INTRODUCTION

I contemplated doing a project such as this after I had conducted a lengthy search for deceased relatives in Detroit and New York City. It occurred to me that my task would have been simplified somewhat if published burial indexes had existed for all or a portion of the cemeteries that I was interested in. Because of my work at the Jewish Historical Society of Delaware as their Archivist, I knew that no such combined index existed for all the Jewish cemeteries located on the Delmarva Peninsula.

Thus this book was put into motion. I decided to pursue the project as a fitting and lasting tribute to the members and builders of the various Jewish communities represented in this completed index. May their memory be for a blessing!

Each cemetery chapter begins with a very brief informational and historical introduction. This is followed by the actual index of burials in alphabetical order. Included with each name, when available, is the date of birth or age, and the date of death.

The information contained in this index was compiled from available cemetery and funeral home records, as well as extensive visits to each cemetery. It should be noted that due to the absence of many early funeral & cemetery records, the existence of unmarked graves, missing tombstones, and a small number of illegible tombstones, some gaps in the index do exist. Despite the occasional gap, the reader will find each section to be very comprehensive. If an individual is known to have been buried in any of these cemeteries prior to this index project and is not listed, a telephone call to the funeral home or cemetery contact person may yield the appropriate information. All additions and corrections are welcome.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This Project would not have been possible without the assistance of many individuals. I would like to thank Mr. Steve Michlin and Mr. Alan Schoenberg of Schoenberg Memorial Chapel in Wilmington for making a variety of records available to me. I would also like to thank the following persons: Mr. Charles Salkin, Mr. Al Green, and Mr. Mark Tillghman.

In addition, sincere and heartfelt thanks must go to Mrs. Barbara McEwing whose support, encouragement and useful ideas helped to bring this wonderful project to fruition.

The present-day Jewish Community Cemetery traces its beginnings to the year 1890 when the Orthodox Adas Kodesch Congregation secured a small parcel of land or "section" in the Lombardy Cemetery for use as their burial ground.

An earlier burial ground in Wilmington was established around 1886 at Fifth & Hawley Streets in the western part of the city. This first Jewish cemetery was begun by the Moses Montefiore Mutual Benefit Society and was in use only until the early part of the 20th Century. By 1910 all the graves from the Montefiore Cemetery were transferred to their new Jewish burial ground which was located next to the Adas Kodesch Congregation section at the Lombardy Cemetery.

As other synagogues and Jewish organizations were established in Delaware, many decided to secure burial space in the Lombardy Cemetery and thus set aside their own sections. The Chesed Shel Emeth Congregation section was established around 1902. The Workman's Circle Branch 69 organization established its section around 1909, and Beth Shalom Congregation set aside burial space in 1924 just two years after the congregation was founded. The Farband Labor Zionist Order organization also had set aside a portion of land in the cemetery. All these sections are located adjacent to one another.

Of the six original sections, only three exist today. The Adas Kodesch and Chesed Shel Emeth sections were combined when the two congregations merged in 1957 to form the present Adas Kodesch Shel Emeth Congregation. The Montefiore section now includes the former Workman's Circle section and the Farband section. It also includes a new sub-section for Temple Beth El of Newark, Delaware. Beth Shalom Congregation has the third section of the cemetery.

The Jewish Community Cemetery is now owned by the Jewish Community Cemetery Association (JCCA) and is no longer a part of the Lombardy Cemetery, though many older persons still refer to the Jewish Community Cemetery as "Lombardy". The JCCA was founded On December 4, 1951 and in 1952 it purchased the Jewish sections of the Lombardy Cemetery to form the present day Jewish Community Cemetery.

The cemetery grounds, which were formally dedicated on September 11, 1955, are well over 12 acres in size and are well kept. At one time there was a small stone building on the grounds that was used for pre-burial purposes. That structure was torn-down in the 1970's. A storage and garage structure with a small office was completed & dedicated in May 1975. The cemetery has a Jewish War Veterans memorial on the grounds.

Records for burials in the cemetery are maintained by each section organization. Many records and general information are also available through Schoenberg Memorial Chapel located at 519 Philadelphia Pike in Wilmington. Cemetery Superintendent is Steve Michlin. He can be reached at (302) 762-0334.

To reach the cemetery grounds, travel north on Concord Pike (202), make ~~a left~~ RIGHT turn onto Foulk Road. The cemetery will be on the left side a very short distance from the Concord Pike. There are two entrances to the cemetery. The main entrance way is marked by two stone walls. The other entrance has a small stone pillar. The cemetery is marked by a wooden fence along the Foulk Road side.

The cemetery is open Sunday through Fridays during daylight hours.

BETH EMETH MEMORIAL PARK, INC.
FAULKLAND AND DUPONT ROADS
WILMINGTON, DELAWARE

• • • • • •

The Beth Emeth Memorial Park was established in 1932 with the purchase of 9 acres to serve as a burial ground for members of Congregation Beth Emeth and others who wished to purchase burial space in the new cemetery. The cemetery was incorporated on October 26, 1932 by John H. Brand, David Goldberger, and Dr. Abraham Goberman. It is located southwest of the Wilmington city limits and is across the street from the Silverbrook Cemetery. Beth Emeth Memorial Park is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors and has an office at Congregation Beth Emeth. Beth Emeth, which was founded in 1906, is the only Reform Jewish congregation on the Delmarva Peninsula.

The cemetery contains the graves of Beth Emeth members as well as many others from the Jewish community at large. A number of the community's most respected past leaders and personalities are buried here. The cemetery, which is located on an irregularly shaped parcel of land, has a brick entrance wall with a gate. A Jewish War Veterans memorial and Holocaust memorial can be found at the cemetery. The cemetery includes a significant portion of large family plots, is spacious, well cared for and has many beautiful trees and shrubs.

Burial records as well as other pertinent information is available at the synagogue office, 300 West Lea Boulevard in Wilmington. The telephone number for the synagogue is (302) 764-2393. To reach the cemetery travel west on Lancaster Avenue and make a left turn onto Route 100 (Dupont Road). Stay to your right as the cemetery is just ahead on the left side after the road forks. The Cemetery is open during daylight hours 7 days a week.

Burials for this cemetery are indexed as of May 1995.

MACHZIKEY HADAS CEMETERY
SOUTH DUPONT HIGHWAY AND WILDEL AVENUE
WILMINGTON, DELAWARE

• • • • • •

The Machzikey Hadas Cemetery was established shortly after the Machzikey Hadas Congregation was founded in 1929. The cemetery is located just south of Wilmington in a residential neighborhood adjacent to the Gracelawn Memorial Park. Congregation Machzikey Hadas is an Orthodox-Traditional congregation and the cemetery follows Orthodox ritual regarding burial, decoration and visitation. The cemetery is relatively small, but is spacious and well cared for. It contains a number of unusual memorials. The oldest grave dates from 1934.

The entrance to the cemetery consists of a small, low brick wall without gates. The cemetery is open from dawn to dusk Sunday through Friday. Records and other information for burials in the cemetery are available through the Schoenberg Memorial Chapel at 519 Philadelphia Pike in Wilmington.

To reach the cemetery travel south on Dupont Highway past Wilmington towards New Castle. Make a left turn onto Wildel Avenue. Cemetery is a short distance down the road on the right. It is set back from the road and the entrance is marked by a small stone sign in the shape of a headstone. The entrance has a small black & white tile sign that is set in the ground.

Burials in the cemetery are indexed as of April 1995

SHARON HILLS MEMORIAL PARK
GARDEN OF MOUNT SHARON - CONGREGATION BETH SHOLOM
SHARON HILL ROAD
DOVER, DELAWARE

• • • • • •

Sharon Hills Memorial Park is located three miles west of Dover on the north side of Route 8 (Division Street). The Garden of Mount Sharon section of the cemetery is the burial ground for Congregation Beth Sholom of Dover and is located to the right of the cemetery entrance, once you are inside the cemetery. This section of the cemetery was consecrated as a Jewish burial ground in the late 1960's with the first burial taking place is 1968. The cemetery uses only flat bronze markers.

The Dover Jewish community dates to the latter half of the 19th century with Congregation Beth Sholom having been founded in the 1930's. Before the existence of this Jewish burial ground in Dover, most Jewish burials took place in Wilmington, Delaware and other locations where there were family connections. The Garden of Mount Sharon section of Sharon Hills Memorial Park serves Jewish residents of Dover and Southern Delaware. Burial records and information is available from the cemetery office (302) 734-3535 Additional information may be obtained by contacting Beth Sholom Congregation at (302) 734-5578.

Burials in this cemetery are indexed as of March 1995.

BETH ISRAEL CEMETERY
SOUTH SCHUMAKER DRIVE
SALISBURY, MARYLAND

The Cemetery of Congregation Beth Israel was established in the 1950's when land was purchased adjacent to the Wicomico Memorial Park. The first burial took place in 1959. Prior to that date members of the congregation and others in the Jewish community were buried in Jewish cemeteries in Wilmington, Delaware, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Baltimore, Maryland. Family ties generally determined the locale of burial.

Despite the relative young age of their cemetery, Congregation Beth Israel dates back to 1925 when it was founded as the Kahelas Israel Congregation. The present name of Beth Israel was adopted in 1951. The Beth Israel Cemetery is approximately 2 acres in size and is well cared for and attractive. Burial records and information are available by contacting the synagogue office at (410) 742-2564.

To reach the cemetery, travel south on Business Highway 13 through town, make a left turn onto Main Street and a right turn onto Snow Hill Road (Highway 12). Make a left turn onto Schumaker Drive, the cemetery is on your right past the Wicomico Memorial Park. The entrance is marked by two brick entrance walls and a bronze sign marker. the cemetery is open during daylight hours Sunday through Friday.

Burials are indexed as of April 1995
