A MESSAGE FROM OUR SPIRITUAL LEADER, RABBI MITCHEL S. ESKOLSKY

With the publication of this yearbook, the Bialystoker Synagogue passes another important milestone in its long and fruitful history. Many, many years have gone by since its present building has been occupied as a Jewish house of worship and study. The Synagogue has spiritually served several generations of men, women and children residing in our community of the lower East Side of New York. In the synagogue proper, they came to offer their prayers unto the Creator daily, on Sabbath days and on Holiday occasions. Within the walls of its Talmud Torah, children were instructed in the teachings, customs and practices of Judaism. In the Beth Hamidrash, the study of the Talmud, Mishnayoth and other sacred lore of our faith was diligently pursued. Through the establishment and maintenance of a constantly enlarged Gmiluth Chasodim Fund over the period of years, the Synagogue perpetuated one of the finest traditions of Jewish life. With the generous and continuous cooperation of the William Cohen Memorial Matzo Fund which was founded to carry on the noble work of our devoted member who initiated the Mo'oth Chitim distribution in our Shul more than a quarter of a century ago, the Synagogue has been instrumental in helping with Passover supplies many thousands of the needy in our neighborhood. Furthermore, many national and philanthropic causes, including Yeshivoth or institutions of higher Jewish learning, the movement to establish a Jewish National Home in Palestine and the relief of our persecuted and war-stricken brethren in Europe, have always met with a ready response to the appeal for support from the Synagogue leadership, membership and worshipers. Our Congregation has therefore been at all times a true exponent of the three pillars of the Jewish religion, Torah, Avodah and Gmiluth Chasodim.

Now as our Synagogue is standing on the threshold of another decade of spiritual activity, the problems of a postwar world confront it in all their complexity and diversity. All phases of secular life are profoundly affected by the urgent necessity of proper readjustment from wartime instability to peacetime normalcy. Religious institutions likewise must meet and deal with the serious challenge presented by the postwar era. For example, returning servicemen who have seen the worst of human nature displayed on the battlefield, and who no longer have need of a so-called "foxhole" religion, will insist upon a religious faith that meets their present needs. They must readjust themselves to the ways of peace and the synagogue with its affiliated activities must bear a prime responsibility in exerting a beneficial influence for the proper spiritual reconversion of those who served our country in uniform. Another problem facing the synagogue and the community as a whole is that arising from the wartime disturbances of home life which have resulted in widespread juvenile delinquency. The synagogue through a number of services at its disposal can counteract this unfortunate concomitant of wartime living and bring to a halt the further development of this deplorable degeneracy of our youth.

The Bialystoker Synagogue has taken definite steps within the past year to provide the means for the facilities that will be necessary for an attempt to solve the pressing problems heretofore mentioned as well as others that require attention and solution. A young and energetic leadership, fortified by a substantial increase in our membership and headed by our president, Mr. Saul Price, has taken hold of the administrative affairs of the Congregation. A campaign for funds, of which the proceeds of this yearbook are a part, was organized to renovate and rehabilitate the Synagogue extensively to make it as attractive as possible; and to furnish new facilities for the religious and social needs of our young people in the community so that they may become more closely connected with the spiritual center of Jewish life. As additional evidence that a new spirit has been instilled into our organization may be cited the fact that veterans of our community have been invited to accept free membership of a year in our Congregation, and we earnestly hope that all of them thus invited will avail themselves of this opportunity to work with us for the spiritual uplift of the entire community.

"Life Begins At Forty" has become a popular phrase lately. For us in the Bialystoker Synagogue, observing a fortieth anniversary, in our present building, those words have a significant connotation. We begin a new phase of religious existence with renewed vigor and strengthened ranks. Yet there is so much that could be done for our people in the community and so much must be done for our youth that we would gladly welcome the cooperation and affiliation of the men and women, friends, neighbors and patrons, of the Synagogue so that we may together, shoulder to shoulder, build and maintain a better and finer community center in which we may all take pride, and to which all classes may look for spiritual guidance.

Rabbi MITCHEL S. ESKOLSKY

A MESSAGE FROM OUR SYNAGOGUE PRESIDENT

"Why Should You and I Interest Ourselves In a Synagogue and Talmud Torah?" My friends, will you first ask—and then reflect with me.

In previous generations, the question posed never occurred to the average Jewish parent. He attended the Synagogue and saw to it that Jewish children were provided with a Jewish education. In fact, it was a recognized responsibility. That responsibility still exists today; its light should be kept burning by you and me.

The question of Jewish education has become a debatable issue in this Country with a great number of Jewish parents. Today parents know that their children will not grow up illiterate and unskilled. The American Public School system provides an education which will enable all American children to take their place as American citizens and equip them with the skills necessary to make a living. Jewish education appears to many parents as something additional, perhaps superfluous. Is it enough for our children to live only as American citizens? Shouldn't you and I also see to it that they are taught to live as good Jews?

Jewish education teaches character and the right attitudes towards life in general. Jewish education seeks not to neglect the spiritual and social side of life. Jewish education seeks to implant the social attitudes which lead to peace and human brotherhood. Jewish education inculcates piety and a readiness for personal sacrifice for truth and humanity.

The plight of Nazism has devastated many Jewish communities in Eastern Europe which were centers of Jewish learning. Is it not the duty of American Jewry, your duty and my duty, to take up the torch of the Torah and forge the next link in the chain of Jewish tradition? The Synagogue and the Talmud Torah—need our interest, our help—yours and mine.

In Rabbi Mitchel Eskolsky, we have an outstanding Spiritual Leader and Scholar. With your help, through our Synagogue and the Talmud Torah, his many talents can better function with our children, our young girls and boys, and even our mothers and fathers.

To all who have joined us in our work, I extend my sincere appreciation and thanks for your efforts and cooperation. To you who have, for some reason or other, been unable to join or cooperate, I herewith extend an urgent invitation to come forward.

M. S. HOROWITZ, President

NO MAN LIVING is more worthy to be trusted than those who toil up from poverty—none less inclined to take or touch aught which they have not honestly earned.

Nor should this lead to a war upon property or the owners of property. Property is the fruit of labor, property is desirable, is a positive good to the world.

That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him labor diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built.

—ABRAHAM LINCOLN

IN TRIBUTE TO OUR ESTEEMED PRESIDENT,

MR. SAUL PRICE

In the course of the colorful and glorious history of the 70-year old Bialystoker Congregation—one of the oldest Synagogues of New York's East Side—distinguished personalities, occupying prominent places in Jewish and general life in this metropolis have at all times been active in its affairs. The Presidents of this house of worship have included well-known communal leaders possessed of the finest and noblest traditions which they brought here as a heritage from European lands. No wonder, then, that the Bialystoker Synagogue, located in the heart of the East Side and serving the religious Jewish community there for so many years, has won such distinction and renown throughout New York. The Bialystoker Synagogue's Talmud Torah, named for the well-known Bialystoker Rabbi, Samuel Mohliver, affords hundreds of children who come from homes of meagre means, opportunity to receive a fine traditional religious education and is the pride of our Synagogue, which maintains it. Hundreds of East Side fathers and mothers bless the members of our Synagogue, who are instrumental in the Talmud Torah's maintenance; and for providing their children with a fine Jewish education, so that these citizens of tomorrow may become good, devout Jews and Americans—the pride of our land.

Our Bialystoker Synagogue—which, through the years, has held in high esteem its leaders, donors and particularly the Presidents who had helped build the progress of our spiritual edifice—now has particular reason to take pride in the man now its President, Mr. Saul Price. A noted communal leader and counsellor, he has carried forward the Synagogue from one fine accomplishment to another. Our Institution truly does honor to East Side Jewry. Then too, the members of the Bialystoker Synagogue—cognizant that Mr. Price is still a young man, born on the East Side, acquainted with its needs and interested in the life of its citizens—feel they are indeed fortunate in having such a fine, admirable personality as leader of their Congregation; for since Mr. Price has "taken over," as head of the Synagogue, it has undergone an amazing transformation. He has helped to extricate it from dire financial straits; he has embarked upon a program of expanding and widening the Synagogue's activities; he has enrolled many new members; he has undertaken a drive to renovate the Synagogue and eventually cancel the mortgage; he has enlisted as members and workers many outstanding East Siders; in short, he has infused us with new life.

In the name of all our members, I should, therefore, like to say to Mr. Price: "May your hand be strengthened, and may you be successful in all your endeavors." In behalf of all my family too, I should like to wish you and your kin—"health and happiness through all your days, for the good deeds with which you adorn your name; good deeds for your fellowmen."
