Justice Edgar J. Nathan, Jr., president of the Spanish and Portuguese Synagogue, the first Jewish congregation organized in the United States. Judge Nathan is a descendant of one of the first twenty-three Jews who landed at Battery Park 300 years ago after having left Brazil.

The musical program, which will feature 300 years of Jewish liturgical composition, will be presented by Cantor David Kusevitsky, who will offer a broad range of his rich repertoire.

CANTOR DAVID KUSEVITSKY

RABBI MITCHEL S. ESKOLSKY

THE JEW

Author unknown

You ask me to impart my opinion,
You ask me to convey to you,
From an honest heart and an honest mind,
What I think of a Jew.
I'll do the same with pleasure,
And rack my mind to trace
The characteristics I have found
In the people of that race.

I have played with him in childhood,
I have seen him in his youth,
I have stood by him in manhood
And I speak none but the truth,
He was upright, fair and honest,
He was good and kind and true,
And I think of him quite often
My friend who is a Jew.

The Jew has many virtues
And vices like us all,
He's good and bad, like you and me,
Like us he's apt to fall,
And while he isn't better,
I must impress on you
He has stood life's test with the very best,
This man they call a Jew.

He has felt the tyrant's cruel hand,
In centuries passed away.
He has seen the star of justice
Fall and crumble and decay,
He has seen his people's blood flow
As intolerance 'round him grew,
But he struggled on to gain his own,
This man they call a Jew.

He was driven without reason
From the land he would call home
He has suffered in his travels
As an exile forced to roam,
He has wandered on with hoping heart
To every land he knew,
And proved his worth o'er God's green earth.
This man they call a Jew.

When my heart was filled with sorrow,
And my head was in a whirl,
I often went into his home
To teach his boy or girl,
And if I showed distress while there,
I swear to all it's true,
I often heard "God bless you"
From this little childish Jew.

He has felt his mother's fond caress,
And his manly dad's embrace,
And if he's guided by their words,
He'll never meet disgrace,
For they guide their offspring rightly,
And they're kind to others too,
And I'm always proud to know him
This man they call the Jew.

He never made a distinction
When a cry for help was heard,
But sent a contribution
And gave a kindly word,
In any clime beneath the sun
No man has been more true,
Then this wandering son of Israel,
This man they call a Jew.

When life's great play is ended,
And all things shall pass away,
When the great Judge of the Universe
Asks how each has spent life's day,
He'll hold his own in judgment,
As all good men shall do.
And enjoy eternal blessings,
This man they call a Jew.

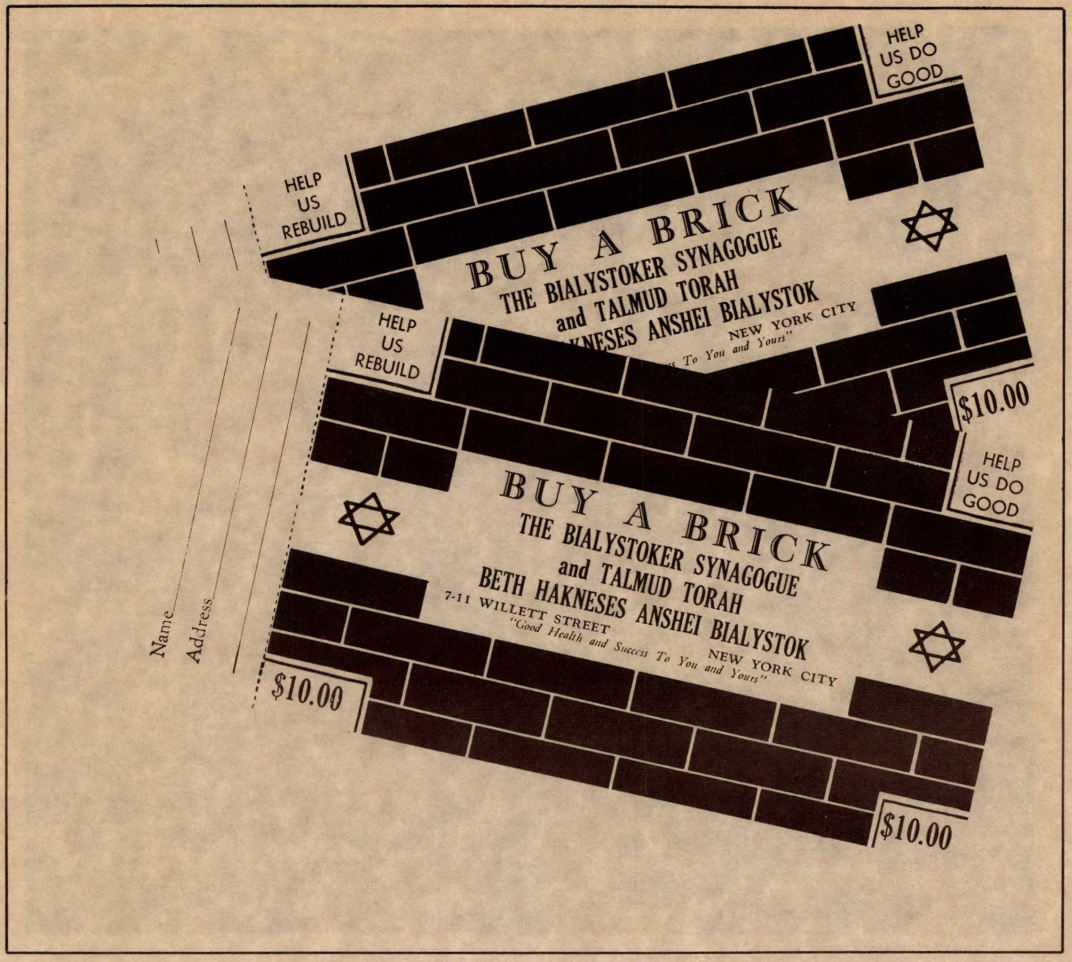

So after all we're human,
We're good and bad at best,
And if we wipe out our own faults,
And not condemn the rest,
We'll feel by far more happy,
And this means me and you,
Let us go our way each blessed day,
And not condemn the Jew.

It was the night before "P*"
A pleasant dream came to me.
It was the prophet's dream —
"Peace on Earth" was its theme.
Side by side on the grass lay
A wolf and lamb, busy at play.
Peaceful and serene —
It was an idyllic scene.
Amazed at this unnatural sight.
Another vision came to light.
A long sharp sword — in midair —
Was turning into a ploughing shear.

I was astounded and mystified,
Though it was once prophesied.
Then, behold, a man dressed royally came
And gently said — Elijah is my name.
The explanation to your dream is clear.
The Messianic days are here.
When there is peace above in Heaven —
There is also peace on Earth — good will to men.

My son, preserve the commandments of your father,
and do not foresake the teaching of your mother.
Bind them continually in your heart,
tie them around your throat.
When you are walking, it shall lead you,
when you lie down, it shall watch over you;
and when you awake, it shall be the first to address you.
For the commandment is a shining lamp,
and teaching is a beam of light, and the course of life life lies within the admonitions of education.

Historic Moment Celebrated

A 750-year-old Menorah from Amsterdam, Holland, was presented to the Bialystoker Congregation, 7-11 Willett Street, during the observance of the 75th anniversary of the famous synagogue, of which Rabbi Mitchel S. Eskolsky, chairman of the Greater New York Council of Mizrachi, is spiritual leader. Shown examining the unique gift are left to right: Abraham Ornstein, who observed his 100th birthday with an appearance at the synagogue which he served as cantor from its dedication in 1905; Rabbi Eskolsky and Charles P. Korn, president of the congregation. Donor of the priceless gift insisted on anonymity.

SOME BIALISTOKER SYNAGOGUE REMINISCENCES

BY: Dr. Henry M. Gould

Dear Mr. Lubin:

In accordance with your request, I shall record some of my cherished associations with the Bialistoker Synagogue. In December 1904, my Bar Mitzvah was celebrated in the Schul on Orchard Street. In December 1915, my wife and I were married in the Bialistoker Synagogue, which by that time, was in its present location on Willett Street. Several years later, while I was a teacher at Seward Park Junior High School, then located on Hester and Essex Streets, one of my students was a fine lad named Mitchell Eskolsky, whose father was the Rabbi of the Bialistoker Synagogue, and who later followed his father's calling. When the father of Rabbi Mitchell Eskolsky passed away, the younger Eskolsky, who was then occupying an out-of-town rabbinical post, accepted a call from the Bialistoker Synagogue to succeed his revered father.

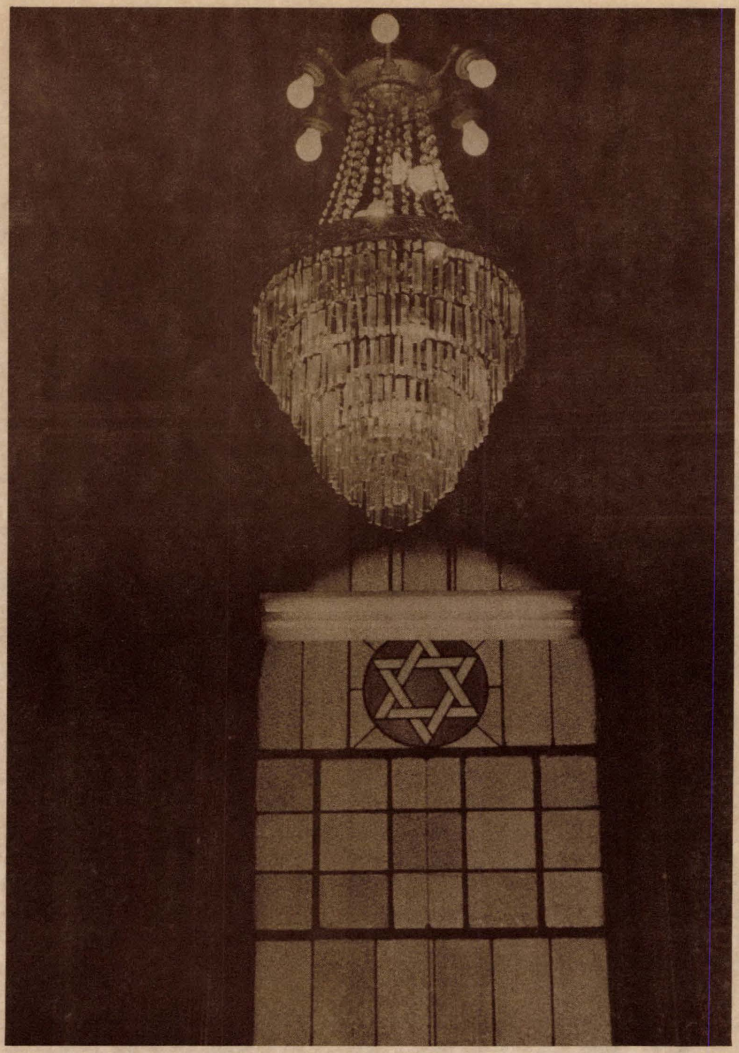

In 1928, when I was a young elementary school principal, the Synagogue celebrated its 50th anniversary with a dinner at the then Broadway Central Hotel. My uncle, Aaron Boyarsky, several times president of the congregation, who was toastmaster, honored me by calling on me to make some remarks.

Space does not permit mentioning all my associationswith the Synagogue. However, one important one occurred early in 1953, when I was principal of Winthrop Junior High School. I received a phone call from Rabbi Mitchell Eskolsky, who asked me to become chairman of a Committee to raise the funds necessary to pay off the then existing mortgage on the Synagogue. Our efforts were successful, and I shall never forget the thrill of being called to the center of the Synagogue during its 75th anniversary celebration on May 3, 1953, to participate in the burning of the mortgage.

It is a pleasure for me to felicitate the members who are carrying on the traditions of the Synagogue, and are now privileged to observe its 100th anniversary.

My grandfather, my father and my uncles came from Bialistok, helped build up the congregation, were loyal supporters throughout their lifetime and now lie at eternal rest in Section One, Plot 100, on Washington Cemetery, the first burial grounds of the society.

I have made two visits to Israel. As a result, I regard the original cemetery plot of the Bialistoker Synagogue as comparable to the oldest cemetery in Jerusalem, and the Bialistoker Synagogue itself as a part of "Israel in America".

In honor of the inspired leadership of Rabbi and Rebbetzin Singer...
In honor of our esteemed cousins Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lippman...
In honor of the beautiful and hallowed tradition of the Bialystoker Shul itself...

Scrolls, numerous congregations have been unable to conduct proper services. This new project will now enable these small congregations, many of them in new and developing areas of Jewish population, to conduct regular services.

The project calls for assembling a "pool" of Torahs which will then be loaned by the Union to the smaller congregations until such time as they can afford to purchase their own Torah. The Torahs will remain the property of the Union to be distributed only on a loan basis.

The campaign was initiated at the Bialystoker Synagogue, 7 Willett St., one of the oldest congregations on the East Side. Scrolls presented by Rabbi Mitchell Eskolsky and Judge Saul Price, president of the congregation, were received by Max J. Etra and Rabbi Irwin Gordon, UOJCA president and director, respectively.

The first recipient of a Torah was the synagogue in Geneva, New York. Numerous other applications are now being processed.

דעם אמת געזאָגט איז די שול אליין נאָך ניט קיין 75 יאָר אַלט. דעם גרוי־סען בנין אויף 7־11 ווילעם סטריט האָט מען אָפּגעקויפט אין 1905, און ערשט דערנאָך, מיט קאַרגע פופציג יאָר צוריק, איז געשאַפען געוואָרען די קהילה וואָס טראָגט דעם נאָמען „בית הכנסת אנשי ביאַליסטאָק". אָבער דער אָנהויב פון דער דאָזיגער קהילה איז געשאַפען געוואָרען טאַקע מיט גאַנצע 75 יאָר צוריק.

אין 1878 האָט זיך אין ניו יאָרק גע־גרינדעט אַן אָרגאַניזאַציע פון ביאַליס־טאָקער לאַנדסלייט מיט'ן נאָמען „ביאַ־ליסטאָק אנשי חסר" און מיט אַן איי־גענער שול אָרער שטיבל אויף 82 אָר־טשאַרד סטריט. מיט צוויי יאָר שפּע־טער, הגם קיין סך ביאַליסטאָקער אי־דען זיינען נאָך דאָ ניט געווען, האָט מען דאָ געשאַפען אַ צווייטע אָרגאַני־זאַציע מיט'ן נאָמען „ביאַליסטאָקער עדת ישורון."

ערשט מיט 25 יאָר שפּעטער האָבען די צוויי זיך פאַראייניגט. דענסטמאָל איז אין ניו יאָרק שוין געווען גאָר אַ גרויסער אידישער ישוב, און צווישען זיי אַ סך ביאַליסטאָקער לאַנדסלייט. איז די אַלטע שול אויף אָרטשאַרד סטריט געוואָרען גאַנץ ענג, און מ'האָט באַשלאָסען צו קויפען אַן אייגענע און גרעסערע געביידע.

דאָס איז געווען פונקט אין דער צייט ווען די קריסטען האָבען אָנגעהויבען זיך אַרויסציען אין מאַסען פון דער איסט סאַיד. און אַ סך פון זייערע קיר־כען זיינען געבליבען ליידיג. איינע פון די דאָזיגע ליידיגע קירכען איז געווען די אַריסטאָקראַטישע „פוירסט מעטאָ־דיסט טשוירטש" אויף ווילעט סטריט. און יענע גרויסע געביידע האָבען די ביאַליסטאָקער אידען באַשלאָסען אָפּ־צוקויפען און זי מאַכען פאַר זייער שול.

דאָס איז ניט געווען אַזאַ לייכטער ענין. מ'האָט געדאַרפט האָבען אַ סומע פון 67,500 דאָלאַר. און אין יענע צייטען איז דאָס געווען גאָר, גאָר אַ פיינע מטבע. אָבער דאָס האָט אידען קיינ־מאָל ניט צוריקגעהאַלטען פאַר זייער קהל'שע הצטרכות'ן. האָט מען ווי ס'איז צונויפגענומען עטליכע טויזענט דאָלאַר, און מיט'ן איבעריגען האָט מען זיך פאַרלאָזט אויף ישועת ה'. מ'האָט גענומען אַ מאָרגעדזש.

דעם קומענדיגען זונטאָג וועט די שול פייערען איר 75־יאָריגען יובל. און זי האָט גאָר אַ סך וואָס צו פייערען. די שול איז באמת אַן אינסטיטוציע. אַרום איר זיינען אויסגעוואַקסען אַ ריי וויכ־טיגע אינסטיטוציעס פון די ביאַליס־טאָקער אידען."

ווען מ'גייט היינטיגע צייטען באַזו־כען אָרער זיך באַקענען מיט אַן על־טער אידישער אינסטיטוציע אויף דער איסט סאַיד טוט מען עס מיט אַ צי־טערדיגען געפיל. די איסט סאַיד אונ־זערע איז דאָך ניט וואָס ס'איז געווען. אַ סך פון אונזערע באַרימטע אידישע אינסטיטוציעס זיינען פון דאָרט אוועק. אַנדערע זיינען פאַרשוואונדען געוואָרן. איז עס דערפאַר געווען אַן אמת פריי־דיגע איבעראַשונג צו הערען פון הרב מיכאל שמעון איסקאָלסקי, דער גייסטיגער מנהיג פון דער ביאַליסטאָ־קער שול, אַז דאָס אידיש לעבען אויף דער איסט סאַיד „הויבט אָן אויפשטיין תחית המתים." אין די לעצטע עטלי־כע יאָר, זינט מ'האָט דאָרט אויפגע־בויט אַ ריי נייע גרויסע אַפּאַרטמענט הייזער, איז געוואָרען צוריק אַ לעבען אויף דער אידישער גאַס. און הרב איס־קאָלסקי רעדט מיט אויסערגעווייגלי־כער באַגייסטערונג וועגען דעם טיפ איד וואָס קומט איצט צוריק אויף דער איסט סאַיד. דאָס זיינען מערסטענס אַמעריקאַנער געבאָרענע, צווישען זיי אַ סך פּראָפעסיאָנאַלען. און זיי זיינען גאָר אַ וויכטיגער אידישער כח.

הרב איסקאָלסקי אַליין איז איינער פון שענסטען טיפּ רבנים וואָס מיר האָבען אין אַמעריקע. געבאָרען און דערצויגען אין אַמעריקע, שטעלט ער מיט זיך פאָר דעם פיינסטען סינטעז פון אַמעריקאַניזם און טראַדיציאָנעל־נאַציאָנאַלען אידענטום. ער איז אַ מוסמך פון ישיבת רבי יצחק אלחנן און אַ גראַדואירטער פון צוויי אַמעריקאַ־נער קאָלעדזשעס מיט'ן טיטל „דאָק־טאָר יוריספּרודענץ."

הרב איסקאָלסקי איז באַזונדערס שטאַלץ מיט דער שול. ער איז דאָרט געוואָרען בר מצוה, און איז שוין דער צווייטער דור וואָס פאַרנעמט דעם כסא הרבנות דאָרט. פאַר אים איז זיין פאָ־טער, הרב יעקב איסקאָלסקי זצ"ל, גע־ווען רב פון דער שול פון 1918 ביז ער איז נפטר געוואָרען אין 1931. פון דענסטמאָל אָן פאַרנעמט דער זון דעם כסא הרבנות.

ווי איך האָב דערציילט פריער, האָט מען ביים אָפּקויפען די שול־געביידע אין 1905 גענומען אויף זיך אַ שווע־רען עול. דער דאָזיגער מאָרגעדזש־יאָך איז געלעגען אויף דער קהילה אַ מיהך פון פערציג יאָר. מ'האָט אים פאַר דער צייט אַביסעל פאַרלייכטערט, אָבער ער איז געווען אַ יאָך.

אין די לעצטע צען יאָר איז מען ענדליך פטור געוואָרען פונ'ם מאָר־געדזש. און פאַר דעם קומט הויפּטזעכ־ליך אַ דאַנק דעם איצטיגען פּרעזידענט, וואָס האַלט דעם אמט שוין צען יאָר. דאָס איז מוניסיפּאַל קאָורט ריכטער שאול פּריים.

אויב איך מאַך ניט קיין טעות איז די ביאַליסטאָקער שול די איינציגע אין ניו יאָרק וואָס האָט אַ ריכטער אַלס פּרעזידענט. און הרב איסקאָלסקי, ווי אויך אַנדערע פירער און מיטגלידער פון דער שול, קענען גאָרניט גענוג וווּרטער צו לויבען זייער ענער־גיישען און איבערגעגעבענעם פּרעזי־דענט.

די ביאַליסטאָקער שול איז ניט נאָר די עלטסטע, נאָר אויך די טאָן־געבערן פאַר אַנדערע שולען אויף דער איסט־סאַיד. און הרב איסקאָלסקי דערציילט מיט ניט ווייניג שטאָלץ דעם פאַקט, אַז זיין שול איז, למשל, געווען די ערשטע וואָס האָט דורכגעפירט אַ קאַמפּיין צווישען אירע מיטגלידער פאַר ישראל באָנדס.

די אַנדערע באַאַמטע פון דער שול זיינען: נתן הערשקאָוויץ, פאָול הערש־קאָוויץ, מאַקס קאַרפּ, בנימין סילווער און אוירווינג סאָבעל, וויצע־פּרעזי־דענטען; לואיס דייוויס און בנימין באַמרינג, סעקרעטאַרן; טשאַרלס גלאַ־זער, טרעזשורער; מאַקס האָראָוויץ, יו"ר פון ועד החנוך; און הרב דוד קאַ־ראַבעלניק, גבאי.

די יובל־פייערונג וועט פאָרקומען אין דער שול. פּאָרזיצער וועט זיין ריכ־טער פּריים, און די הויפּט רעדע וועט האַלטען הרב איסקאָלסקי. באַגריסונגס רעדעס וועלען האַלטען הרב מרדכי קירשבלום, פּרעזידענט פון מזרחי; הרב טוביה אַראַמס, פּרעזידענט פון הסתדרות הרבנים; בנימין קעניגס־בערג, וויצע־פּרעזידענט פון דער יוניאָן אָוו אָרטאָדאָקס דזשואיש קאָנגרעגיי־שאָנס אָוו אַמעריקע; ריכטער אויר־ווינג סעיפּאָל, ריכטער סעמיועל דיק־שטיין, קאָנגרעסמאַן אַרטור קליין און דר. הענרי נאָלד, פּרינציפּאַל פון דער ווינטראָפּ דזשוניאָר הייסקול אין ברוקלין. דר. נאָלד, אַן אייניקעל פון איינעם פון די גרינדער פון דער ביאַ־ליסטאָקער קהילה מיט 75 יאָר צוריק, וועט רעדען אין נאָמען פון אַלע וואָס שטאַמען אָפּ פון די גרינדער פון דער קהילה.

דער באַרימטער חזן דוד קוסעוויצקי מיט סטוירנער'ס כאָר וועט דאַווענען מעריב, ציילען ספירה און דורכפירען אַ שיינעם קאָנצערט.

Dear Mr. Jacob:

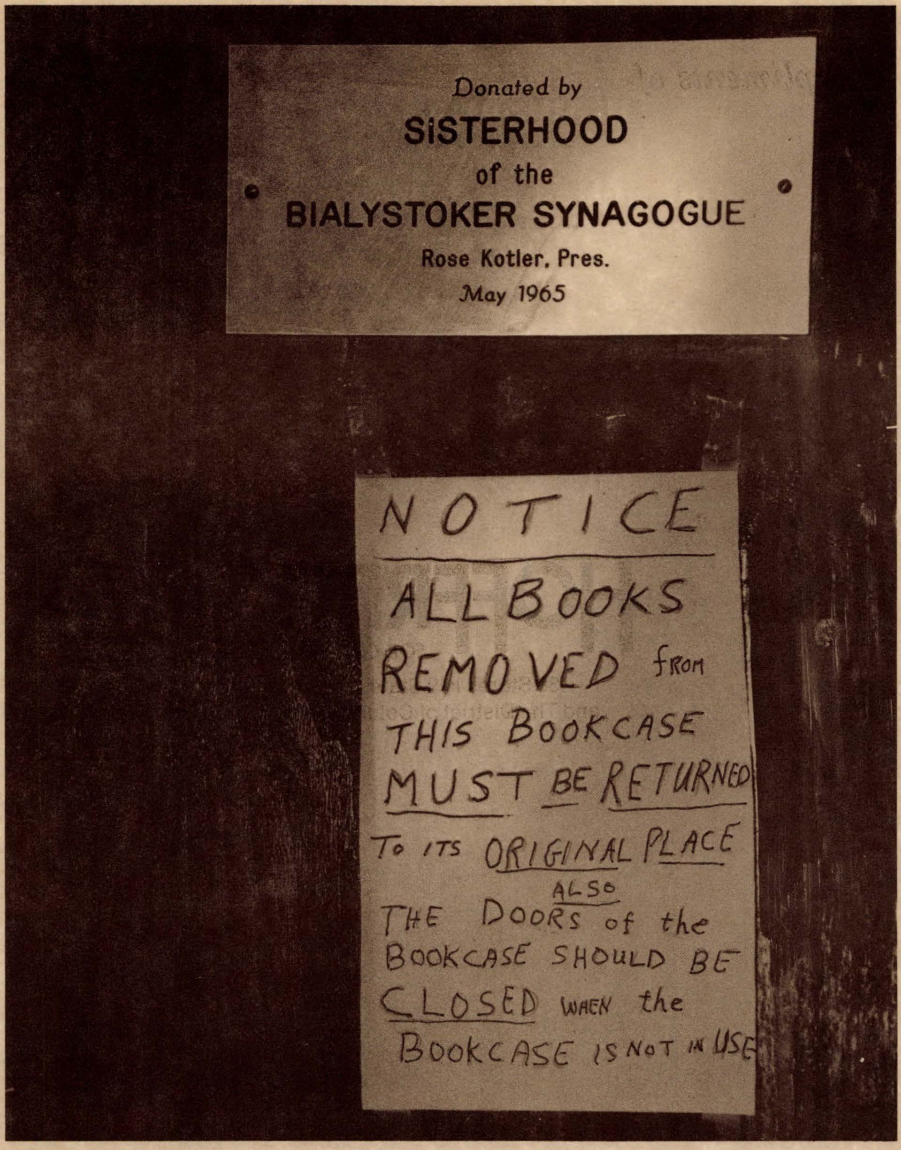

The Prime Minister has asked me to thank you sincerely for your letter of May 4, inviting him on behalf of the Board of Governors of the Bialystoker Synagogue, on the occasion of your 100th anniversary celebration.

Mr. Begin wants you to know that nothing could have given him greater pleasure than to join you on this important occasion and he is certain you will understand that, if he is prevented from doing so, it is only because of the pressures of office.

The Prime Minister takes this opportunity to extend to your congregants his warmest greetings and best wishes.

1878 — 75th Anniversary — 1953

NEW YORK WORLD-TELEGRAM AND SUN, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1953.

Sons to Return to Synagogue Fathers Founded

By MURIEL FISCHER.
Staff Writer.

For 75 years now the Bialystoker Synagogue has been the house of worship to orthodox Jews in Manhattan's lower East Side.

They were immigrant Jews in the year 1878, when the synagogue, the oldest in the community, was established. The group which met that spring at 48 Orchard St. called its religious meeting place the Bialystoker Synagogue after their native city, Bialystok, Poland.

Many Changes.

Now the members are second and third generation American Jews who still hold to the orthodox traditions of their fathers. And they gather now in an imposing, gray-limestone building at 7-9-11 Willett St.

The new address, which has been the synagogue's site since 1905, is not far from the original quarters. But the years have changed the surrounding scenery —and swept away the old faces.

None of the founding fathers will be present, May 3, to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the synagogue and join in the religious convocation and liturgical program. But some of the sons may be there. Many of them will return to the old synagogue from their homes uptown or in other cities. And there will be some who never went away, though they traveled far in life.

There's Rabbi Mitchel Eskolsky, who holds the post his father held before him. The father, Jacob, was rabbi at the synagogue from 1918 until his death in 1931. The son had studied law, but he chose to follow his father in the ministry, and recently the congregation conferred life tenure upon him.

Four Generations.

And there is Municipal Court Justice Saul Price, who is president of the synagogue. Justice Price was born at 122 Broome St., a block away from Bialystoker Synagogue. Today, he lives with his wife and family at 800A Grand St.—also a block away.

He first attended the synagogue 45 years ago, at the age of 6. His father had worshiped there, just as the son and grandson do now. When he reached his 13th birthday, he came of manhood in the Hebrew tradition at a Bar Mitzvah in Bialystoker Synagogue.

And when he and Claire Bernstein were married, their names were announced at the synagogue, and they were blessed.

A son, Jimmy, 16, had his Bar Mitzvah there. And a younger son, Richard, will be confirmed in August.

The congregation now numbers about 250, with room for 1000 more on the high holidays—or special occasions. A thousand-plus are expected to attend on this special occasion, Sunday, to say: Happy 75th Anniversary, Bialystoker Synagogue.

HERALD TRIBUNE SATURDAY, MAY 2,

Bialystoker Synagogue Observing 75th Year

The seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Bialystoker Synagogue, on Willett St. on the lower East Side, will be observed tomorrow evening with a religious convocation and liturgical program, to be held in the main auditorium. The synagogue was founded in 1878 by a group of immigrants from the Polish city of Bialystock.

Municipal Court Justice Saul Price, president of the congregation, will be chairman of the event, which is expected to attract 1,000 persons. Rabbi Mitchel S. Eskolsky, spiritual leader of the congregation since 1931, will deliver the anniversary address, in which he will highlight the history of the church. Cantor David Kusevitsky will lead the liturgical part of the ceremony, accompanied by a choir led by Samuel Sterner.

The first meeting place of the immigrants was at 48 Orchard St. This was abandoned in 1905, when the congregation bought the gray limestone Second Methodist Church building on Willett St. to accommodate the expanding membership.

EAST SIDE NEWS

Bialystoker Anniversary On TV Tomorrow

The 75th anniversary of the Bialystoker Synagogue, 7-9 Willett Street, which was held on May 3, will be featured on the Religious Hour Program of the Dumont Television Network, WABD, Channel 5, tomorrow, May 10, at 5 P. M.

This program, is sponsored, among others, by the American Jewish Committee and is devoted to the important news in Jewish religious life throughout the country and abroad.

Pictorial scenes of the Bialystoker Synagogue will be flashed on the TV screen, showing the synagogue building, both the interior and the exterior. Photographs of the president of the synagogue, Justice Saul Price, and its spiritual leader, Rabbi Mitchel S. Eskolsky, will also be shown.

The narrator of the Jewish Religious Program will be Rabbi Herschel Schacter, spiritual leader of the Moshulu Jewish Center in the Bronx.

SYNAGOGUE'S 75TH YEAR

Scions of Founders to Join Bialystoker's Observance

The Bialystoker Synagogue at 7-9-11 Willett Street will observe its seventy-fifth anniversary on May 3 at 7:30 P. M. with a religious convocation and liturgical program.

The synagogue was organized by a group of immigrants from the city of Bialystok, Poland. Their first meeting place was at 48 Orchard Street. When that building became inadequate for the growing congregation, the present edifice, formerly the Second Methodist Church, was purchased.

Dr. Henry R. Gould, principal of the Winthrop Junior High School in Brooklyn and a grandson of one of the founders, will speak at the celebration on behalf of descendents of the founders.

Rabbi Mitchel S. Eskolsky, spiritual leader of the congregation, will make the anniversary address.

VETERAN CANTOR HONORED

Bialystoker Synagogue Fetes Abraham Orenstein, 99

A spry, 99-year-old former cantor of the Bialystoker Synagogue at 7 Willett Street was honored last night at the celebration of the house of worship's seventy-fifth anniversary.

The clean-shaven, rosy-cheeked cantor, Abraham Orenstein, sang his first service at the synagogue in 1905, soon after he came here from Poland. He has been in retirement since 1940.

Wearing a dark suit with a gay-patterned necktie, Mr. Orenstein went to the synagogue last night by subway, refusing an offer by friends to take him there in a cab from his home in Washington Heights.

"I always go by subway on Sundays to see my children and I'll do the same to go to my synagogue," he told them.

Mr. Orenstein, a widower, said he had fifty-seven descendants. Among the 200 persons who greeted him at the synagogue were Municipal Court Justice Saul Price, president of the congregation, Rabbi Mitchel E. Eskolsky and Cantor David Kusevitzky.

Shul A Landmark

On March 8, 1966, the Landmarks Preservation Commission held a public hearing on the proposed designation as a Landmark of the Bialystoker Synagogue and the proposed designation of the related Landmark Site.

Description and Analysis

This severely plain building of the late Federal Period is one of the few of its type remaining in New York City. The simple exterior, built of cut stone, is pleasing with its great strength and dignity. The three windows above three doors are framed with round arches. A low-pitched pedimented roof enframing a handsome lunette window has a very plain wooden cornice which also adds to the simple severity of the building. The front of the building has a brownstone base course which consists of a low flight of steps giving the Synagogue a solid appearance and setting it off most effectively from the street.

It is interesting to note that this building shows great architectural kinship to the Church of the Sea and Land except for the fact that it employs the more conventional round arched window in lieu of pointed windows. This Synagogue is a fine expression of masonry construction in the vernacular tradition.

The Bialystoker Synagogue was once the home of the Willett Street Methodist Episcopal Church, and it is interesting as an example of a religious building which was no longer needed by its former owners and which was purchased by a group which preserved it.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Thank G-D, another wonderful membership year is coming to a close. Our Sisterhood's annual closing meeting will be held at the Cafe Sahbra on June 20th, Tuesday night; reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Rose Kotler. The cost is a reasonable $9.00 per person. This past month our Sisterhood viewed an exciting and stimulating film about Israel, "A Dream Fulfilled," and with G-D's help, peace and happiness will crown all of Israel's peoples.

I should like at this time to express my thanks to all the members of the Sisterhood for their help and assistance in making this past year successful and enjoyable.

I wish all the members, relatives and friends of the Sisterhood a happy and healthy summer. May we all, with G-D's help, resume our efforts in the fall with renewed vigor and vitality.

Helen Cohen, President

help of G-d will not be beaten. We will rise to higher stature. The Jew is that sacred being who has brought down from heaven the everlasting fire, and has illumined with it the entire world. He is the religious source, spring and foundation out of which all the rest of the peoples have drawn their beliefs and their religions. The Jew is the pioneer of liberty. He is also the pioneer of civilization. Let us all work together, be tolerant of each other, practice love and unity rather than hate and divisiveness. We cannot and will not fail.

Once again I call upon all the Jewish people in our area to join us in religious fellowship. Become a member, worshipper and true friend of the Synagogue. We want you! We need you! May you all enjoy a happy Shevuoth. I also wish to express my heartfelt thanks to all my fellow officers, members and worshippers for their help and activities towards the betterment of our synagogue. I wish that you have a pleasant, healthy and enjoyable summer vacation and return safe and sound to us in the fall.

Samuel B. Schneider, President

Youth Activities

On June 3, 1967, the annual Youth Shabbos took place at our Synagogue. The teenage groups under the able leadership of Joel Kornreich replaced our usual "chazanim" and "Baal Korei."

Herbert Falick was the chazan for the first part of Shachris and his brother Victor Falick was the chazan for the second part of Shachris. The Baal Koreis were Avi Pinsker, Marvin Marsh, Ira Mark, Morty Schneider, and Gaboim were Jay Neuhaus and Moshe Feldman. Joel Kornreich davened Musaf. They were amply rewarded with a very nice "Kiddush" in which everyone took part.

Our Junior Congregation under the leadership of Henry Feder were there en masse, dressed in all their Shabbos finery.

As in the past prizes were distributed to all its members by Rabbi Irving Singer, and also as in the past the Men's Club paid for all the prizes and the goodies that were distributed. Members of Junior Congregation: Nussin Singer, Joseph Singer, Mindy Karp, Randy Karp, Michael Schwartz, Marc Ringo, Steven Karp, Beryl Blatt, Tova Blatt, Sylvia Karp, David Raskin, Margie Korn, Michael Hulkower, Jackie Sprung, Alvin Meiman, Reva Resnowsky, Lenny Rubinstein and Sara Leah Lax. If any name was omitted it was not intentional, so please forgive us.

The feeling was evident to continue and expand this very noble activity after the summer vacation.

Many thanks to Rabbi Irving Singer, Max D. Karp, Samuel B. Schneider, Saul Karp, Paul Rothenberg, Adolph Mark, Dr. David P. German, for their time and effort put into this project.

Incidentally, our basketball team finished in second place.

Dear Sir:

I read with great interest the first issue of your new publication, which I feel will be of value not only to those presently participating in the activities of the Synagogue, but to those who still maintain a warm affection for the old "Schule" because of many pleasant recollections.

Personally, I was "Bar Mitzvah" and married in the Bialystoker Synagogue, which was founded by some of my relatives. I also recall that the late Rabbi Mitchell Eskolsky was a pupil of mine while I served as teacher and Assistant Principal of Seward Park Junior High School — no longer in existence.

Those of us who have maintained our membership throughout the years even though we no longer reside in the vicinity of the Synagogue will welcome news about the Bialystoker Synagogue.

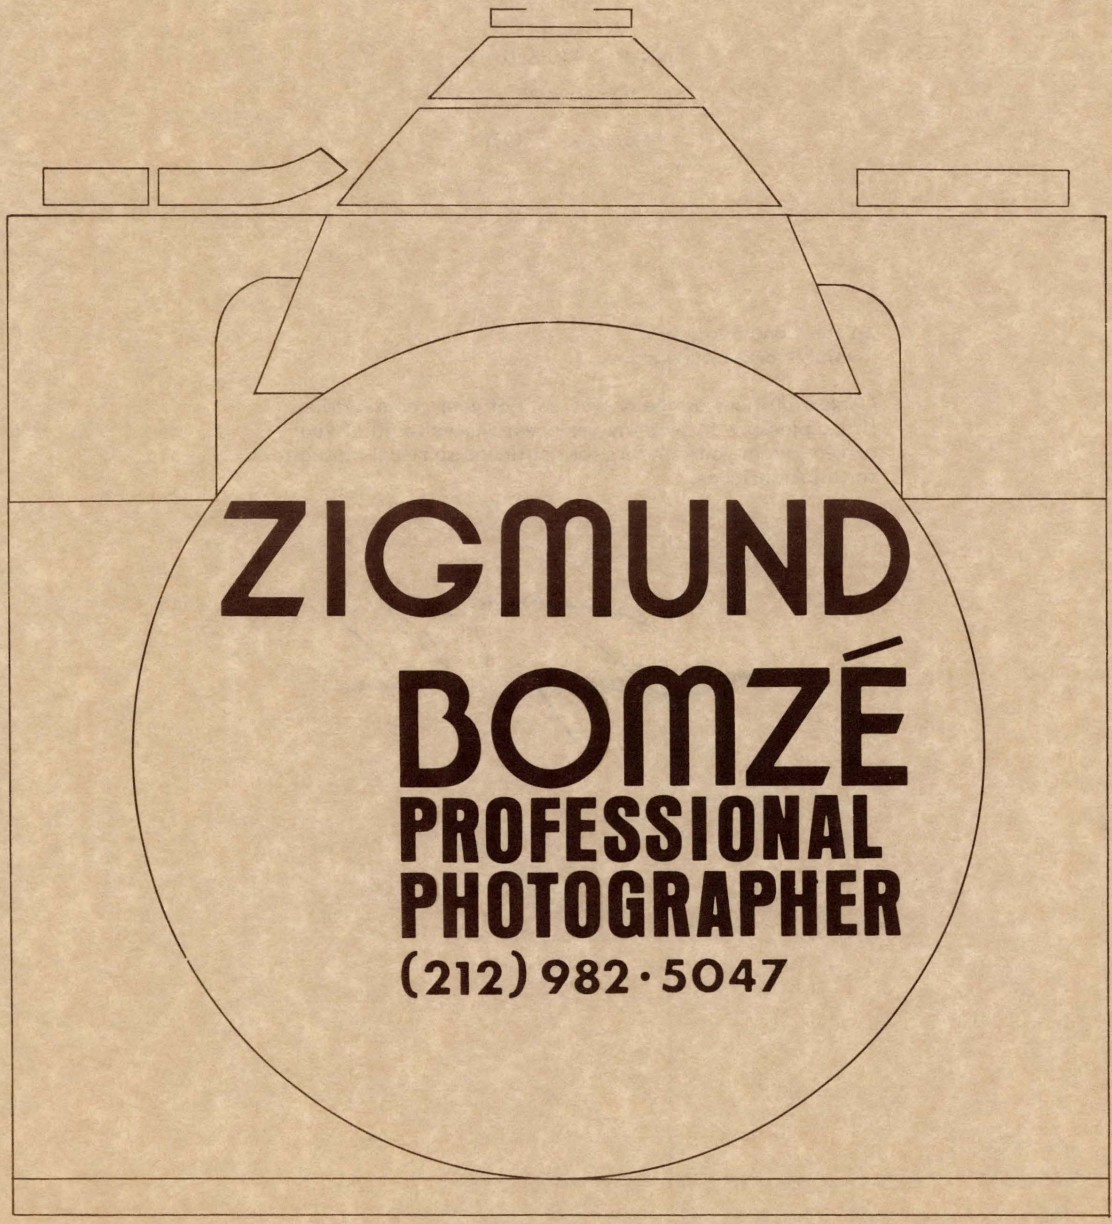

Sincerely yours,
Henry M. Gould

Men's Club

The final meeting of the Men's Club for the year 5727 was an outstanding success. It was held on June 4th at the Wall Street Synagogue. The meal served by our member Sol Saphier was superb. Guest artist Israel Welichansky was at his best. Co-contributors Herman Gewanter, Abraham Berger and Sol Rubinstein were excellent and rounded out a really swell evening to the satisfaction of everyone.

Master of Ceremonies Sam Schneider was in great form; Saul Karp is to be congratulated for his labors in securing the guest artist and arranging to all details that spelled success. It was held in a real heimishe atmosphere and the community singing made us feel like one big family.

Local Synagogue Plans to Honor State of Israel

To honor the establishment of the State of Israel, a demonstration and concert at the Bialystoker Synagogue, 7 Willett St., next Sunday evening, Dec. 19, at 7:30, will be given by the Geulath Jerusalem Committee in cooperation with the Synagogue.

The program will feature as guest speaker Rabbi Isaak Frolich, former Dean of Jewish Seminary and Chief Rabbi of Rome, Italy. The latest technicolor film from Israel, "Behind the Blockade," will be shown.

A musical program by the renowned Cantor Leo Balmont-Hornstein will precede talks by Program Chairman Judge Saul Price, Rabbi Mitchel S. Ekolsky of Bialystoker Synagogue and M. Morton Rubenstein, representing the Jewish National Fund.

All are cordially invited to the admission-free program.

Let all the Peoples Praise You O Lord

In Praise of the Lord
Praise the Lord!

With all my heart I will thank the Lord,
in the meeting of his people.
How wonderful are the things the Lord does!
All who are pleased with them want to understand them.
All he does is full of honor and majesty;
his righteousness is eternal.

The Lord does not let us forget his wonderful actions;
he is kind and merciful.

—Psalm 111.1-4

In all he does he is faithful and just;
all his commandments are dependable.
They last for all time;
they were given in truth and righteousness.
He brought salvation to his people, and made an eternal covenant with them.
Holy and mighty is he!
The way to become wise is to fear the Lord;
he gives sound judgment to all who obey his commands.
He is to be praised forever!

October 31, 1978

The world is like a house; the sky is the ceiling, the earth a carpet, the stars lamps ... and man is its master.

Baya ibn Pakuda

On this historic occasion I wish to extend my sincerest best wishes to my good friend

Rabbi Irving Singer

and to all of the officers, members, and neighbors on the Lower East Side.

ANDREW STEIN

MANHATTAN BOROUGH PRESIDENT

Office of the Council President

CITY OF NEW YORK

Proclamation

Whereas: The Bialystoker Synagogue opened 100 years ago to serve the spiritual needs of Orthodox immigrant Jews;

WHEREAS: The Synagogue building has been recognized as worthy of preservation by the Federal government and is a landmark on the Lower East Side;

WHEREAS: The Synagogue is not only a spiritual refuge, but an education center as well;

WHEREAS: The Synagogue sponsors many charitable programs for the community;

WHEREAS: This date marks its 100th Anniversary;

I, CAROL BELLAMY, PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1978 AND SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1978, BIALYSTOKER SYNAGOGUE WEEKEND.

Carol Bellamy

President of the Council, City of New York

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of New York to be affixed.

In a harbor, two ships sailed: one setting forth on a voyage, the other coming home to port. Everyone cheered the ship going out, but the ship sailing in was scarcely noticed. And a wise man said: "Do not rejoice over a ship that is setting out to sea, for you cannot know what storms it may encounter, what fearful dangers it may have to endure. But rejoice rather over a ship that has safely reached port, and brings home all its passengers in peace."

MR. & MRS. HARRY ALTMAN AND FAMILY
congratulate the Bialystoker Synagogue on its 100 anniversary

And this is the way of the world: when a child is born, all rejoice; when a man or woman dies, all weep. We should do the opposite. No man can tell what trials and travails await a child; but when a mortal dies in peace, we should rejoice, for he has completed his long journey, and is leaving this world with the imperishable crown of a good name.

IN MEMORIAM

TO THE SIX MILLION

I'd like to go alone
Where there are other, nicer people,
Somewhere into the far unknown,
There, where no one kills another.

Maybe more of us,
A thousand strong,
Will reach this goal
Before too long.

The poem and drawing were done by children, victims of the Terezin concentration camp.

On the Sabbath say..... הָרַחֲמָן הוּא יַנְחִילֵנוּ יוֹם שֶׁכֻּלּוֹ שַׁבָּת וּמְנוּחָה לְחַיֵּי הָעוֹלָמִים.

On Rosh Chodesh say הָרַחֲמָן הוּא יְחַדֵּשׁ עָלֵינוּ אֶת הַחֹדֶשׁ הַזֶּה לְטוֹבָה וְלִבְרָכָה.

On Festival days. הָרַחֲמָן הוּא יַנְחִילֵנוּ יוֹם שֶׁכֻּלּוֹ טוֹב.

On Rosh Hashanah say הָרַחֲמָן הוּא יְחַדֵּשׁ עָלֵינוּ אֶת הַשָּׁנָה הַזֹּאת לְטוֹבָה וְלִבְרָכָה.

On Sukos say הָרַחֲמָן הוּא יָקִים לָנוּ אֶת סֻכַּת דָּוִד הַנּוֹפֶלֶת.

הָרַחֲמָן הוּא יְזַכֵּנוּ לִימוֹת הַמָּשִׁיחַ וּלְחַיֵּי הָעוֹלָם הַבָּא. מִגְדִּיל (On the Sabbath, Rosh Chodesh, and Festivals say instead מַגְדּוֹל) יְשׁוּעוֹת מַלְכּוֹ וְעֹשֶׂה חֶסֶד לִמְשִׁיחוֹ, לְדָוִד וּלְזַרְעוֹ עַד עוֹלָם. עֹשֶׂה שָׁלוֹם בִּמְרוֹמָיו, הוּא יַעֲשֶׂה שָׁלוֹם עָלֵינוּ וְעַל כָּל יִשְׂרָאֵל, וְאִמְרוּ אָמֵן.

Three or more males, over 13, who have eaten together, begin here. If there are ten or more, over 13, the words in parenthesis are also said.
One, the leader, says ..... רַבּוֹתַי נְבָרֵךְ
The others say יְהִי שֵׁם יְיָ מְבֹרָךְ מֵעַתָּה וְעַד עוֹלָם.
The leader repeats this ↑ and says
בִּרְשׁוּת מָרָנָן וְרַבּוֹתַי נְבָרֵךְ (אֱלֹהֵינוּ) שֶׁאָכַלְנוּ מִשֶּׁלּוֹ.
The others answer
בָּרוּךְ (אֱלֹהֵינוּ) שֶׁאָכַלְנוּ מִשֶּׁלּוֹ וּבְטוּבוֹ חָיִינוּ.
The leader repeats this ↑ All continue quietly
בָּרוּךְ הוּא וּבָרוּךְ שְׁמוֹ.

*DECEASED

Dear Friends:

On this last page of our Jubilee Journal, we are filled with emotions of gratitude.

For the past many months, we have availed ourselves of the time and talents of our Rabbi, officers, Board of Governors, members and friends of Bialystoker Synagogue.

This group of well qualified, dedicated, enthusiastic people have all come forward to assist wholeheartedly with the preparatory advance work. We thank each and every one of them for their cooperation and sincere efforts.

However, we must emphasize a special committee of two, who have done a gigantic amount of the work. Most of the beauty and styling of this Centennial Journal is due to the sensitive ability and expertise of Marelynn and Essie Schneider. They have actually stayed up nights devising the presentation and format, so that we now have a permanent token of reminiscences of this special evening. We heartily thank these two lovely people.

We are indeed blessed to have had such support from so many who have also solicited ads and with favorable results thereof. A "yasher koach" to each contributor.

Needless to say, this occasion will never be forgotten by any of us for many years hence, and this "once in a lifetime" celebration will be a lasting memory.

We pray the Almighty will give us all, happy, healthy and creative years that we may go from strength to strength.

Sincerely,

Irving Greher, President

Morton Rubinstein,
Chairman, Centennial Committee
