Preface

The first edition of The Encyclopedia of Jewish Institutions of the United States and Canada is published to fill the growing need for a readily available source of information. In compiling this Encyclopedia it has been our intention to appeal to those who want to find, with the least possible delay, vital and various information about Jewish institutions.

This book serves as a standard reference guide to: Synagogues, Congregations, Temples, Community Centers, Schools, Colleges, Universities, Women's Organizations, Service Agencies, National Organizations, Lodges, Fraternal Associations, Museums, Libraries, Hospitals, Nursing Homes & Senior Citizen Residences, among others, throughout the United States and Canada. Entries contain appropriate information on the institution's affiliations, accreditations, goals, services, activities, programs, members, employees, history, publications, facilities, achievements, names of current officers and staff, full address and telephone number.

In a number of cases, due to a lack of information supplied by the institutions or organizations, it has not been possible to include as much data as we would have preferred. However, the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all institutions lacking full data are included as a reference aid. We expect that fuller information will be included in the second edition which is already in the planning stage.

Arranged geographically, the entries are alphabetized by state or province, then by the local community and by name of institution. The sample entry, which follows this preface, illustrates the types of information included. On the following page is a list of abbreviations. Also included in this volume is an index listing all the institutions in alphabetical order.

An enormous amount of time and effort has been invested in this publication. All the information in this edition was supplied to us by the institutions. Needless to say, the length of each entry is by no means any indication of the relative importance or size of the institution. Every effort has been made to make this edition as up-to-date as possible. It is our hope that this book will also serve as a useful tool to the many who wish to know and learn about the North American Jewish Community.

The editor would like to thank the many people who contributed to this work, and to give special thanks to Jill Anolik and Aliza Kopman for their assistance in the preparation of this edition.

In a continuing effort to improve this encyclopedia and to insure that all information is current, we invite your comments, suggestions for improvement, and names and addresses of additional institutions, as well as information on omissions and errors. These should be addressed to: Editor, Mosadot Publications, Inc., 45 John St., Room 908, New York City, NY 10038 United States.

Mailing lists of Jewish institutions, including not only those in the encyclopedia, but also those stored on the database, are available. Requests should be directed to the above address.

The editor appreciates the cooperation of all those individuals who have provided information.

ODED ROSEN, Editor.

Supporting servs – resettlement o refugees & newcomers; life supportive servs for the elderly, the homebound & the teenage parent which include homemaker servs, socialization, friendly visitors, volunteers & other special needs; Edu for Family Loving for people with similar concerns & common life situations; discussion series & single meetings for groups which are concered with parenting, marriage, sexuality, divorce, the middle yrs & aging. Est in 1949. With the combined efforts of lay leaders & professional guidance, the J Welfare Soc became the J Social Servs Dept of the Council. The J Social

Servs was accepted into the Conncil of Social Agy, now the Tucson Com Council, United Way, & became a recipient of the Combined J Appeal. The Drs Panel was org in 1951. It became an integral part of the J Social Servs, treating patients without a fee. In 1953 the J Social Servs was licensed as a chil placing agy. In 1958, with the expansion of servs to the aged, chil & involved family problems, the Attorneys Panel was formed to aid the Agy & clients. The request for casework & related servs increased. To reflect the knowledge that the family is the crucible in which healthy personalities are developed, the Agy changed its name to the J Family Serv. In 1959 a psychiatric consultant joined the professional staff. In 1959 a fee schedule was est. In 1963 the J Family Serv was awarded a natl award for superior initiative & achievment in the advancement of social welfare for the aged by the Council of J Fed & Welfare Funds. The Tucson Com Council recognized J Family Agy servs to the aged & it received the Council's meritorious award. The Agy had been housed in the Tucson Com Ctr since the bldg was opened in 1955; In 1964 the J Family Serv moved into the J Com House which is adjacent to the present Ctr. In 1980 an eastside off was opened to serve that segment of the com. The J Family Servs has undertaken various studies & projs that have resulted in the creation of new facilities & servs for the com – The Shanhouse Nursery Sch & K, the Day Camp, & the Golden Age Recreational Prog. The Agy's intensive study of the Aged led to the est of a wide range of non-institutional servs for the older person, & to the bldg of the Hanmaker J Nursing Home for the Aged. Pres: Michael W. Est in the early 1900's when mems of the J com obtained a small cottage to enable elderly J to live in a traditional J environment. Subsequently, the num grew to 350 residents at the five acre site which came to be known as the Los Angeles J Home for the Aged. During the Depression, some J leaders purchased seven acres of farmland in Reseda for the Industrial Ctr for the Aged, a sheltered workshop plan for the prematurely elderly. After WWII, the Industrial Ctr was converted to a traditional licensed protective care & limited nursing facility called The CA Home for the Aged at Reseda. With the shift of the J population, a site was obtained in Reseda for the construction of the new J Home for Aged. In 1974 the residents were moved to the new facility. At the same time, the CA Home for the Aged began to adapt, innovate & create new approaches to serve the elderly – it became known as Menorah Village. In 1979 the two facilities merged & became known as the J Homes for Aging of Greater Los Angeles. On Oct 11 1981 ground was broken for a new nursing bldg at the Home. San Diego Hebrew Home for the Aged. Non-profit residential & care facility for the aged. To provide high quality med & nursing care in meaningful, hygienic & homelike surroundings. Skilled nursing care; dietary servs; observance of kashruth; rehabilitative servs; social & recreation progs; beautician/barber; banking servs; personal laundry; transportation; podiatry; optical; dental; pharmaceutical; psychiatric servs. 102 employees; 65 volunteers. in 1945. The original bldg, located on Fourth Ave, housed ten elderly. To meet the demand of the growing J aged population, the Home, in 1945, built a 29 bed residential facility on a 2.5 acre site at its present location. In time, the J com recognized two problems. Firstly, when the resident could no longer care for his/her personal needs, he would have to leave the home for a higher level of care leaving behind the J atmosphere. Secondly, people were living longer & thus there was not enough rm in the existing residence. The Bd of Dirs of the Home raised funds, & a 27 bed skilled nursing unit was added in 1961. In 1969 an additional 15 beds were added. In 1978 a 29 skilled nursing unit, arts & crafts rm/adm wing, expanded kitchen, physical therapy dept, gift shop & beauty salon, third dining rm, & a major refurbishing of the existing facility were completed. All facilities have been built through private donations. Long range goals for the J aged of San Diego include: a broadening of servs to the homebound aged, day care, short-term rehabilitation/convalescent ctr, residential apt complex, & an increase of com awareness. On Nov 3, 1887, 43 San Franciscans met to talk about f a hosp which would provide free care for needy J patients in San Francisco. On Dec 15, 1896, 11 dirs of the Mount Zion Hosp Assn signed a document of purpose. The Hosp undertook, early in its hist, the training of young physicians. A Ladies Auxiliary Soc was formed the same yr the Hosp was chartered. In 1905 the Hosp merged with the Emanuel Sisterhood Polyclinic. A yr later, the San Francisco earthquake & fire destroyed the Clin. The hosp was only partially damaged. The city had hardly been restored when a cttee was appointed to solicit funds for the old wooden bldg which could no longer be repaired or expanded. The new brick bldg was ready for occupancy in 1913 as a 134 bed hosp. The bldg is still in use today as the Post Scott Bldg. The same yr, money was contributed for a Free Clin of Mount Zion Hosp. The new OPD Bldg was completed in 1917 & with it was organized a new social servs dept & dental clin. The Hosp evolved the first insurance plan to help private patients meet their hosp bills. Mount Zion was the first hosp in the area to start a psychiatric serv. In the 1940's Mount Zion treated thousands of J refugees. A new modern hosp was ready for use in 1951. In 1960 needs created by the new demands of med tech caused the com to raise funds which enabled the Hosp to add a sixth floor on its Post St wing, three floors on its Divisadero St bldg, & a new outpatient bldg. In the 1950's & 1960's the Hosp responded to changing socio-med needs with innovations such as the first hosp based home care prog, the first US funded chil & youth proj on the W Coast, the dev of the W Side Com Health Mental Ctr consortium & many other devs. Com Relation Dept: Irene Dobbins. 1600 Divisadero St, San Francisco CA (415) 567–6600, mailing add: PO Box 7921, San Francisco CA 94120.

rel, charitable, edu, social & social servs endeavors. Rel Servs; Sisterhood; Brotherhood; Youth Groups; Rel Sch; library. 850 mems. Temple Judea was f in 1952 by a handful of couples who felt the need for a temple in the valley. In Oct of that yr, the group, now numbering 22 people, began renting The Com Methodist Church on Amigo & Gault Sts in Reseda. In Mar 1953 the Cong was formally accepted into the UAHC with 31 paid up mems. In 1954 the first full time Rabbi was hired. The church was purchased by the Cong. Since hiring people was costly, the mems undertook to do most of the restoration work on the bldg themselves. By 1956 membership had grown to 175 families with 294 chil in the Rel Sch. The present site was purchased in 1958. The property on Amigo & Gault was sold to the Mormon Church. The Cong relocated to Lindley Ave using the existing houses for classrooms & offs. St Paul's Methodist Church allowed the Cong to rent its facilities. It was decided to first construct a social hall which would be multi-purpose. The opening of the social hall took place on Dec 10, 1960. The temple continued to use St Paul's for classes & occasional servs. By 1963 there were 314 families & 540 chil in the Rel Sch. Ground was broken for new classrooms in 1964. The existing houses were demolished. In Dec 1966 the new bldg was dedicated, consisting of a sanctuary with seating for 280, lobby, lounge, robing rms, kitchen & additional bathroom facilities. In 1969 Cong Kol Odom merged with Temple Judea. Rabbis: Steven B. Jacobs, Steven M. Reuben; Cantor Gerald L. Admission of 1,000 patients; 7,600 outpatient visits. More than 1,000 physicians, biomedical scientists, behavioral scientists, nurses, lab technicians, therapists, edu & support staff. On Nov 3, 1889 Denver's most prominent J met at a temple to discuss establishing a hosp for the homeless sick. On Nov 14 a hosp charter was adopted. On Apr 8, 1890 articles of incorporation were filed with the CO Sec of State for the J Hosp Assn of CO. Construction of the bldg took nearly two yrs. While working on the original bldg, Frances Jacobs passed away. Her charitable work among Christian & J groups spurred her friends to contribute toward the new ins. The Assn named the ins the Frances Jacobs Hosp. The bldg remained empty for seven yrs. All efforts to raise money for the Hosp were fruitless. The J citizens realized the proj of bldg was too great to be handled solely by the small com. In 1895 the rabbi proposed the possibility that B'nai B'rith open the Hosp under its auspices. In May 1899 the proj was approved. The name of the Hosp was changed to the Natl J Hosp for Consumptives. The Hosp was officially opened on Dec 10, 1899. In the autumn of 1901 the first addition was completed. Money was donated for a two story pavilion. The pavilion was dedicated in Jan 1903, increasing the hosp patient capacity by 50 beds. In 1907 the W campus was f as the Denver Sheltering Home which housed chil of TB victims. In 1912 NJH opened a new bldg which housed the first prog in the country for educating & rehabilitating TB patients. Seven yrs later, NJH pioneered in the field of pure sci research. In 1925 NJH became the training ctr in TB & chest med for stu at the Univ of CO, & the name was changed to Natl J Hosp at Denver. In 1940 a new prog of instruction in TB nursing was begun in affiliation with the Univ of CO Sch of Nursing. The Hosp broadened its chest med prog to include cardiology in the late 1940's. Its cardiopulmonary lab, set up in 1946, was the first in the country in a chest hosp. An adm ctr was completed in 1951 & a new med facility was completed in 1953. In Jul 1953 part of the Hosp was flooded. Through donations, the damage was quickly repaired. A seven floor basic research lab was completed in 1959. Hosp trustees formalized a name change in 1965 which had been in effect for several yrs. They registered the words 'and Research Center' as part of the NJH name. In 1974 a new 11 story health care & research bldg was dedicated. In 1978 the Natl J Hosp & Research Ctr & the Natl Asthma Ctr merged. Staff pubs sci papers & abstracts in sci journals. NJH/NAC is a two story campus complex of 22 bldgs on 30 acres, providing every modern facility for patient treatment & rehabilitation, basic & clin research, & the training of med professionals in its specialities. A nondenominational chapel is located in the May Bldg. NJH/NAC trains physicians, research scientists, nurses & public health personnel.
