The Jewish Independent Publishing Company

The Cleveland Jewish Society Books were published from 1915 to 1925 by the Jewish Independent Publishing Company, a locally owned publisher that published the weekly Jewish Independent. The books were similar in appearance to the Cleveland Blue Book, a guide for society's elite. The listings in the Cleveland book listed individuals by country club. The Jewish books list individuals by congregations. In many cases there are separate lists of the congregations' ladies auxiliary, along with information on social service agencies. The book also included advertisements.

The books are a valuable resource for those conducting genealogy researches within the time period. The advertisements and information on the various social service agencies provide insight into the times. Eight editions were published over the ten year period.

Cleveland Memory Project does not hold rights to this work, but believes it to be in the Public Domain.

PREFACE

Volume I of the Jewish Society Book is local Jewish history. Volume II became a necessity, because time brings many changes in so large a community. Many of the men and women who had figured conspicuously in our first Book laid down the burdens of life and are no more, and others have taken their places. Young men and women inconspicuous a year ago are now active in the community and these must be given proper recognition.

Being virtually a directory of members of Jewish organizations, many of those whose names and addresses appeared last year have moved to other quarters, some organizations have ceased to exist, new ones have taken their places. New officers have ben elected in many organizations, clubs, fraternal, philanthropic and other societies, and all these changes must be accounted for.

Never before in the history of Cleveland, until the publication of Volume I last year, has an effort been made to compile in one volume the manifold activities, including the history, of the Cleveland Jewish Community.

With the knowledge that the city has a Jewish population of more than one hundred thousand—a large city in itself—the necessity and convenience of such a compilation became evident.

Anyone may at a glance ascertain by reading this volume the religious, social, philanthropic, charitable and other activities of the community. It is intended to show not merely the object of each organization, but its officers, trustees and membership as well.

What are the various synagogs in Cleveland? Who are the rabbis, officers and leading spirits? What nationalities do they represent? Are they Orthodox or Reform?

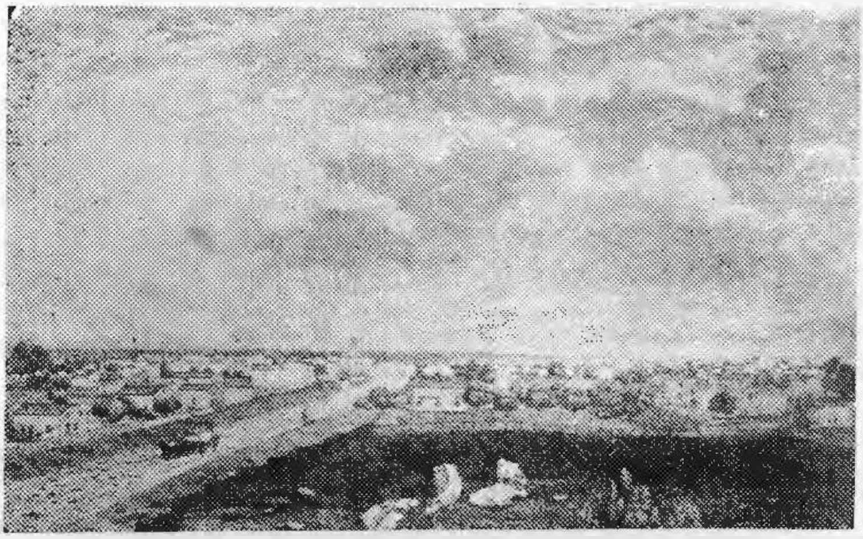

How about the clubs and the different charities, the fraternal and other organizations?

Whatever you wish to know regarding them will be answered in this book, to the best of our ability.

You may see at a glance that this directory is something Cleveland should have had decades ago, but on the supposition that it is never too late to begin a good thing we experimented on Volume I last year, and now we offer this volume to the Cleveland community, trusting that it will be duly appreciated.

THE EDITOR.

Cleveland in 1837 When the First Jewish Pioneers Arrived

This is a picture of Cleveland's business center at the time the two Jewish pioneers, Simson Thorman and Aaron Lowentritt, decided to call Cleveland home. The original is in possession of the Western Reserve Historical Society.

The roadway on which you'll notice an omnibus going east, represents Euclid avenue looking west, near where East Sixth street is located. The cows pasturing on the meadow is the site of the Garfield and the new Guardian buildings. The court house is on the Public Square near the foot of Euclid avenue. The little frame cottages on the south of the street are the sites of the May Co. and other great business structures. The Williamson building site is represented by a cottage adjoining the cow pasture on the west.

History of the Jewish Community

This is the story of how the Jewish community of Cleveland has grown from one to a population of more than 100,000.

The first Jewish settler of Cleveland was Simson Thornton, who arrived here in 1837. He was a native of Unsleben, Bavaria, Germany. He reached New York in 1835, two years later he came to Cleveland, where he had the distinction of being not only the first arrival but the first Jewish bridegroom, marrying Miss Regina Klein, who came here with her parents later.

SIMSON THORMAN

Mr. Thornman was a member of the city council, was identified with the early history of the B'nai B'rith, was one of the organizers of Anshe Chesed congregation, but later joined Tifereth Israel, now known as The Temple. He died in Terre Haute, Indiana, thirty-six years ago, and is buried in old Willet street cemetery this city.

The pioneer's son, Samuel Thorman, was the first Jewish child born in Cleveland. His other children: Mrs. Joseph Erlanger, Mrs. Philip Schloss, Mrs. Kaufman Hays, Mrs. Jacob Wiener, Mrs. M. M. Wiener, Frank Thorman, Judah Thorman, Simon Thorman.

What was Cleveland in 1837, the year of Simson Thorman's arrival?

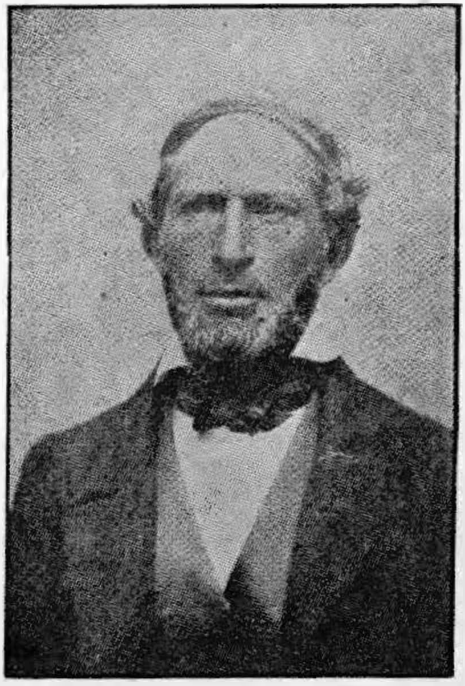

The city census of 1835 gives Cleveland's population as 5,080. The first United States census following the arrival of the first Jewish immigrants was taken in 1840, showing a population of Cleveland of 6,071, and of Ohio City, now the West Side, of 1,577, making a total population of what is now the City of Cleveland of about 8,000, three years after Simson Thorman had decided that this was a good place to settle in.

Being the only Jew in town Simson Thorman was naturally quite lonesome, but his yearning for companions in faith was at an end when Aaron Lowentritt, of Schoeningen, also Bavaria, hung up his hat on the peg of a Cleveland tavern.

Restrictive legislation against Jews in Germany caused quite an exodus from that country and other Jewish immigrants from Germany soon landed in Cleveland, but the first arrivals were young men without families. So when in 1839 Samson Hoffman settled here with his family and being the first Jewish family in Cleveland, the young men made the Hoffman home their rendezvous, the sight of little ones carrying them back to their homes in Germany.

By and by there was a Minyan and a little over, so the Jewish settlers thought it about time to form a sort of a congregation. It wasn't much of a congregation, but it was a start and was named the Israelitische Society. When they met to organize they found that they had a membership of twenty. Pioneer Thorman was the chairman and Isaac Hoffman, the spiritual leader. It was a strictly Bayerische Shule and among the members of this Cleveland's first historic congregation, besides the two already named, were Simon Newmark, Simon Thorman, Moses Alsbacher, Gerson Strauss, S. L. Coleman and Kalman Roskopf.

AARON LOWENTRITT

This happened in 1839 and a year later the first cemetery was bought. The congregation had to go out of town to make the burial ground purchase and for one hundred dollars what is now the Willet street cemetery, on the West Side, was secured.

In 1842 came the inevitable split, the seceders from the Israelite Society forming the Anshe Chesed Society, each only a handful worshiping at different places, one in a hall on South Water street and the other in a hall in Farmers' block on Prospect street. Rev. Asher Lehman was in charge of the thirty seceders.

Later on followed a reunion of the warring factions, and the offshoot of the two was the Israelite Anshe Chesed Society, now the Euclid Avenue Temple, worshiping on Euclid avenue, corner of East Eighty-second street.

Leonard Case presented this congregation with a lot on Ohio street, now Central avenue, which was exchanged for property on Eagle street, now avenue, where, at a cost of $1,500, the first Anshe Chesed synagog was built. Prior to the erection of the synagog on Eagle street, the united congregation worshiped in a room in Farmers' block, under the leadership of S. L. Stearn.

There was a large number of Jewish arrivals in Cleveland in 1848 owing to then raging revolutions in Germany and with the new settlers came differences of opinion regarding modes of worship and another split much more serious than the first followed, resulting in the formation of the Tifereth Israel congregation two years later, with forty-seven members worshiping in private homes and in a hall in Kelly's block, on Superior street. The first temple of this congregation was dedicated in 1854 on Huron street, now road, a bequest from Judah Touro of $3,000 making the purchase of the land possible. This congregation now worships in the Temple, at the corner of Central avenue and East Fifty-fifth street, and a new temple much further east, following the migration of the Jewish population, is one of the things of the near future. A committee with that end in view has been at work for some time and the time for the announcement of the site is near at hand.

"OLD EAGLE"

Tifereth Israel was regarded as the Reform and Anshe Chesed the Orthodox congregation.

Anshe Chesed had its Shochet, also a committee to zealously guard the meat sold to members of the congregation, to see that it contained the necessary Kosher seal. The first move in the direction of Reform in this congregation was the abbreviation of the Sabbath service. In November, 1858, it was decided to engage a cantor and leader of the choir who was also able to preach in both German and English and teach the Sabbath school besides. The first rabbi of the congregation was Rev. E. Hertzman, who was elected in 1860 at a salary of $600 a year. For this sum he was obliged to conduct services in Hebrew, chant the prayers, deliver an occasional sermon and to teach an hour a day in the religious school.

"OLD HURON"

In December, 1860, Eagle street temple was enlarged and rededicated by Rabbi Isaac M. Wise, of Cincinnati. There was some trouble a year later when the organ was introduced, some of the members objecting to the innovation.

Rabbi Hertzman served one year only and at the close of his ministry Rabbi Gustave M. Cohen was elected in July, 1861, serving the congregation five years. Rabbi Cohen introduced the voluntary choir. In 1865 there was a serious disagreement between congregation and rabbi. A short time later the rabbi resigned and took with him a score or more influential members of the congregation.

Then came Rabbi Nathan, who remained one year and on his resignation Rabbi Cohen was triumphantly reinstated as spiritual head at double the salary of his former rabbinate.

In 1869 another addition was built to the temple.

Rev. Dr. M. Tintner was the next Anshe Chesed rabbi. He came highly recommended as a rabbi with a university education, was elected for five years at the then princely salary of $3,000 a year, but at the close of the first year of his rabbinate he resigned. Dr. Tintner was the first of the Anshe Chesed rabbis to adopt a Reform prayer book.

RABBI COHEN

Next came Rabbi Michaelis Machol, a graduate of a theological seminary and of the University of Breslau, then rabbi of Anshe Maariv congregation, Chicago. Dr. Machol was called on recommendation of Dr. Samuel Wolfenstein. The congregation continued to grow and reforms were instituted, one of which was the setting aside of the second day of the holidays. When Eagle Temple was too small and too far down town it was decided to follow the trend of the Jewish population and the temple on Scovill avenue and Henry street, as it was then called, was decided upon. The building committee was composed of Simon Newmark, Simon Skall, Simon Fishel, Moses Halle, M. Wyman, Abraham Strauss, E. J. Weil and Ferdinand Strauss. September 2, 1887, the temple was dedicated.

DR. MACHOL

The presidents of the congregation since its organization were as follows:

Frederick Goldsmith, Simon Newmark, Aaron Halle, Abraham Strauss, Simon Thorman, S. Goodhart, J. Rohrheimer, A. Schwartz, M. Loeser, N. New, M. J. Moses, I. Reinthal, S. Skall, Moses Halle, Isaac Levy, Simon Fishel, Nathan Loeser, the present incumbent, who has been president since the death of Mr. Fishel.

Dr. Machol, who was elected in 1876, continued as spiritual leader until August, 1907, when he was succeeded by Rabbi Louis Wolsey, who came here from Little Rock, Ark. Rabbi Machol was then elected rabbi emeritus, a post of honor he held until the day of his death.

The history of the Euclid Avenue Temple is too fresh in the minds of all to require recapitulation at this time. Larger quarter and a move further east had long been discussed, so on Saturday morning, March 16, 1912, farewell services were held in Scovill Temple and March 22, 23 and 24 the Euclid Avenue Temple which had been erected at a cost of $250,000 was dedicated.

"OLD SCOVILL"

In this connection it should be remembered that the original Eagle street synogog was built at a cost of $1,500.

Tifereth Israel congregation is proud of the fact that one of its features is a Sabbath school which is the largest of any Jewish place of worship in the world.

May 26, 1850, is the exact date of the organization of Tifereth Israel. The membership was 47 and the first officers were:

A. Schwab, president; Kaufman Koch, vice president; E. Pineus, secretary; G. A. Davis, treasurer; D. Hexter, S. Loeb, I. Engelhart, W. Richlander, trustees.

Rabbi Isidor Kalisch was the first teacher, rabbi and chazan, from 1850 to 1855, at a salary of $400 a year.

Four years following the dedication of this synagog Hebrew and Sunday schools were established, the teachers being Benjamin F. Peixotto, Jacob Engelhart, Miss Lehman, Miss Louisa Koch and Miss Hannah Cohen.

Tifereth Israel was the Reform congregation of the city and as far back as 1861 an organ and choir were installed, then followed the adoption of a new prayer book by Dr. Merzbacher. Rev. Wolf Fassbinder served as rabbi from 1855 to 1857; Jacob Cohen from 1857 to 1866.

RABBI ISIDOR KALISCH

He was the First Rabbi of Tifereth Israel Congregation.

In 1866 Rev. G. M. Cohen was the cantor, choir leader and Sabbath school teacher, and about the same year, at the suggestion of Rabbi Isaac M. Wise, of Cincinnati, the Minhag America prayer book was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Jacob Mayer, of Cincinnati, was elected rabbi in 1867 when reform followed reform in quick succession. He resigned in 1874 and was succeeded by Dr. Aaron Hahn, at present an honored member of the Cleveland bar.

Rabbi Moses J. Gries, who came from Chattanooga, Tenn., was Dr. Hahn's successor. He was elected in 1893 for a three-year term, and has been the successful spiritual head of the congregation ever since.

At this writing Rabbi Gries is in the final weeks of his rabbinate. On the coming Shavuoth Sunday, May 27, he will officiate at his last confirmation services, culminating an honorable and remarkably successful career of a quarter century as Tifereth Israel rabbi. His resignation is not only from Tifereth Israel pulpit, but from the rabbinate.

About the time Rabbi Gries first took charge of the pulpit of Huron Temple, the members began the agitation of a new temple. A lot was purchased at the corner of what is now East Fifty-fifth street and Central avenue, and a building committee with the following members was appointed: Julius Feiss, Martin A. Marks, Jacob Goldsmith, M. Ullman, Leopold Einstein, F. Muhlhauser, I. R. Heller, A. J. Steinfeld, I. J. Lehman, Marcus Feder.

July 16, 1893, the cornerstone was laid, Rabbi Gries, Rabbi Machol and Rabbi Isaac M. Wise making the addresses. April 20, 1894, Huron Temple was abandoned and Tifereth Israel worshiped with Anshe Chesed until the dedication of the new temple, September 21 to 24 of the same year. Dr. Wise came from Cincinnati to speak at the dedication and the then rare fellowship meeting was one of the features, also confirmation exercises. The Temple has been known as an Open Temple, and has been an institutional house of worship since its dedication, the first of the kind among Jewish places of worship in the world. The study of Hebrew in the Sabbath school was abandoned twenty-two years ago.

The presidents of Tifereth Israel from 1850, the date of its organization, up to the present time have been as follows: A. Schwab, M. Wolf, Selig Hexter, D. Kaufman, S. Wolf, S. Hyman, M. Ezekiel, A. Halle, Kaufman Hays, S. Mann, J. Rohrmeimer, S. Sampliner, H. Richman, M. Grossman, Martin A. Marks, A. Lewenthal and B. Lowenstein. Mr. Lowenstein is the present president of the congregation.

Several years ago, at an annual meeting of the Temple congregation, it was decided that the present temple is not only too small but too far removed from the membership and a committee was appointed to look for an available site some place much further east.

The Hungarian congregation, B'nai Jeshurun, was organized in 1865 with a handful of members worshiping for a number of years in private residences and public halls for the great Holy days until 1887, when the members moved into the Anshe Chesed synagog, on Eagle street, after the dedication of the Anshe Chesed Scovill avenue synagog. About ten years ago it erected a beautiful temple on Scovill avenue and East Fifty-fifth street.

HERMAN SAMPLINER

There have been a number of secessions from the first Hungarian congregation, mainly due to differences of opinion concerning mode of worship, the most important of these offshoots being the Oheb Zedek synagog on Scovill avenue, at the corner of East Thirty-eighth street, Rabbi H. A. Liebovitz, and Kneseth Israel, on East Forty-sixth street, Rabbi Leo Goldberger.

Herman Sampliner was the father of B'nai Jeshurun. He surrendered two rooms in his home, on California alley, where a congregation of sixteen was organized, and worshiped. A Sepher Torah was bought. The second year of its existence it had a membership of twenty-five and worshiped in the residence of Mr. Lerner, on St. Clair street, now avenue.

The third year the congregation removed to the home of Mr. Weil, on Hamilton street, now avenue, and for the great holidays, when about 400 attended, Gallagher's Hall, corner of Superior and Erie street, now East Ninth, was rented. The site is now occupied by the modern Olmsted Hotel. Mr. Samplinor remained the president and Mr. Salzer the religious teacher and chazan. In the fourth year a synagog was established in what was then known as Haile's Hall, on Superior street, near the present location of the Arcade, and in 1875 Rev. M. Klein was engaged as rabbi, cantor, teacher and collector. The next step was a synagog on Michigan street, now Prospect avenue, in what had been a German theater, also the purchase of land in Glenville for a cemetery.

Notwithstanding desertions and an attempt to organize a Hungarian Reform congregation, which failed, the congregation prospered and at the time of the removal of Anshe Chesed from Eagle street to Scovill avenue, B'nai Jeshurun bought the Eagle street property for $15,000. Simultaneously with the removal of the first real synagogue, in 1887, Rabbi Sigmund Drechsler was engaged as spiritual head, remaining the congregation's beloved rabbi until the day of his death.

B'nai Jeshurun is now prospering in its location fronting on East Fifty-ninth street, at Scovill avenue. Rabbi Drechsler was succeeded by Rabbi A. E. Dobrin and after the latter's resignation Rabbi Samuel Schwartz was selected, installed June 18, 1909, and re-elected. Rabbi Schwartz resigned to take up a rabbinate in Jacksonville, Fla., and he was succeeded by Rabbi Jacob Klein, who came here from Peoria, Ill. His work here has been successful to a marked degree.

The first Polish congregation, Anshe Emeth, was organized fifty years ago with a synagog near the Central market house. At present it has a pretty place of worship on East Thirty-seventh street, Rabbi Samuel Margolies having been the spiritual leader since 1904. However, Rabbi Margolies resigned from Anshe Emeth, also from the rabbinate, to enter a business career. Since his resignation Anshe Emeth and Beth Tephilah, on East One Hundred and fifth street, have consolidated.

This is the fourth congregation in the Jewish history of Cleveland. Prior to the erection of the synagog on East Thirty-seventh street, it worshiped on Erie street, now East Ninth, near Woodland avenue, in what had formerly been a Christian church. Among its members are some of the oldest and best known Jewish families. The present synagog was dedicated in July, 1904.

Beth Hamidrash Hagodol congregation, now worshiping on Woodland avenue and East Twenty-seventh street, was organized a year or so following Anshe Emeth. This congregation is also looking for a site further east. The other congregations are as follows:

Agudath Achim, Scovill avenue and East Thirtieth street, Rabbi B. Gittelsohn.

Chevra Kadisha, Temple Israel, 2641 East Fortieth street, started many years ago by Bohemian Jews. Rabbi Adolph Steiner is the rabbi.

Oheb Zedek, Homestead avenue, near Broadway.

Ohr Chudosh, East Thirty-eighth street.

Shaarei Torah.

Sherith Jacob, East Twenty-fifth street and Orange avenue.

Shomre Shabos, 2560 East Thirty-seventh street.

Talmud Torah, Scovill avenue.

Anshe Sfard, East Fortieth street.

Ahavas Zion, Woodland avenue and East Sixty-first street.

Beth Hakneseth, 3400 Woodland avenue.

B'nai Israel, 1794 West Thirtieth street.

Chevra Jerusalem, Central avenue and East Thirty-ninth street.

Ahavas Achim, East Fortieth street.

All of these congregations have their religious schools and most of them also Hebrew schools.

The Jews of Cleveland have been closely identified with the city's interests since its village days. They have grown up with it and prospered with it and here and there among the Jewish families are three, four or five generations descended from the early pioners. They love the city and its institutions. Many Jewish young men of Cleveland enlisted in the army during the dark days of the Civil War and in more recent years in the army and navy during the Spanish-American conflict. They are the leaders in the garment industry, they own large department stores, conduct manufacturing establishments of various kinds and the Jewish men and women are engaged in every kind of trade and all kinds of occupations. They are among the foremost physicians, attorneys, architects and other professions and all take pride in the growth and development in the beautiful city they call home.

There are a large number of social organizations in the city. The Excelsior Club is among the leading organizations of that kind in the country, the Oakwood is a country club.

The Excelsior Club was organized forty-five years ago and New Year day, 1909, the beautiful building on Euclid avenue, just east of Wade Park, near Western Reserve University, was opened.

The Oakwood Club and grounds occupy more than a hundred acres out Mayfield way and was opened in 1906.

Many attempts have been made to organize a successful Young Men's Hebrew Association, but none of them survived until recently, when an association of young men, called the B'nai B'rith Juniors, was organized, with headquarters in the B'nai B'rith building.

A number of boys' and girls' and young men's and young women's clubs are affiliated with the Educational Alliance, also the Hiram House, and scores of independent Jewish clubs and social organizations are scattered throughout the city.

The Hungarian Aid Society and the Hungarian Benevolent and Social Union are among the oldest organizations in town. The Independent Aid Society is one of the largest.

All the national Jewish fraternal organizations are represented in the city.

The important Jewish charities of Cleveland are affiliated with the Federation of Jewish Charities, organized nearly fifteen years ago. The first officers elected were: Charles Eisenman, president; Julius Feiss, vice president; Meyer Weil, treasurer, and Edward M. Baker, secretary.

The Cleveland Council of Jewish Women is closely allied with the Educational Alliance and Camp Wise and also conducts the Martha House, a home for working girls. The Council was organized twenty-two years ago by the amalgamation of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, the Ladies' Sewing Society, the Personal Service Society and later the Progressive Mission. Rabbi Moses J. Gries was the first president Since then the presidents have been women.

The Council Educational Alliance occupies magnificent quarters on Woodland avenue, in the former home of the Excelsior Club, with Mr Walter Leo Solomon as headworker. The Council of Jewish Women nominates a majority of its board and the work of the two is so closely allied that it is difficult to separate one from the other.

DR. WOLFENSTEIN

There is no better orphan asylum in the wide world than the Jewish Orphan Asylum, on Woodland avenue. It was founded by the B'nai B'rith and was dedicated July 14, 1868. The first superintendent and matron were Mr. and Mrs. I. Aufrecht. Dr. S. Wolfenstein took charge in July, 1878, and the great honor conferred upon him on the occasion of his seventieth birthday, also more recently on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday by the alumni is still fresh in the minds of all. At Dr. Wolfenstein's resignation, he was succeeded by Mr. Simon Peiser.

The asylum is always filled to its capacity, which means 500 boys and girls. Recently the project to sell the property and move into the country has been determined upon. The mortuary record of this institution is most remarkable, the death rate being the smallest of any similar institution in the world.

Associated with the Orphan Asylum is the Educational League for the higher education of orphans and a thriving Alumni Association, both of which are national.

Camp Wise, through the united efforts of the Council and The Alliance, was opened in 1907. Mr. Samuel D. Wise gave the use of his property free, but later he changed his mind and deeded it unconditionally to the Camp Wise Association instead of merely permitting it to use it. It includes more than seventeen acres along the lake front east and contains a number of buildings suited to country life. During the summer it gives new life and energy to boys and girls and some men and women. Volunteer workers, young men and young women, are in charge.

The Montefiore Home for Aged and Infirm Israelites is also located on Woodland avenue at East Fifty-fifth street. It was founded in 1881 by District No. 4, Kesher Shel Barzel, a fraternal order now out of existence. It has accommodations for sixty men and women and is under the efficient management of Superintendent Samuel Friedman.

Recently land was purchased on Cleveland Heights, in the rear of John D. Rockefeller's estate, Forest Hill, and work on a modern, beautiful new home will be well under way during the coming summer.

The Orthodox Old Home, on Scovill avenue, east of East Fifty-fifth street, is conducted on a strictly Kosher plan and the laws of traditional Judaism observed in the institution. It has grown from a frame house into quite an imposing structure. It came into being at a time when members of the Orthodox community determined that this city must have a home for old men and women where they can spend their declining years amidst strictly Orthodox surroundings.

The Hebrew Relief Association was organized about forty-one years ago, although prior to that time, as far back as the '50s, Jewish charitable societies existed in the city. It does the combined work of the local Jewish charities. Mr. Alex S. Newman is the superintendent and Mr. Sigmund Shlesinger the president. The home of the association is on East Fortieth street, near Woodland avenue, the business being conducted in the Isaac N. Glauber memorial building.

The Jewish Relief Society is entirely supported by the Orthodox Jews of the city.

The Hebrew Free Loan Association was organized in 1905 and reorganized two years later. It has a large contributing membership list, loans money without interest and helps the poor to help themselves. Mr. Samuel Friedman is the president.

"OLD MT. SINAI"

The first step toward the building of Mount Sinai Hospital was taken in 1900, when the Jewish Women's Hospital Society was organized. Two years later a house was bought on East Thirty-seventh street and was dedicated as a hospital in May, 1903.

About a year ago, one of the most magnificent hospitals in the country, the Mount Sinai, on East One Hundred and fifth street, overlooking Wade Park, has been dedicated. Its staff is among the most efficient in the city and the rooms are always filled to its capacity.

The East End Dispensary, located on East Fifty-fifth street, is now associated with the new Mount Sinai.

The home for little orphans, known as the Jewish Infant Orphans' Home, with Superintendent Rosenberg at the helm, is one of the finest institutions in town. It cares for infants from the day they are born until they are five years old. The society was organized by a handful of enthusiastic women and was known as the Infant Orphans' Mothers' Society. Later a house was bought on East Thirty-seventh street, and in 1907 the Home on East Fortieth street was opened. Another purchase of the adjoining property was made later and many improvements were made in the building.

Immigrants too poor to locate, wayfarers who are stranded without funds, find temporary quarters in the Montefiore Shelter Home, located on Orange avenue, and opened in 1904. It furnishes shelter and meals until the moneyless stranger finds work or a friend or relative to take him in.

However, these are not all the Jewish charitable societies of the city. There are scores and scores of them and it would be impossible to name them all. Among the oldest of these is the Daughters of Israel, which was organized in 1860; the Ladies' Progressive Society, which passed its thirty-first anniversary, and a new organization known as the Instant Aid Society.

Among the Jewish college fraternities are the Zeta Beta Tau, the Menorah and Hai Resh, all national organizations.

Final resting places for the dead?

Cleveland has many of them and include picturesque Mayfield and Willet cemeteries, the joint property of the Temple and Euclid Avenue Temple. There is also the Chesed Shel Emeth Cemetery Association, which is one of the best charities in the city and gives the poor free burial.

On Lansing there are cemeteries for Agudath Achim, Ohel Chesed, Beth Hamidrash Hagodol, Oheb Zedek and Kneseth Israel congregations. Then there is the Glenville cemetery, for the B'nai Jahurun congregation, and a cemetery in Fir avenue, for the Hungarian Aid Society and other organizations, including Anshe Emeth and B'nai Abraham; the Ohavu Amunah place of burial is on Harvard avenue; the Chevra Kadisha on Baxter avenue.

During an experience meeting at a colored church, a brother who had recently been converted, arose and said:

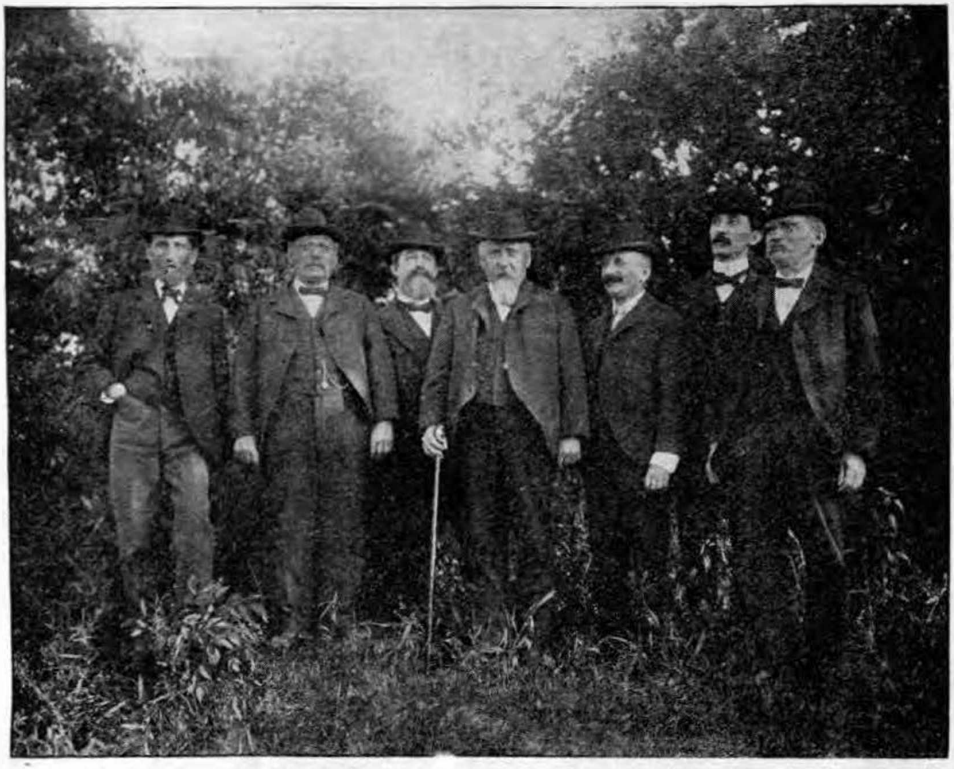

"Brethren, I'se been a sinner — a low-down, contemptible, black-hearted sinner — dese many yeahs, and I nebber knowed it."

"Don't let that fac' molest you any, brudder," put in a sympathetic old deacon. "De rest ob us knowed it all the time."

Each new advertiser who finally tries The Jewish Independent and finds that results roll in with regularity and promptness, flatters himself that he has discovered a new medium. He has not. The rest of us knew it all the time.

(See opposite page)

This illustration is of peculiar interest. It was taken at the last picnic given by the Anshe Chesed congregation in Forest City Park some nineteen years ago and represents not only the rabbi, but the active workers in that temple at that time, some of whom have passed away since.

The full page illustration on the opposite page represents picnic day at Huron Street Temple and they are gathering on the temple steps to take the horse cars for Haltnorth's Garden. At the top steps are Rabbi Aaron Hahn, D. Jankau, Sabbath school teacher, and the late Morris Ullman, president. The picture was taken about thirty years ago. The names of some of the boys and girls as they were known at that time are: Henry Einstein, Arthur Steinfeld, Nate Schaffner, Sam Sloss, Joe Bloch, Bertram Erlanger, Sol Ullman, Edgar Hahn, Emil Strauss, several more Strauss boys and Hoffman boys,, a Manche boy and a lad who is now Dr. Monson, Selma Emrich, Pearl Hahn, Venie Solomonson, a Sloss girl, Birdie Janowitz, a little Witkowsky girl, Emma Rosenfeld, Helen Fox, Selma Einstein, Minnie Baer, a Schwartz girl, and several others.

There are 100,000 Jews in Cleveland, and they do not all read the same newspaper. Neither do they wear the same kind of hat, go to the same synagogue, or vote the same ticket.

If you really want to "cover" the territory, use The Jewish Independent. "The Best Jewish Newspaper in America."

Five Times One Are SIX

Each apple by itself is deliciously attractive, but all of them together in the basket have an extra attraction.

The trade of a single consumer is worth while, but the trade of a family is worth five times as much.

Every one in the family has a hundred wants, and the family together has an extra hundred.

Every copy of The Jewish Independent goes to a family averaging five, and is the newspaper of all. It reaches them all. In its columns YOU may reach them ALL.

The Jewish Independent stands alone in character and in policy. It seeks to cover the news and achievements of all the Jewish people, and it does this in a way that leaves little to be desired.

Euclid Avenue Temple

The history of the Jewish community at the beginning of this volume gives a detailed history of the Euclid Avenue Temple. The officers, trustees and members are:

Everyone knows the story of Caesar and the boatman. The boatman was disturbed by the roughness of the passage, but Caesar calmed him with the words:

"Be reassured, you carry Caesar and his fortunes."

The advertiser who uses The Jewish Independent can rest assured because he is in good company — in the company of some of the shrewdest and farthest seeing advertisers, men who do not fail in selecting an advertising medium any more than they fail in the other enterprises in which they engage.

Oheb Zedek Congregation

The Oheb Zedek congregation was organized October 23, 1904, with forty members. The following were the first officers: Jacob Klein, president; H. Mandel, vice president; D. Labowitz, treasurer; I. Fisher, secretary and collector; M. Kleinman, M. Lichtig, J. J. Klein, H. Hecht, A. Lefkowitz, S. Wasserstrom, D. Lieberman, Ed Sturk, S. Fertel, L. Rich, B. Selmanowitz, D. Grossman, G. Selmanovitz, M. Baumoel and Jacob Haas, trustees. March 12, 1905, the synagog site was purchased for $7,000, and in October, 1905, the building was completed at the cost of $42,000. The congregation has a daily Hebrew school, also a Sunday school. It has established a branch on E. 105th street. It has a cemetery of nine acres which cost $9,000. H A Liebovitz is the rabbi, and F. Deutsch cantor.

Anshe Emeth Congregation

The story of the Anshe Emeth congregation is told in the general history of the Jewish community.

ANSHE EMETH

The Anshe Emeth congregation on E. 37th street, one of the oldest, and the Beth Tephilah on E. 105th street, one of the newest, are now one. At a recent meeting it was decided to build a new synagog for both congregations at the earliest possible moment. The officers of the united congregation are as follows:

S. Baden, president.
Louis Katz, vice president.
Ed Katz, treasurer.

Rabbi S. Margolies, Louis Kohn, J. Arnof, S. Wilkowski, A. Bialosky, D. Rubin, G. Silverman, L. Krieger, J. Basiches, directors.

Ohavu Amunah Congregation

The Ohavu Amunah congregation was organized in 1882. The late Rev. E. Rothschild and Rev. Platrowitz were the organizers. The temporary house of worship was on Central avenue and E. 9th street. In 1883 the first synagog was built on Hill street. In 1898 the congregation moved into another synagog, located on E. 22d street. Rev. R. Rogoff was cantor for several years and Rabbi Fromer and the late Rabbi Ravinson were the spiritual leaders. In 1908 they moved to the present synagog, located on Scovill avenue and E. 37th street. In 1909 they extended a call to Rabbi N. H. Ebin, of Scranton, Pa., who about a year ago accepted a call to Buffalo.

Five Times One Are SIX

Each apple by itself is deliciously attractive, but all of them together in the basket have an extra attraction.

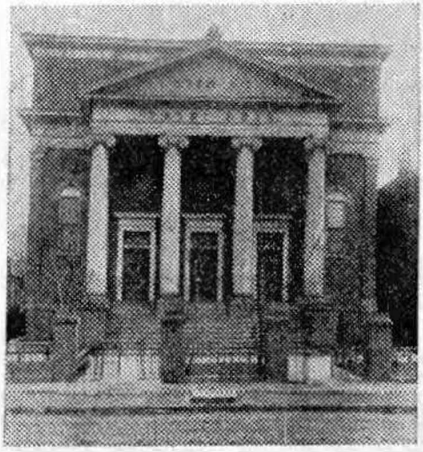

The trade of a single consumer is worth while, but the trade of a family is worth five times as much.

Every one in the family has a hundred wants, and the family together has an extra hundred.

Every copy of The Jewish Independent goes to a family averaging five, and is the newspaper of all. It reaches them all. In its columns YOU may reach them ALL.

Kneseth Israel Congregation

When B'nai Jeshurun was organized about half a century ago, the Hungarians of this city could scarcely muster up members enough for a Sabbath Minyan. Today there are three powerful Hungarian congregations in Cleveland, the Kneseth Israel, on E. 46th street, between Woodland avenue and Scovill avenue, being the latest. The synagog is of recent construction and is an ornament to that part of the city.

KNESETH ISRAEL

Rabbi Leo Goldberger is the spiritual leader. The ritual is strictly Orthodox.

B'nai Israel Congregation

From a few isolated Jewish families here and there a few years ago, the Jewish community, on the West Side, has grown to quite respectable proportions. The latter part of 1910 an agitation for a synagog was started. Mr. Henry Landau was the leader in the movement. Meetings were held and the assembly hall, 2525 Lorain avenue, was rented, in which temporary services were held. Late in January, 1911, the following officers were elected: George Schachtel, president; Jacob Heimlich, vice president; H. Harvey Drucker, secretary; J. Bower, treasurer; Alexander Silber, Ph. Unger and R. Landy, trustees.

Later, a ladies' auxiliary was formed, of which Mr. Henry Landau was elected president.

The congregation has a Sabbath school and Hebrew school and is worshiping in its own synagogue.

THE TEMPLE SISTERHOODS

EGYPTIAN CREAM OF MYRRH

A Massage That Gives New Life to the Skin

Your complexion will be better by its use, as it gets all of that pent-up secretion out of those clogged-up pores. Soap and water cannot reach the evil. When you free those pores of that secretion, you will not have pimples and so-called blackheads. Be fair with that complexion you have by removing all of that poisonous secretion.

Egyptian Cream of Myrrh

Will do it by an Antisceptic Facial Massage

Council of Jewish Women

The Cleveland Council of Jewish Women is the result of the amalgamation of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, the Ladies' Sewing Society, the Personal Service Society and the Progressive Mission. This took place about twenty-one years ago, when a beginning was made with 271 members. Rabbi Moses J. Gries was the first president. In 1896 Mrs. Moses B. Schwab was elected to that office and ten years later she was succeeded by Mrs. Abraham Wiener, who served in that capacity until the election of Mrs. Siegmund Joseph, who in turn was succeeded by Mrs. Nathan Rosewater and Mrs. Julius Fryer, the present executive.

In February, 1896, the Cleveland Council became a section of the National Council, resigning from that body in June, 1908.

The Cleveland Council does a tremendous amount of work, the Council Educational Alliance on Woodland avenue, one of the most complete settlement houses in the world, being its principal charge. This building, formerly the Excelsior Club, represents in land, building and equipment about $100,000.

The first Alliance building was the princely gift of Mr. M. Joseph, absolutely without conditions.

Through the generosity of Mr. Samuel D. Wise, who gave for that purpose nearly twenty acres of land on the lake shore east, including the cottages and houses on the property, a summer camp for boys and girls and known as Camp Wise, was opened in 1907.

The Council is also conducting the Martha House, named after Martha Wolfenstein, as a home for working girls. The Home is located on E. 46th street.

The appended list includes the members of the Council and of the Junior Auxiliary.

100,000 Jews in Cleveland Require Food, Clothing, Supplies

Do they know you, Mr. Advertiser?
Do they know your merits and your bargains?
The Jewish Independent is waiting for you—and will carry your message quicker and better than any other Jewish newspaper.

VAPOR MOUAT HEAT

The Ideal Heating System for Your Home

The Mouat Graduating Vapor Heating System is being installed in homes throughout the country where refinement and performance are demanded and in each case this system is giving absolute satisfaction. The superiority of vapor systems over steam and hot water heating systems is well established, and the exclusive Mouat features have made the Mouat Graduating Vapor Heating System supreme among Vapor system.

With the Mouat System successful graduation, affording heat in amounts to suit individual needs, or to conform to sudden weather changes, is guaranteed. The system is noiseless and unusually safe as it operates on only a few ounces of pressure, and, furthermore, it is odorless and sanitary as there are no air valves to leak or give off foul gases.

In fact it is just the heating system you have been looking for, and will conform, in every respect, with the appointments of your home. Investigate it.

MAKING GOOD PICTURES FOR YOUR CHILD

requires especial skill. Photographing children is a separate art. Only a specialist will produce the kind of likeness that both you and the child can always cherish. Artistic skill and experience create a new pride in every picture Edmondson makes of your child.

Everyone knows the story of Caesar and the boatman. The boatman was disturbed by the roughness of the passage, but Caesar calmed him with the words:

"Be reassured, you carry Caesar and his fortunes."

The advertiser who uses The Jewish Independent can rest assured because he is in good company — in the company of some of the shrewdest and farthest seeing advertisers, men who do not fail in selecting an advertising medium any more than they fail in the other enterprises in which they engage.

More Than a Ride

WHEN you use Cleveland Taxicab service you get more than a mere taxicab ride. You have the satisfied feeling that you are riding in a clean, comfortable cab in charge of a capable driver; and and that the equipment and driver are but a part of a complete service. ¶You know that this service is backed by a company whose financial and moral responsibility is high—a company who appreciates your patronage, and whose service merits it.

BE SURE YOU GET CLEVELAND TAXICAB SERVICE

Prospect—1800—Central Good numbers to remember.

Your Printer

The printer who gives you good work, with prompt service and reasonable prices is the printer you should give your work to.

Any one of my hundreds of customers will vouch for me. That is why I have grown from a one horse concern to the large modern shop I occupy today. Once a customer always a customer.

JEREMIAH J. SULLIVAN

Numbered among Cleveland's prominent business men is Jeremiah J. Sullivan, President of the Central National Bank and the Superior Savings and Trust Company. Mr. Sullivan was born in Fulton, Stark County, Ohio, in 1844. He received his education in the public schools. In 1862 he enlisted in the Third Ohio Battery and mustered out as sergeant in 1865. In 1866 he moved to Millersburg and engaged in the general merchandise business until 1878. He was elected State Senator by the Democratic party in 1879 and served two terms. He entered the hardware business in Millersburg in 1883. He was re-elected State Senator and became national bank examiner in 1887. He came to Cleveland in 1889 and organized the Central National Bank, where he served as Treasurer, Cashier, Vice President and now President. When the Central Savings & Trust Company was organized he became its first President and is still serving in that capacity, dividing his time between the two institutions.

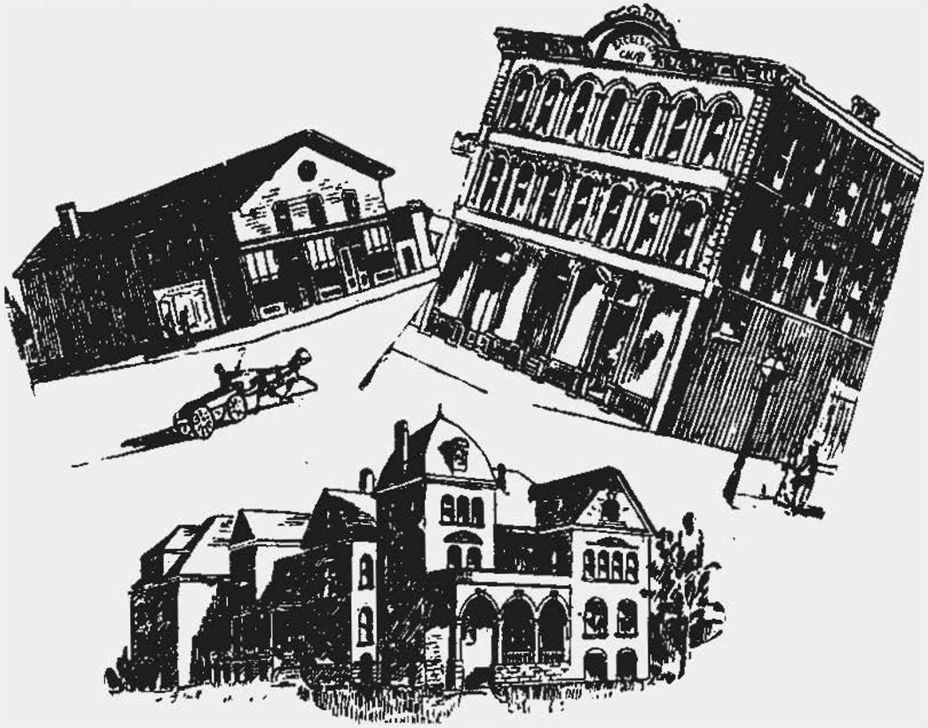

He was President of the Chamber of Commerce in 1893. He is a member of the Union, Country, Roadside, Colonial and Euclid Clubs.

Excelsior Club

Here is the story of the Excelsior Club:

The Excelsior Club grew to its present proportions from a humble beginning.

Cleveland, in 1872, was a small town. Her Jewish population was quite large, but scattered, and Cleveland Jews needed a social club. Mr. Solomon Austrian and a few others decided to call a meeting to organize a club for the promotion of the social and intellectual side of the Jew. Twenty-two responded, and the meeting was held October 20, 1872, in Halle's Hall, on Superior street, nearly opposite the old city hall. Mr. A. Wiener was chairman, and Mr. Meyer Weil the secretary. Two weeks later another meeting was held; thirty had then signed the membership roll. At a subsequent meeting a name was chosen.

December of the same year, the first permanent officers were elected as follows: President, S. Austrian; vice president, A. Wiener; secretary, B. Landau; treasurer, J. Sloss. Directors: Dr. James Horwitz, Meyer Weil, Ferdinand Strauss.

That was the beginning of the Excelsior Club.

After the inaugural ball, which was held in December, 1872, arrangements were made for the use of Weisgerber's Hall, Prospect and Brownell, where the balls and other social entertainments of the club were given. But at that time the club had no permanent home.

A little less than a year later, in October, 1873, the Corlett frame building on Erie street, now E. 9th, at the corner of Sumner, next to Erie cemetery, was leased at $1000 a year. This little house was fitted up for club requirements, consisting of a ball room, stage, reading room, parlors, dining room and the like, but in May, 1875, it was decided to find more commodious quarters, and arrangements were entered into with Mr. L. Halle, who was about to erect a building at the corner of Woodland and Erie, the second and third floors of which were fitted up to suit the needs of the growing club.

In October, 1877, when the club membership list had grown to seventy, it took possession.

This remained the home of the club for more than ten years. The present home of the Educational Alliance was built by the Excelsior Club and upon property that had been owned by Dr. Horwitz, on Woodland avenue, opposite E. 38th street, and was opened with a stag party, December 24, 1887.

But the first real event was a New Year's ball, December 31, of that year.

There were innovations in plenty with the event of the elegant new club house. Bowling clubs flourished, open air concerts were given, a gymnasium was introduced and dramatic and literary entertainments were constant features.

Excelsior Club IV has few if any peers among club buildings in the United States. The cost of the building was $150,000. The property, which has been purchased for $30,000, is 600 feet in depth, and fronts 100 feet on the north side of Euclid avenue, some 400 feet east of Wade Park entrance, and a short distance west of the entrance to the College for Women.

Oakwood Club

The Oakwood is a country club, for golf and other outdoor summer recreations. It contains a beautiful building, where those members who desire to do so spend their vacations. The Oakwood Club and grounds occupy more than a hundred acres on a beautiful elevation in Mayfield and has already celebrated the tenth anniversary of its opening.

Independent Order B'nai B'rith

Early in B'nai B'rith history Cleveland had three lodges, Solomon Lodge, No. 16; Montefiore Lodge, No. 54, and Baron de Hirsch Lodge, No. 454. The last named of these was organized in 1896 and in the course of its career had the following presidents:

1896—Dr. Marcus Rosenwasser.
1897—Rabbi Moses J. Gries.
1898—Michael A. Moses.
1899—Samuel Friedman.
1900—First half, Herman S. Kanton.
1900—Second half, Adolph L. Newman.
1901—First half, Charles A. Klein.
1901—Second half, Nathan Loeser.

Solomon is the pioneer among the Cleveland lodges and Montefiore a fairly close second. In course of time, the members of these lodges decided to have one strong organization, so steps were taken to consolidate. On Sunday, February 9, 1902, in the chapel of the Jewish Orphan Asylum, these three lodges were made one. Jacob Furth, of St. Louis, then vice president of the Order, was in charge of the consolidation exercises. The united lodge was named Cleveland Lodge, No. 16, of which the first officers were: J. C. Bloch, president; A. Lewenthal, vice president; Dr. S. Wolfenstein, monitor; Joseph Hays, treasurer; Jonas Cohen, recording secretary; Dr. Leo Wolfenstein, financial secretary.

Since the consolidation Cleveland Lodge had the following presidents:

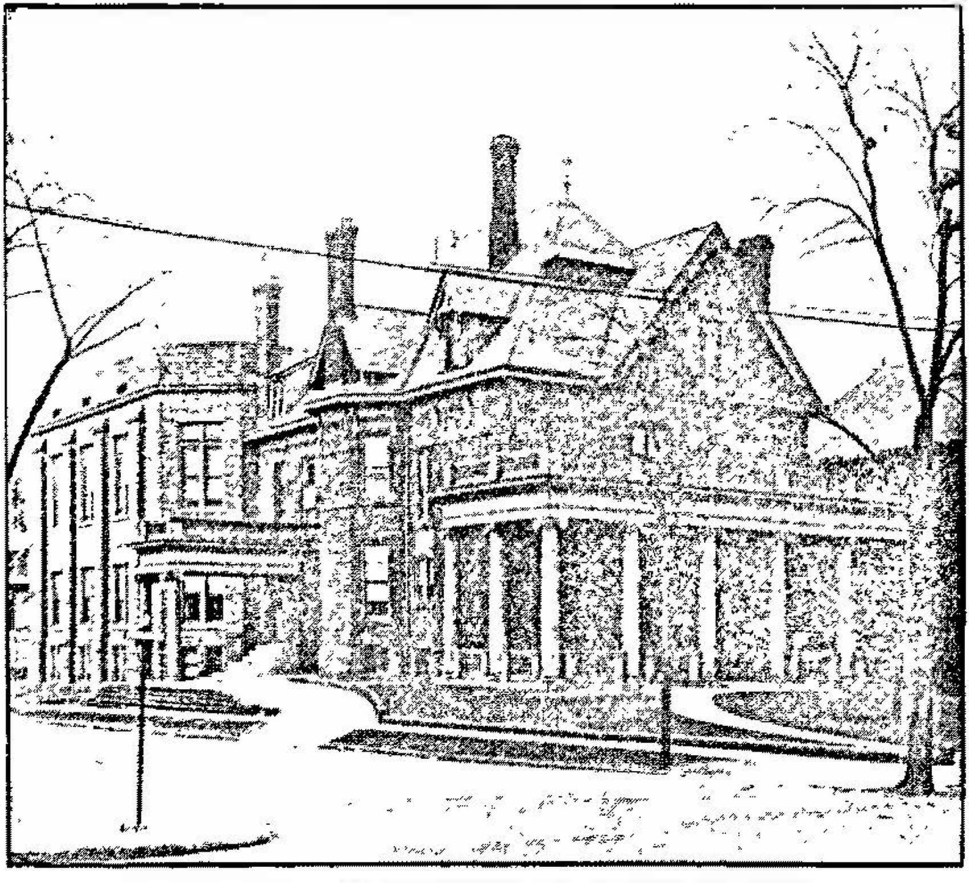

1902—Joseph C. Bloch.
1903—Sig. Shlesinger.
1904—E. A. Schwarzenberg.
1905—Max P. Goodman.
1906—Isador Grossman.
1907—Abraham Kolinsky.
1908—Max E. Meisel.
1909—Dr. M. Metzenbaum.
1910—S. J. Kornhauser.
1911—S. J. Kornhauser.
1912—Sig. Shlesinger.
1913—Fred J. Druml.
1914—Reuben Shapiro.
1915—Alfred A. Benesch.
1916—William R. Weidenthal.
1917—Emile L. Strauss.

October 10, 1915, Cleveland Lodge began a ten day campaign for an additional thousand members. The "drive" was conducted by the then vice president, William R. Weidenthal. There were ten teams of ten members and one captain in each team, and on the memorable night at the Hotel Statler at the close of the campaign a banquet was given at which Hon. Simon Wolf, of Washington, was the guest of honor. Initiations preceded the banquet. About a thousand members were added to the membership.

The Jewish Men's Association was amalgamated with the Cleveland Lodge, I. O. B. B., the members of the former not having reached the age of twenty-one remaining a distinct organization, though a B'nai B'rith adjunct, called the B'nai B'rith Juniors.

The lodge acquired ownership of the leasehold of the Standard Club property on Euclid avenue, corner of E. 71st street, one of the most desirable spots for the purpose in Cleveland. The building is complete in every detail and fitted for the purpose of a B'nai B'rith Home. Ownership is through the Fraternal Building Company, a stock concern composed of B'nai B'rith members. At the first meeting in the new home, $20,000 in stock was subscribed, which paid for the building, all the contents and the leasehold.

The Jewish Independent stands alone in character and in policy. It seeks to cover the news and achievements of all the Jewish people, and it does this in a way that leaves little to be desired.

Hungarian Benevolent and Social Union

Some thirty-six years ago, when the Hungarian population of Cleveland was comparatively small, they gave their "affairs" in Schieley's Hall, St. Clair avenue; Gesangverein Hall, then on Ontario street near High; Halle's Hall on Superior avenue, or National Hall on the Public Square.

About that time the younger element of the Hungarians gave a masquerade and the day after they were so elated over their success that they considered the advisability of starting a permanent organization. Henry Newman and others mingled freely among the Hungarians, obtained a large number of signatures, and the Hungarian Benevolent and Social Union was the result.

These were the charter members: J. C. Bloch, A. Englander, S. Englander, Joe Frankel, J. Farkash, A. Gleichman, I. Gleichman, Max Goodman, Max Heimlich, A. J. Haas, Ph. Hollander, Joe Hollander, A. Heimlich, A. Klein, Louis Meth, Henry A. Newman, H. Roth, H. Sandrovitz, Ben. Schlesinger, Louis Sobel, Henry Trattner, H. Ungar, I. Weiss, M. Zinner.

A permanent organization was effected in 1881 and the first officers elected were as follows: Ben. Schlesinger, president; H. Sandrovitz, vice president; Louis Meth, recording secretary; A. Klein, financial secretary; J. Farkash, treasurer.

Here are the officers for 1882: Henry A. Newman, president; A. J. Haas, vice president; J. C. Bloch, recording secretary; A. Klein, financial secretary; J. Farkash, treasurer.

The organization has prospered amazingly since, new acquisitions being recruited constantly. The object, as the name indicates, is social and benevolent, and during the thirty-six years of the society's existence it has been a great factor for good in the community.

100,000

There are 100,000 Jews in Cleveland, and they do not all read the same newspaper. Neither do they wear the same kind of hat, go to the same synagogue, or vote the same ticket.

If you really want to "cover" the territory, use The Jewish Independent. "The Best Jewish Newspaper in America."

If you are up to, or past the half century mark you may remember this picnic, an affair given by the Hungarian Benevolent and Social Union at Meyer's Lake, near Canton, in the summer of 1887, just thirty years ago.

The accompanying illustration pictures a happy and jolly group of young men and women, the remarkable feature being that all but one are still in the land of the living.

Here are the names. The men's names you will, of course, recognize, but you may not those of the women, whose names are herewith given as they were known then, principally by their maiden names. Today most of them are mothers and grandmothers.

Here is the list: E. Treuhaft, Isidor Lefkovitz, Abrish Newman, Sam Treuhaft, Nate Gleichman, Nate Rich, Herman Stecher, Albert Friedman, M. M. Rich, M. M. Gleichman, Miss Ferderber, Adolf Goodfriend, Louis Kohn, Simon Baumoel, Mollie Lichtig, Emma Krauss, Adolf Goodman, Ida Lichtig, Laura Grossman, Hannah Grossman, E. Hollander, Sarah Mihalovitz, Morris Treuhaft, Terchi Weiss, Weiss, the Tailor, Esther Mandelbaum, Henry Mandelbaum, Joe Loveman, Newman on Abbey road, Mrs. Strassman, E. Mandelbaum, Albert Grossman, Mrs. Weiss, Fritz Dattelbaum, Herman Moss, Dave Labovitz, Lottie Schwartz, Louis Schwartz, Bertha Goodman, Dave Steuer, Mary Lustig, Joe Lichtig, William Mihalovitz, Isidor Goodman, Minnie Treuhaft, Louis Newman, Sam Kaufman, Ben J. Independent Aid Society

Twenty-one years ago Mr. Joseph Folkman requested a few of his friends to meet at his residence, 161 Orange street, now avenue, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of instituting a new society, and the Cleveland Independent Aid Society, now increased to 500 representative men, was the result. The growth of the society necessitated a change of its meeting place from Joseph's Folkman's kitchen, on Orange street, to its present quarters. The society was named by its father, Joseph Folkman, and its first recording secretary, Herman Feniger. The objects are to help afflicted members; to assist the worthy poor, and to aid charitable organizations and beneficial institutions.

The first officers were: Joseph Folkman, president; Adolph Spitz, vice president; Herman Feniger, recording secretary; Adolph Sicherman, financial secretary; David Friedman, treasurer; Jacob Engel, L. Feuer, M. M. Neuman, trustees.

The tenth anniversary of the society was commemorated at the Chamber of Commerce, October 31, 1905. Ten years later the twentieth anniversary was observed with a dance in Chamber of Commerce Hall.

Hungarian Aid Society

MORRIS BLACK

Mr. Morris Black, father of Colonel Louis Black and of the late Joseph Black, was one of the city's Hungarian pioneers, and at the organization of the Hungarian Aid Society, in 1863, was elected the first president. The celebration of its golden jubilee took place in the Eagles' Hall, October 28, 1913.

The society was organized in a little red brick house located at what was then the corner of Hamilton and Erie streets, in the home of Mr. Black. The first officers elected at that meeting were: Morris Black, president; David Black, vice president; Joseph Perley, recording secretary; Herman Sampliner, treasurer; Dr. James Horwitz, with the officers, trustees.

On the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary, Henry A. Newman was the toastmaster. An address was delivered by Colonel Louis Black, which was reminiscent of the early days, when the society was organized in his father's home. The other speakers were Dr. Aaron Hahn, Mr. Joseph H. Sampliner, Dr. Harris Cooley, Mr. Ben J. Schwartz and Mr. S. H. Littman. The present officers are:

Ladies' Hungarian Aid Society

A little over a year ago the Ladies' Hungarian Aid Society celebrated its golden jubilee at Baumoel's. The society was organized in 1865, when the Hungarians of the city were a mere handful. Mrs. Morris Black, Mrs. James Horwitz, Mrs. Theresa Loveman, Mrs. J. S. Perley, Mrs. Jacob Cohen and Mrs. Judd were among the charter members.

Charity was the watchword of the society from the very beginning, not only to its own members in distress, but to others, irrespective of race and nationality, who needed help. The society not only assists individuals who need quick aid, but gives to institutions. It has helped the Orthodox Home for the Aged, the Chesed Shel Emeth and other institutions. At the time of the agitation for a new Jewish hospital the Ladies' Hungarian Aid Society gave $500. Mr. N. L. Holstein has been the president about two decades.

The aims of the Federation are:

First—To eliminate indiscriminate and unauthorized forms of solicitation, ticket selling, bazaars, fairs, etc.

Second—To assure the community a fair and equitable distribution of the funds collected, to the end that the greatest number may benefit in the largest measure possible.

Third—To insure to the public a full and detailed accounting of the distribution of funds, both of the central body and the constituent organizations.

Fourth—To enable the institutions to give their full time and attention to the work before them.

Fifth—To investigate proposed philanthropic undertakings and advise as to their necessity or merit.

Sixth—To represent for the community an organized effort for good.

The Federation was organized about thirteen years ago with the following officers: Charles Eisenman, president; Julius Feiss, vice president; Meyer Weil, treasurer; Edward M. Baker, secretary.

Mount Sinai Hospital

MT. SINAI HOSPITAL

Mount Sinai Hospital, beautiful and imposing, overlooking from an elevation E. 105th street at Wade Park, has made such a reputation for thoroughness in all things during the short time of its existence that ever since its opening there has always been a waiting list.

The hospital contains 258 beds, and patients of all creeds or of no creed will be admitted. There is a children's ward, also a maternity ward, and the entire building is strictly fireproof. The construction is of brick, concrete and steel. The main building is four stories high and there are three wings of three stories, a power house, laundry, etc., of two stories. The cost of the ground, building and furnishings is not far from three-fourths of a million dollars.

The first shovelful of earth was lifted on Sunday, February 7, 1915, by President Paul L. Feiss, in the presence of the board, and the cornerstone was laid on Sunday, June 6, 1915. Mayor Newton D. Baker and Mr. Feiss, president of the Hospital Association, made the principal addresses. The invocation was given by Dr. S. Wolfenstein. The cornerstone was laid by Mr. B. Mahler, chairman of the Finance Committee; Mr. Salmon P. Halle, chairman of the Building Committee, and Mr. Charles Eisenman, president of the Federation of Jewish Charities.

Mayor Blankenburg, of Philadelphia, was present at the ceremony.

The dedication and formal opening of the building was an outdoor event and one of the most interesting in local Jewish history.

The memorable campaign for $500,000 for the purchase of the property and the construction of the building was swift and wonderfully successful, Mr. Baruch Mahler, the chairman of the Finance Committee, being the man behind the gun, who managed the financial end of the campaign.

The first meeting to discuss the advisability of building a new hospital and devising ways and means was held December 9, 1912. When time for action was at hand the committee went at it with such enthusiasm that within the short time of a few months, without publicity, incident to campaigns similar to this, about one-half million dollars was pledged by the Jewish community of this city. Practically for the first time in the history of Cleveland all the elements among the Jewish people were united in a bond of fellowship and brotherhood, including the Orthodox, Reform and Conservative, and all pitched in for one grand united effort and again illustrated the old adage that there is strength in union.

The quick work of the beginning of the actual construction is due to the efforts of Chairman S. P. Halle, of the Building Committee, who has made a close study of hospital construction here and in other cities.

George P. Post & Sons, of New York, were the architects, who have been working in conjunction with Dr. S. S. Goldwater as expert.

A kosher kitchen for the Orthodox patients is one of the features. Mr. Frank E. Chapman is the superintendent.

Jewish Women's Hospital Society

A group of enthusiastic young women originated the Jewish hospital project. The organization is still in existence and its members are working with as much enthusiasm for Mount Sinai as they did at the time of its inception many years ago. After Herculean efforts on the part of the members, encouraged by the late Herman Sampliner, a Jewish hospital was insured, and May 3, 1903, Mount Sinai Hospital, on E. 37th street, was dedicated. The trustees of this institution will, after the dedication of the new hospital, turn over this property to the trustees of the new hospital.

The Jewish Women's Hospital Society, organized in 1892, under the name of the Young Women's Hospital Society, was founded by Mr. Herman Sampliner, who was also its first president. The first woman president was Mrs. L. Rich.

Everyone knows the story of Caesar and the boatman. The boatman was disturbed by the roughness of the passage, but Caesar calmed him with the words:

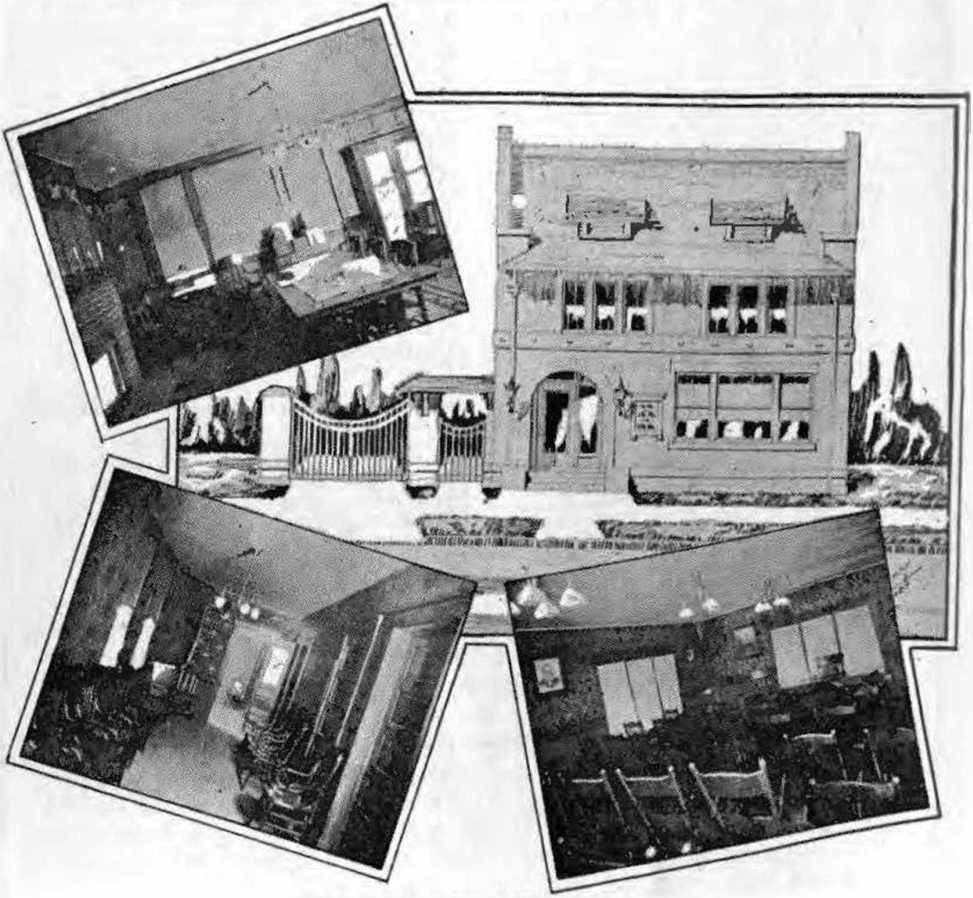

"Be reassured, you carry Caesar and his fortunes."

The advertiser who uses The Jewish Independent can rest assured because he is in good company — in the company of some of the shrewdest and farthest seeing advertisers, men who do not fail in selecting an advertising medium any more than they fail in the other enterprises in which they engage.

Hebrew Relief Association

Early in the '50's the first Jewish charity society was organized in Cleveland, but the Hebrew Relief Association, which undertakes to do the combined work of most of the local Jewish charities, was organized about 1875. The association has a home of its own on E. 40th street, near Woodland avenue, the business being conducted in the Isaac N. Glauber memorial building, the gift of the Glauber brothers, which was dedicated December 5, 1911. Mr. Alex S. Newman, the superintendent, has been acting in that capacity a number of years. From his last annual report this extract will illustrate the kind of cases the association has to deal with:

"Our assistance is, as a rule, given chiefly on account of such causes as tuberculosis, desertion, general sickness, widows and dependent children, old age and debility, accidents and physical and mental defects. From the nature of all these it will be readily apparent that material assistance, frequently long continued, is an indispensable necessity, and that industrial conditions, no matter how excellent, cannot be taken advantage of by these unfortunates."

Jewish Orphan Asylum

The Jewish Orphan Asylum is a monument to the Independent Order B'nai B'rith, now under the jurisdiction of District Grand Lodges 2 and 6. It was during the Civil War when the first steps were taken by District No. 2, then having a membership of 2,200, to build an orphan asylum. In 1863 it was decided to tax each member $1 a year and the sum amounted to $10,000 in four years. At the district convention, held in Milwaukee, in 1867, it was decided to use this fund as a nucleus for an orphan asylum. Trustees were elected, they met in New York in July, 1867; again in St. Louis, February 4, 1868, where it was decided to buy what was then known as the Cleveland Water Cure property. Trustee Chairman Jacob Aub appointed a committee of members of Cleveland B'nai B'rith lodges to buy the property, which they did for $25,000. This committee consisted of Abraham Wiener, S. Newmark, Kaufman Hays, Jacob Rohrheimer and Jacob Goldsmith. This property had then a frontage of 165 feet on Woodland avenue, with a depth of 680 feet, containing a large brick building. March 3, 1868, the trustees took possession and the property was deeded to District Grand Lodge No. 2. Next day additional property, with a frontage of 165 feet on Woodland avenue, was bought for $6,000. The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge was held in Cleveland, in July, 1868, and the Water Cure building, converted into an orphan asylum, was formally dedicated July 14, 1868. The dedication ceremonies were impressive.

Members of the Order B'nai B'rith marched with music and banners to the asylum grounds and among the orators were Dr. Isaac M. Wise, of Cincinnati; Mayor Stephen Buhrer, of Cleveland; President Bamberger, of the Grand Lodge; Miss Theresa Aub, of Cincinnati; Benjamin F. Peixotto; Isidor Bush, and Simon Wolf.

During the session of the Grand Lodge, the following trustees were chosen: Abraham Aub, president; Abraham Wiener, vice president; Jacob Rohrheimer, treasurer; William Kriegshaber, secretary; Isidor Bush, and Henry Greenebaum.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Aufrecht, of Cincinnati, were elected the first superintendent and matron, and September 29, 1868, the doors were thrown open for the first orphan children.

Six years later a new wing was built. Later Recording Secretary Buchman took charge and an industrial department was added. In 1879 Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Wolfenstein became superintendent and matron. Mrs. Wolfenstein passed away July 25, 1885. In 1880 more land was bought and the Abraham Aub Memorial School was dedicated. In 1881 Mr. A. Wiener was elected president.

On the twentieth anniversary, in 1888, the present beautiful new building was dedicated. The manual training school was opened in 1892.

Numerous improvements have since been made and under the guiding hand of Dr. Wolfenstein, it acquired the reputation of being the most perfect institution of the kind in the land. A short time ago a wonderful demonstration in Dr. Wolfenstein's honor was given, when members of the J. O. A. Alumni Association and other friends of the institution gathered here from all over the country. Since his resignation, Dr. Wolfenstein has lived in retirement, but continues to take the same interest in the Home he has always done.

Following Dr. Wolfenstein's resignation Rabbi Simon Peiser was elected superintendent, and Mrs. Peiser, matron.

Educational League

The Educational League is an organization established for the purpose of contributing to the culture, efficiency and good citizenship of this nation by affording pecuniary aid for higher education to deserving orphans of genius. It seeks to open the door of opportunity to the talented orphan boy or girl who early in life is bereft of father or mother and sometimes both.

It was organized in 1896 at the Jewish Orphan Asylum at the suggestion of Mr. Martin A. Marks, who was its president at the time of his death. The idea was given endorsement by the trustees and directors of the asylum, and shortly afterwards by various district lodges of the Order B'nai B'rith, until gradually the aims and purposes of the League became known.

In 1899 the League extended its first aid to a beneficiary, who graduated from a western medical college with the highest honors of his class. Each succeeding year has added to the number, until today the League numbers sixty young men and women of high mental ability, equipped to take their places in life beside their more fortunate sisters and brothers. They are living testimonials to the foresight and generosity of those who planned and sustained the League.

THE JEWISH INDEPENDENT

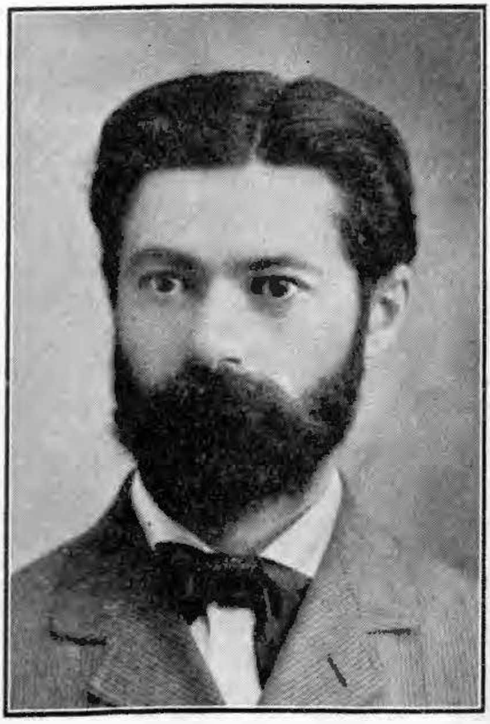

is Cleveland's great Jewish Newspaper — in Circulation — News — Advertising, and Prestige.

Council Educational Alliance

The first Council Educational Alliance at Woodland avenue, near E. 22d street, was the gift of Mr. Moritz Joseph. It had been the Joseph home and the owner turned it over for Educational Alliance purposes unconditionally. The home was sold at the time the Jewish community moved further east and the present beautiful building, formerly the home of the Excelsior Club, also located on Woodland avenue, opposite E. 38th street, was bought and remodeled for a modern, ideal settlement house. The headworkers of the Alliance from the time of its organization up to the present were as follows: Isaac Spectorsky, Henry Woolf, Max Carton, Emanuel Sternheim and the present efficient headworker, Walter Leo Solomon. The house has a large number of clubs for boys and girls and grown folks. It has baths for men and women, swimming classes for boys and girls, a library, pool room, dramatic clubs, a magnificent auditorium, game rooms, sewing and cooking classes, music classes, gymnasium, domestic science classes, dancing classes, millinery classes, printing classes, art classes. There is also a Mothers' Club, a Yiddish Dramatic Club and scores and scores of other activities.

Miss Ida Schott is doing good work as director of the girls' and women's work.

Steps are now being taken for the removal of the institution.

Infant Orphans' Home

In 1889 a few women banded together for the purpose of providing a sheltering home for infants. In the same year a charter was granted under the name of the Infant Orphans' Mother Society. After a hard struggle the society succeeded in acquiring a large house and lot on Forest street, now E. 37th street, for $5,000. August 4, 1901, the Home was dedicated. Three days after the opening the first child was admitted. When the Federation of Jewish Charities was organized, the Home was asked to become affiliated with it, which was agreed to. The inmates increased to such an extent that the Home was compelled by necessity to increase its housing capacity and it was decided to purchase the Goldsmith property at 2200 E. 40th street, where the Home is now located, for $14,000. The Home cares annually for over 200 children, the average during a year being sixty, at a cost of about $11,000. The society now has over 900 paying members and holds monthly meetings. Individual contributions received are placed in a sinking fund, which in a few years may grow large enough to enable the Home to become self-supporting.

Montefiore Home for Aged

The Sir Moses Montefiore Home for Aged and Infirm Israelites, located at the corner of Woodland avenue and E. 55th street, is one of the most complete institutions of the kind in the world. It is cheerful and home-like and just the sort of home the aged yearn for in their declining years. The Home harbors both sexes, even married couples.

District No. 4, Kesher Shel Barzel, a fraternal order, now a thing of the past, founded the Home in 1881, Hon Simon Wolf, of Washington, being one of the leading spirits at the time of its inception and dedication. The Home harbors on the average sixty inmates.

During the summer of 1917, work on the new Home on Mayfield road will begin.

Camp Wise

Camp Wise is located at Stop 133, Shore Line, Cleveland and Painesville electric railway, in Euclid village, some fifteen miles east of Cleveland. Camp Wise has twenty acres of ground located on the lake; hotel building and twelve cottages; electric lights, city water, gas; sanitary sewage disposal system; playground; swimming beach; several acres of garden, and is open ten to twelve weeks during the summer. It accommodates 150 persons per week.

Camp Wise, so named in honor of its donor, Mr. Samuel D. Wise, is a summer vacation place for men, women and children of the congested quarters of the city. There are children of all ages, working girls and boys, mothers with babes; and men and women, who are worn out and failing in health.

Hebrew Free Loan Association

Another of Cleveland's charities is the Hebrew Free Loan Association, founded a number of years ago and recently reorganized on a more business-like basis, which loans money without interest to men and women who are anxious to establish themselves in some small business. In other words, it helps the poor to help themselves and prevents them from pauperizing themselves. The association has a large membership, the members' dues making it possible to carry out the object the association was organized for. The officers, trustees and standing committees are as follows:

Hebrew Shelter Home

Occasionally there comes to town the down and out wayfarer, the stranger without a penny in his pocket. He has neither friends nor relatives in Cleveland, no prospect for immediate employment. Then the Hebrew Shelter Home, located at 3902 Orange avenue, steps in, gives him temporary shelter and saves him from being reduced to beggary.

Hebrew School and Institute

The Talmud Torah, also known as the Cleveland Hebrew School and Institute, is the culmination of many years of hard work coupled with enthusiasm on the part of the Orthodox Jewish community. Rabbi S. Margolies was the leader of the movement and he had many ardent followers. Money was raised in various ways, such as donations, bazaars and other forms of entertainment. It was a difficult task, but success finally crowned their efforts. The institute is located on E. 55th street, at Portland avenue, in buildings formerly used as a family hotel. The projectors hope that in course of time these buildings will give way to modern brick structures.

The original Talmud Torah is on E. 35th street, formerly Longwood avenue, near Scovill, and many classes in Hebrew, beginners and advanced, including the Talmud, are being taught in both the E. 35th and E. 55th street institutions. The former is called the branch school.

Deborah Lodge

Deborah Lodge No. 1 meets the first Sunday of each month at I. O. O. F. Hall, 2064 E. 55th street. The lodge was organized about thirty-five years ago by Mr. Solomon, J. Wertheim, Dr. Aaron Hahn and Mrs. Sarah Goldsmith. Messrs. Solomon and Wertheim have passed away, but the ladies keep up the good work and the lodge does a great deal of charity. The lodge gives $3 a week for sick benefit for a period of eight weeks, also other assistance if found necessary. The officers are:

Hebrew Ladies' Benevolent Society

The Hebrew Ladies' Benevolent Society meets every second Sunday of the month, in Pythian Temple. It was organized in 1896, the main object being the support of poor Jewish families. The present membership is over 200 and it is constantly growing. The following are the officers: Herman Feniger, 7910 Cedar avenue, president; Mrs. J. Goldberger, 2200 E. 70th street, vice president; M. Rickman, 2616 E. 48th street, recording secretary; I. Schreiber, 2526 E. 50th street, financial secretary; Mrs. Amalie Moskowitz, 7625 Lexington avenue, treasurer.

Instant Aid Society

The purpose of this organization is to give relief and supply complete baby outfits to the poor. It originated January 29, 1912. There are over 500 members. Meetings are held every second and fourth Sunday afternoon, at Haltnorth Hall. The officers are: President, Mrs. R. Arnson; vice president, Mrs. L. N. Lawrence; financial secretary, Miss H. Spero; recording secretary, B. Barnett; treasurer, Mrs. W. P. Yelsky.

Chesed Shel Emeth Cemetery

The Chesed Shel Emeth Cemetery Association was organized twelve years ago for the purpose of burying, free of charge, poor Jews. Its cemetery occupies four acres of land, at W. 73d street and Denison avenue. The average number of cases for the last six years has been 125 each year. There are 1500 members, who are paying toward the upkeep of this association. The officers are:

Orthodox Old Home

The Orthodox Old Home was organized December 13, 1906, with 200 members, who paid 10 cents a month. The first officers were: President, H. Rosenstein; vice president, H. Cooper; treasurer, M. Burstein; financial secretary, J. Landy; recording secretary, Joseph Rosenberg. The income was $3.70.

May 30, 1907, a frame house at 5912 Scovill avenue was purchased for $5000, of which $3000 was paid down. The house was remodeled at a cost of $3000, July 1, 1907. The first inmate, Mr. Noah Schwenger, aged ninety-six, was admitted. The house was not completed and he was boarded with a private family for a short time. On September 1, 1907, the Home was opened. October 3, 1907, H. Peskind was elected president. January 1, 1911, contract for a new brick addition was made, which cost about $12,000. August 18, 1911, the new building was opened and the mortgage was settled early in 1915.

Eighteen men and fourteen women are in the institution at present.

WESTERN RESERVE MENORAH SOCIETY.

The Western Reserve Menorah Society was founded in 1913 by a group of Adelbert students interested in the study of Jewish history, ideals and problems. The membership increased year by year and, along with this, the purpose of the society crystalized into "the study and advancement of Jewish culture and ideals." In 1915 it was decided to invite the girls of the College for Women to join. They immediately became interested and are now among the most enthusiastic supporters.

Meetings are held at Eldred Hall, on Adelbert College campus, the first and third Sunday of every month during the academic year. The public is always welcome. Membership is open to any student of the university in good standing.

The activities of the society are mainly educational. Members prepare and deliver talks on vital Jewish subjects. Prominent men lecture before the society. In both cases a general discussion follows the speech. Thirty-seven of the forty-three members subscribe to the Menorah Journal. This year the society is offering a prize of $25 for the best essay on the history, literature or achievements of the Jewish people. The contest is open to all university students. In the first week of March the one social gathering of the year takes place—the annual Menorah dance.

The Western Reserve Menorah Society is a member of the Intercollegiate Menorah Association, which has branches at forty-five of the largest universities and colleges in the United States and Canada.

FRATERNAL SOCIETIES

PYTHIAN SISTERS.

Deak Temple, No. 239, Pythian Sisters, was instituted on March 23, 1904. This organization is auxiliary to the Knights of Pythias and is banded together for fraternal and social purposes, not forgetting charity. A wife, mother or sister of a Knight of Pythias can only be a member. The temple is under the jurisdiction of grand and supreme laws, and officers are changed every six months. Sick benefit is $3 per week for eight weeks. There is also a funeral benefit and assistance when needed. Knights of Pythias are admitted as social members.

100,000

There are 100,000 Jews in Cleveland, and they do not all read the same newspaper. Neither do they wear the same kind of hat, go to the same synagogue, or vote the same ticket.

If you really want to "cover" the territory, use The Jewish Independent. "The Best Jewish Newspaper in America."

There is a salesman at your service, calling on most of them every Friday. The salesman is

THE JEWISH INDEPENDENT

ZIONISTS

ZIONIST COUNCIL.

The Zionist Council of Cleveland consists of representatives of every Zionist organization in this city. It was organized thirteen years ago and has charge of all local Zionist activities. It meets every second Thursday evening at the Hebrew Institute, 2500 E. 55th street.

The National Fund Association consists of all who are interested in the work for the Jewish National Fund, and is the local branch of Jewish National Fund of America. Its members are men and women, Zionists and sympathizers, and every Zionist organization is represented. The president and treasurer are elected by local Zionist Council, other officers being elected or appointed by that body. Its aim is to arrange for annual Zion Flag Day, Flower Day for National Fund Box collections, selling of National Fund Stamps.

IF ANYONE ASKS YOU WHICH IS THE BEST JEWISH NEWSPAPER, TELL THEM
THE JEWISH INDEPENDENT

MILTON, PROHIBITION AND THE JEWS

"And consider this, that if it comes to prohibiting, there is nothing more likely to be prohibited than truth itself"

Jews who take an interest in the present prohibition agitation may take heed of the above plea AGAINST PROHIBITION. The utterance was by one of the world's master poets, the one who had probably the widest knowledge of Hebrew literature and things Hebraic, John Milton.

Saturated with the Hebrew thought in which he had been educated and the Hebrew philosophy which had had so important a part in molding his mind, the great Milton here stands forth as the champion of that PRINCIPLE for which the Jews have suffered twenty centuries, and survived. IT IS THE PRINCIPLE OF PERSONAL LIBERTY.

Milton saw, and the Judaic principle has recognized, that you cannot FORCE people to be good, cannot make them "sober by act of congress" so to speak.

"Suffer not these licenseing prohibitions to stand at every place of opportunity, forbidding and disturbing," Milton appeals again.

Wine has never come under the ban of the strict dietary laws of the Jews, and apparently the Jews have never needed such PROHIBITION. For they have learned, as a race, that the only prohibition which really prohibits is the prohibition which the individual places on himself —namely, self-restraint.

Thus we find wine many times prescribed in the Old Testament as part of the ritual for celebration of Hebrew holidays. In the twenty centuries of the Jews' exile this beverage has always played a part in making those joys of home life for which they have been famous, those home joys which in the middle ages were their only solace when pillage and murder made the Jew's life a night-mare.

The Jews know what prohibition means. From time immemorial they have been forbidden to exercise all those rights which we associate with personal liberty. More than any other people they know how PROHIBITION GROWS. First one right is abridged, then another, until the individual has no more rights. Therefore, VOICE YOUR PROTEST NOW TO PREVENT THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA OF PROHIBITION.

The Jewish family has been noted for its high moral fiber—for its harmony. The Jewish people have been noted for their charity, their union. These facts are so, even though wine, beer and other alcoholic beverages are found in most Jewish homes, and indulged in by young and old, especially on the feast days or holidays, the times of the greatest rejoicings.

The JEWS today should still remain united AGAINST THE CAUSE OF PROHIBITION, which is so selfish and dangerous as to be willing to force its issue on our nation, even at the risk of disrupting it in the present great crisis.

IF a man does not provide for his children, if he does not provide for all those depenent upon him, and if he has not that vision of conditions to come, and that care for the days that have not yet dawned, which we sum up in the whole idea of thrift and saving, than he has not opened his eyes to any adequate concep tion of human life. We are in this world to provide not ourselves, but for others, and that is the basis of economy.

Even a five per cent error in the making of a lens will absolutely "queer" the best oculist's prescription for glasses. And only by following the best methods known, employing the best workmen available, and using the best material obtainable, can such an error be avoided.

We avoid it. We are handy. Drop in.

ADDENDUM

TEMPLE CHANGES.

On page 29 there appears a list of officers and trustees of the Temple. At the sixty-seventh annual meeting of the congregation, held April 29, 1917, the following new members of the Board of Trustees were elected: To serve for a term of three years: Messrs. Moses J. Gries, S. M. Gross, Jay Iglauer, Sidney Schloss, Emile L. Strauss, Jesse Solomon and William R. Weidenthal; to serve for one year, Magnus Haas.

RABBI ABBA HILLEL SILVER

At a subsequent organization meeting the Executive Board elected the following officers: President, Mr. Benjamin Lowenstein; vice president, Mr. Max E. Meisel; treasurer, Mr. Emanuel Einstein.

As this book goes to press, changes in the rabbinate of the Temple are being made. Rabbi Moses J. Gries, who has been minister twenty-five years, has preached his last sermon and he is to be succeeded in time for the fall holidays by Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, of Wheeling, W. Va., who was elected unanimously at the annual meeting, April 29.

Rabbi Silver is a graduate of the Hebrew Union College and the University of Cincinnati. Immediately following his graduation, he accepted a call to Eoff Street Temple, Congregation Leshem Shomayim, Wheeling, W. Va., where he has officiated with marked success ever since. He is twenty-four years of age, unmarried and has been a resident of New York since childhood, coming to this country with his family. His birthplace is Neustadt, Schirwindt, Poland.

Rabbi Silver, during his brief stay in Wheeling, was active in many fields as a director of the Associated Charities, a member of the Red Cross, of the Playground Association and Anti-Tuberculosis League, Men's Liberal Club, honorary member of the Rotary Club, of the B'nai B'rith and Elks. He toured the state in behalf of equal suffrage, during the last campaign. He is a member of the Advisory Board of the West Virginia State Woman's Suffrage Association.

HOSPITAL SOCIETY HEAD.

On page 162, the picture of the president of the Jewish Women's Hospital Society, Miss Tillie H. Cohn, was inadvertantly omitted. Miss Cohn has been the president of the society since its organization.

CHEVRA KADISHA.

On page 64 there appears a list of officers of the Congregation Chevra Kadisha, Temple Israel. Since that part of the book was printed, Mr. David J. Zinner has been elected president, and the ritual of the congregation has been changed to Reform.

COMBINING a constantly bettering grade of service with lowest rates for varying requirements, "Ohio State" offers to Cleveland the most comprehensive values to be had in Telephone Service today.

That this is appreciated by Cleveland is shown in the best way by the constant increase in numbers of subscribers.
